

Ringmaster: I wasn't sure exactly how to follow up something like the last fic, but then our own Gli-er, Maud sent me this, which fits the other thing we commonly did in the old F/F/T3K, horrible obscure self-inserts that nobody has read but are incredibly riffable. Maud, a bit of an intro, if you will?

Kanzlerin Maud: Funny story about this particular sample, actually. I was hanging around in a Google Hangout (of course) with a handful of others, and for a larf, we decided to dig up some less-than-stellar fanfics to read and laugh over together. Needless to say, as I was touring around Fanfic.net for one such story, this one sort of... caught my eye, to put it that way. Aside from the very unassuming title, "My Life in MLP", it seemed to be a special case of bad. One sentence in, and what do you know, I'd struck gold. It's such a blatant self-insert with such horrid textual errors and stupidly contrived plot elements that I couldn't help but find it utterly hilarious, if only because of how audaciously awful it is. Though, that could be the madness settling in...

Ringmaster: And a few paragraphs into reading it myself, I was reminded of another, very similar fic I read years back that had so much in common with this one that it'd be foolish not to pair them up. Both of them are stories from Fanfiction.net posted in 2012 with extremely short "block-of-text" chapters with shitty writing and horrible grammar that involve an OC human coming to Equestria, romancing a canon pony, and somehow beating Discord. But we'll get to that one later, for now have this... abomination.

Cola: Not just HiE, but a double helping of the toilet fodder. Are you trying to kill us?

Maud: Did I also mention that the author posted thirteen chapters as a single chapter? Because he did. And that's terrible.

Fallen Prime: Oh god, the grammar of the story titles... fuck your shit, Kanzerlin.

Maud: I apologize for nothing.

Steel: I at least apologize for not being here on time. LET THE RIFF BEGIN!

Cola: Abandon all hope, ye who enter here.

It was 2018, I just turned nineteen and I am off my way to go to collage.

Sigma: With that spelling I find it unbelievable that any college would accept you, Something: Oh boy here we go.

Maud: Yeah... Let this set the tone for what's to come.

NaturalGlitch: I should sue for tense whiplash.

Neo: Also, can we just address the fact that he said he was going to 'Collage'?

Cola: To be fair, the character probably belongs more in a collage than a college. Collages are made up of flat things.

Crazy56U: With any luck, the collage is that of "The King of Town's Adventures in Giant Cockroachland". Either that or Judgement Day, since it is 2018...

due to the lack of funding

NaturalGlitch: "—they had to teach some of the classes in the bathrooms..."

Crazy56U: "the school had to double as a prison."

I couldn't go on my eighteenth birth day

Something: Not two words.

Steel: A whole year gone by, and no school to support his knowledge. Well, he's screwed.

NaturalGlitch: "I've always had trouble 'going' for some reason, if you know what I mean."

Crazy56U: Because, as we all know, all colleges everywhere must close for a year after you turn 18. All that funding goes into your birthday presents.

I was supposed to go to florida to study gaming Something: Because that's totally something colleges teach.

Neo: I mean, studying game design is one thing, but just gaming is something you do at home...not at school.

Maud: Nowadays, I wouldn't be surprised.

Steel: It's the year 2018! Game testing is a burgeoning industry with all the AR hentai games. Gotta build endurance somehow!

Crazy56U: Really? Florida? Instead of literally anywhere else? ...excluding Texas, of course, for obvious reasons?

and movie animation.

Fallen Prime: ...what's even more depressing is that this is exactly what I'm in college to study.

Steel: And then Fallen Prime was actually the main character.

SC276: Better you than me!

Cola: Fallen, it's not your fault.

NaturalGlitch: "And all they taught me was how to cry while looking at my student loan bills."

Crazy56U: And since this college is in Florida, that means the animation is going to be Video Brinquedo-level quality. ...you know, if they still exist in 2018.

"well mom i'm off to winter park" I said.

Steel: "This really nice guy in a red jacket and awesome moustache gave me a ticket!"

