Hello [biz name],

With "lots of positive reviews," [strong point], you are already positioned well.

We can extend that positivity even further using well planned strategies coupled with your input and feedback, and effectively boost patient interest.

For example crafting your website's language in a way that speaks to people on a personal level is the first big move.

I'm excited about starting this Marketing Blueprint with you, offering risk-reduced projects that we can plan together.

Let's schedule a time to discuss when it suits you best.
