

Government OF, BY, and FOR the people

Of the people: The government represents and draws its authority directly from the citizens (not a dictator or monarch).

By the people: Citizens exercise their power through free and fair elections, voting, and participating in the democratic process.

For the people: Elected leaders and institutions are expected to work for the general welfare and protect the rights of all citizens.