SC276: Winter Park. In Florida. Someone's desperate for attendance.

RJ: Considering one of the largest cold weather testing facilities is in Florida, I'm not surprised by it.

Crazy56U: Do you even know what Florida is like in terms of weather? Snow is practically a myth there.

"please be careful I don't want you to get hurt,

NaturalGlitch: "Remember that time you stuck your head in the toilet? Let's not have another incident—OK?"

Creazy56U: Please, your lips say "Be careful.", but your text formatting says "Please get eaten by a bear."

please call me when you get there."

Sigma: "After all, I need SOME sort of beacon to direct the air strike on you."

"I will mom," I replied,

NaturalGlitch: "I'll even use a phone this time and not my mental powers that I totally have. The voices got really mean last time."

Crazy56U: And he never did.

"don't worry i'll be fine."

Fallen Prime: This reassurance brought to you by the National Fate Temptation Committee.

Steel: Major donators are Foreshadowing Inc., Aperture Science and The World Association For Pony Societies.

TopherRiffs: And the support of readers like you. Thank you.

Crazy56U: She dies at the end, doesn't she...

I am on my way now to florida.

Something: Wait, Florida? I thought you were going to the park! Make up your mind!

Steel: Silly Something, Winter Park is in the Sunny State, obviously! Where it's always summer.

Cola: We are on our way now to hell.

Scarlet: This is the lamest story rap I have ever heard.

Crazy56U: We... knew this?

it took about three days but I manage to make it

NaturalGlitch: "Sure wish I didn't have to ride a goat to get there; they always eat my lunch and steal my money."

JofY: "He was tasty though."

Crazy56U: That's... not really impressive since you never specified where you were coming from. For all I know, you were in Georgia, got lost for 3 days, and then stumbled across Florida by accident.

with my pre packed food supplies, mostly ham sandwiches

Fallen Prime: That's not how you spell sammich.

Steel: That's also not part of a balanced breakfast! Get some grains in there, kid!

SC276: Have there been capital letters besides "I" yet? I've already started blocking this out.

Crazy56U: Theory: the ham was spoiled, and the narrator got severe food poisoning. Hence the issues in writing.

and cokes. I was tired I skipped the tour till the next day i got my apartment key and unpacked.

Cola: Apartment?!

Sigma: I think he probably skipped the "Rough draft - Final draft" process too, judging by the writing.

Steel: He tried to skip the publishing process, too, but that would've been too much work.

Neo: This isn't even a rough draft. The author just somehow managed to find a way to transfer his unfiltered thoughts directly onto paper in a chaotic mess.

Cola: It's really just a pile of random neural firings.

NaturalGlitch: Maybe some maniac who gets off on horrible grammar and spelling broke into this guy's house and forced him to write like he has metal shrapnel in his brain.

Crazy56U: This only serves to confirm my "food poisoning" theory...

"hey there!" said fiendly voice.

Fallen Prime: Yeah, most fiends have voices like that.

Steel: Enter the villain!

RJ: (overly happy) Hey there new neighbor! We're having a potluck block party next week, it'd be a pip if you could come! I'll be kidnapping you all afterwards for some evil plot! Oh, and it's BYOB! See ya there!

"Yea you whats your name?" he asked.

NaturalGlitch: "Luci! ...fer."

Crazy56U: "Christian Grey!"

"My name is Chris whats yours?" I replied with an awkward tone I never noticed before.

Crazy56U: ...okay, then, managed to guess that by accident...

Fallen Prime: I hope you're proud.

SC276: I'm guessing now that the protagonist is either a girl or gay, and shipping will ensue.

NaturalGlitch: "My name is Sue. Mary Sue."

"My name is Andrew, andy for short."

Fallen Prime: Or call him Drew.

Steel: And then Twow was the supporting character.

Neo: Remember...

"Well its nice to meet a friendly face."

NaturalGlitch: Too bad it's not his own! Dun dun du~un!

Crazy56U: Wait, someone stole his face? Is this now Face/Off 2?

