

e.cogparagraph 1

Each year, on the eleventh hour on the eleventh day of the eleventh month, we observe Remembrance Day across Canada. On Tuesday November 11, 2014 at 10:30 am in the McMurrich gymnasium, our school will be remembering those who fought to give us safety and freedom. Veterans are the reason why we are living in a safe and free community, they risked their lives for all Canadians. Everyday when we walk into class we stand up tall with our heads held up high, that we live in a country that believes in peace for all people. ~~While the National anthem is playing we sing to appreciate those who fought and fell in the honor of our Canadians.~~

Paragraph 2

Poppies are meant for respect to our soldiers that fought for us in from World War 1 to present day. Poppies represent peace and dreams for the worlds people which is what drove most soldiers to go to war. They all had a dreamed of a world with peace and happiness.

Poppy donations support Veterans in a many ways such as,

~~A new generation of veterans is coming back and asking the Legion for housing needs, career and transition counselling. Every year, from some time in October or November to Remembrance Day, the Legion and our school conducts the Poppy Campaign. Canadians have donate money each year to support the legion services we provide and to clearly show their to recognition recognize all the soliders who risked their lives for us so that all of the debt owed to so many Canadians who gave their could live in freedom. lives for our freedom.~~

Poppies are meant as a symbol to show respect for our soldiers that fought for us, in World War 1 to the present day. Poppies represent peace and dreams for the worlds people which is what drove most soldiers to go to war. They all had a dream of a world with peace, love and happiness.

Poppy donations support Veterans in many ways such as, housing needs, career and transition counselling. Canadians donate money each year to support the legion services to recognize all the soldiers, who risked their lives for us so that all Canadians could live in freedom.

Paragraph 3

All over Canada we wear poppies as a symbol of love and peace on November 11th, we unite as a country to remember those who gave their lives for us. Please bring in 2$ or more to help support our Veterans and receive a poppy for your generous donation.

Who will you remember on November 11th 2014?

LEST WE FORGET

1. Following the trench warfare which took place in the poppy fields of Flanders, during the 1st World War, red poppies have become a symbol of remembrance of soldiers who have died during wartime.
2. In the poppy fields of Flanders during World War 1 red poppies are now a symbol of Remembrance Day and soldiers who sacrificed their lives trying to have peace in our world during the World War 1 the crane represents good fortune and longevity.

refer to the crane as the "bird of happiness."

Mothers who pray for the protection of the crane's wings for their children will recite the prayer:

"O flock of heavenly cranes cover my child with your wings."