

Renewal Presbyterian Church of the Main Line
Request for Counseling Support

In order to encourage members and regular attenders of Renewal Church to seek professional counseling and to assist with the fees associated with counseling, Renewal Church is willing to financially support members and regular attenders by reimbursing 20% of the fees of their first ten counseling sessions at approved counseling facilities. In order to qualify for this reimbursement, the requestor must comply with the stipulations below.

- * Receive counseling from one of the following approved facilities:
  - Philadelphia Renewal Network (PRN)
  - Christian Counseling and Education Foundation (CCEF)
  - Individual counselors at other facilities if approved by the Renewal Diaconate in consultation with the Lead Pastor
- * Agree to allow the counselor to have occasional check ins with one member of the Renewal diaconate regarding the progression of the counseling
- * Invoices of qualifying sessions will be required to receive reimbursement
- * All requests must be approved by the Renewal Diaconate at its discretion