I looked at him with one of my famous smirks.

Something: More famous than Ben Affleck's?

Sigma: We don't even know who this asshole is, how can he say ANYTHING about him is famous?

Steel: Nah, it's just his smirk is the trademark of douchebags everywhere. That's how he's famous: he invented it.

Scarlet: I've actually got a few of them in my back room. Bought 'em off of Ebay before he got big.

Crazy56U: It's world famous because it makes him look constipated.

"Do you go to Sailing Arts U?"

Something: Worst college name ever.

Ringmaster: Ah, yes, Sailing Arts U. Clearly the most prestigious college for... gaming and movie animation.

Neo: I feel like that's supposed to be a reference to Full Sail University, but I know that the author probably couldn't think of a good name so he just ripped one off. Though my question is, if that was the case...why not just put Full Sail Univeristy in the story?

Cola: The author couldn't even steal the name correctly.

Steel: Shipping Arts U, premier destination of all fanfiction writers! Their graduation rate is a bit too high, though.

JofY: Well, they do work on a pass/pass system.

Crazy56U: Eh, I don't get why they made a Wii U port for Sailing Arts. It worked just fine on the Wii...

he asked with glee. "actully I do i didn't want to go today because I flet tired,

NaturalGlitch: "Sure, I mean, I did pay a freakish amount of money that I'll never see again and will be paying my student loans for the rest of my life, but I get so tired from staring at walls."

Crazy56U: (Googles "flet")you "floor" tired?

Scarlet: Why are we talking about Forward Lines of Enemy Troops?

so I just came to get key to my apartment."

SC276: From what I understand, this is the actual behavior of college students.

Topher: Yeah, that's actually pretty spot on.

Scarlet: Nah, full accuracy requires that he order a pizza as well. Like, immediately. And also that he be drunk.

"Do you need help unloading?" he offered.

Cola: Wow, salty! This got under way quick! So now the gay sex -- oh.

NaturalGlitch: "Here—have some stool softener to help you unload."

Crazy56U: Yep, I know how this scheme works. You offer to help someone move in, and then you abscond off with their expensive stuff. I read the news, I know what your game is...

"Yes I would appreciate that thank you."

Fallen Prime: The commentary's probably going to obscure the paragraph divides, but I SWEAR these paragraphs have multiple speakers.

Steel: ANDREW-002, COMMENCE RESPONSE AND MANUAL LABOR ASSISTANCE.

Cola: This is the first time I've seen a fanfic riffing that made the dialogue slightly more readable.

Crazy56U: Only slightly, it can't work miracles...

we manage to get every thing unloaded before the night life emerged.

Something: NOW KISS.

Steel: Now we get funkeeeeeeh.

Neo: The author is teasing us at this point.

SC276: So, flowers that open in the dark, or...?

RJ: Darkness falls across the land, the midnight hour is close at hand...

NaturalGlitch: "A full night of Counter-Strike Source! But not CS-GO; that's for noobs who like change."

Crazy56U: Suddenly, vampires.

basically when all the frat partys begin.

Fallen Prime: Just in case you weren't aware of what the college nightlife is.

Sigma: My eyes are hurting.

Steel: I never had this shit in college. Jealous.

SC276: My college probably has these, but I'm both not interested in frats and really uncomfortable with loud noises, so...

Topher: Rally together introverts! There are dozens of us! DOZENS! Well, I guess if you're rather stay home, that's okay.

Crazy56U: I don't know about the rest of you guys, but I am digging this MLP story so far! ...sure wish the MLP part would show up, though...

I wasn't a party goer myself

NaturalGlitch: "—but my other self is, so I wore his skin that night."

Crazy56U: "because I saw The Hangover films, and they taught me why partying is bad. And progressively not-funny."

but I managed to go now and then.

Steel: "I saw some shit."

SC276: "It's where I stuck spaces in all my compound words."

RJ: He knows his limits. He stops drinking before he gets coherent and articulate.

Cola: I'm not sure that's really a danger, RJ.

RJ: ... Can I start drinking until he gets more coherent and articulate then?

Fallen Prime: If I have to riff sober, so do you.

Crazy56U: He camped out by the bathroom just in case.

when I went inside my new, small, temporary home,

NaturalGlitch: "I live in a hut until they can relocate me to a real house."

Scarlet: Between that and the FLETs, the plot twist here is that he lives in a war zone.

Crazy56U: Or, as it's better known, a box in the back alley.

I unpacked the basics.

Fallen Prime: It was an extra twenty bucks to unpack the premium edition, and another forty for the season pass.

Steel: FUCKING DOWNLOADABLE BAGGAGE.

RJ: Eh, I'll just wait for the Home of the Year edition.

"Ahh much better." I sighed with relief.

NaturalGlitch: "I confused my bed with the toilet; they have the same smell."

I just unpacked all my electronics and what not basic living things, tv,xbox,my laptop, and lighting fixtures, Something: No Nintendo, no friendship, that's what I say.

Steel: Nintendo: Creator (Mario Kart) and destroyer (Mario Party) of friendships.

SC276: I love how the entertainment system is considered the "basics." That's today's generation for ya.

Neo: He also considers 'Lighting Fixtures' to rank higher than clothing as far as the basics go. Hell, clothes aren't even on the list!

JofY: What about food?

Cola: Wait, lighting fixtures? He brought scones to college? What the fuck?

RJ: Maybe he's going to feng shui the hell out of that apartment.

Topher: Didn't didn't Cola just say he brought magical glowing scones?

Crazy56U: Well, just when I thought it was impossible, I managed to lose even more respect for the guy...

the list goes on.

Sigma: Hopefully that list includes a cyanide capsule.

Something: And maybe some bleach just in case.

Steel: An extra sacrificial XBox controller as well.

Crazy56U: He probably has a Kinect, too...

when I sat down on my couch,

NaturalGlitch: "—I try not to think about the amount of human bodily fluids make their home on the couch..."

I turned on the tv and watch my little pony: friendship is magic.

NaturalGlitch: "I ignore entire episodes of world building and canon for my superior brain-farts, like a true brony."

Scarlet: I'm more impressed he's actually watching it on the television and not pirating it off YouTube or something.

Topher: I'm pretty sure viewership would double if we started to watch it when it was actually on. Imagine the ratings! the budget increases! the overall increase in quality! BAND TOGETHER, MY FELLOW BRONIES, WE SHA- wait, it's on in the MORNING? fuck that noise, I'm staying in bed.

Crazy56U: I'm essentially dead before noon, so I feel ya.

Secretly

Something: Because you're not comfortable enough with yourself to admit that the term "guilty pleasure" is a load of bollocks.

Steel: Some people just aren't secure in how others feel of them.

Neo: Clearly this author has no such inhibitions if he actually posted this.

I kept this from friends and family because of fear of disrespect. I was a " closet Broney"

Fallen Prime: So closeted he can't even spell it.

Steel: I'd use a gay joke here, but I don't think there's one that could do his closetedness justice.

SC276: A guy afraid of watching MLP in 2018? Gheeze, social justice has been slacking.

Cola: Damn Social Justice Slackers!

Scarlet: Well, the term "Social Justice Warrior" is an insult now and we had to think of new branding.

Crazy56U: Kid, I don't think your friends would disrespect you for being a brony, not when you have so many other issues at hand.

as it were I always felt that I could live and fit in there,

NaturalGlitch: "I just hope they have something in my size."

i had no problem fitting in here in reality either

SC276: Not with that typesmanship.

Neo:Was that even a sentence?

Crazy56U: Well, only after you reject our reality and substitute your own.

but just there in ponyville it just felt... peaceful just peaceful.

Fallen Prime: Your sentence structure is... shoddy just shoddy.

Topher: Ponyville? Peaceful? Do you need me to get the list of all the shit that went down in just one year?

Cola: "It seemed so peaceful when Tirek tried to enslave the land, and when the battle between godlike powers destroyed nearly a whole town!"

NaturalGlitch: "And all the ponies and critters look just so huggable. Sometimes I accidentally snap my pets in half from all the practice hugs I do."

Chapter 2

Maud: Reminder that, yes, all of these chapters were posted as one complete chapter. What you see is pretty much what you get.

Fallen Prime: I never loved you.

Something: And no one ever will.

Steel: Ouch, I can feel the love here...

JofY: Wait! ...What the fuck, happened in that first chapter?

Crazy56U: Let's see... the narrator went to college, met a guy, went to a party, unpacked some stuff, and watched TV. ...riveting, I know.

Over the next few days Andy showed me around the collage and the city.

Sigma: He then exploded, for Andy was secretly... a BOMB.

Topher: Andy prefers the term "Explosive American."

for a city it was pretty small but all nice people.

NaturalGlitch: "They all had the same hairdo and smile, welcoming me again and again."

we were walking past an old antique shop but it wasn't for the old world warII items or the 1960 hippie outfit,

NaturalGlitch: "Or that weird sphere thingie that was leaking raw astral energy."

which i dont know why they would sell that,

Fallen Prime: Because it still smells like Woodstock?

Crazy56U: ...because hippy clothing is outlawed?

Steel: "Why do antique stores sell important historical items?"

but an old cobalt blue box that some what looked like the box that contained the elements of harmony when the mane6 defeated nightmare moon.

Maud: Spoiler alert. It's probably the real deal.

Fallen Prime: It comes with a curse. I don't know what curse, but it's a curse.

Sigma: The curse is that whoever suffers it sucks at storytelling.

Steel: THE CURSE OF A THOUSAND SHIPPERS.

Topher: But it also comes with a free frogurt!

Cola: Maybe it just comes with the reader cursing repeatedly?

NaturalGlitch: "♪My birth was a curse! / I bit the nurse!♪"

Crazy56U: Here's a curse: fart.

i went into the shop and asked "Is any one here the sign said you were open."

Something: That's not how you sentence, you purple fuck.

Steel: All the commas were on vacation. Humanity lost its ability to write.

SC276: I'd rather live in the Library of Babel at this point.

i walked to the front desk and there was a note the said,

NaturalGlitch: "Please ignore the fact this is written like a typical gaming creepypasta."

JofY: No, in that case it would be a hyper-realistic note.

Scarlet: But it would be 8-bit as well. This merely costs eight bits.

"To whom who read this i am out of the shop to go to the bank to get some change if you would like to buy somthing please leave a note and exact price, thank you..."

Sigma: This guy would be robbed in a damn heartbeat.

Steel: Nah, it's not robbery! Just take everything and mark it all down as $0! It's proper shopping!

Neo: Little did Main Character guy know, the correct price was his eternal soul.

Cola: "...I have had stroke why cannot word good."

Crazy56U: So, apparently someone still uses the honor system...

so i looked at the price at the box,

NaturalGlitch: "It had a note in it saying, 'Please, if found, return to Pandora.' " the price it was one-hundred-nitynine dollars.

Fallen Prime: Dude, you have no idea what the collectibles market is like. That's ludicrously underpriced.

Sigma: Do we have a word for beyond ludicrous? I feel like we need one.

Fallen Prime: Ridonkulous.

Steel: So ludicrous, it threw on a kilt and painted everything except the kilt plaid.

Cola: What's one-hundred-nitynine dollars in American dollars?

Sigma: A turd and some flakes of dead skin.

Crazy56U: $20 in Monopoly money.

"I cant afford that... well not right now at least." i thought about it for a minute

Something: In reality, he was there all night. Because he's stupid.

Steel: "That moment felt like an eternity..."

SC276: "Minutes turned to hours... Hours turned to days..."

Cola: LO, FOR THE AEONS DID PASS

Scarlet: That line feels like the plot hook for some kind of part-time job themed time management sim.

"Well my next paycheck was about $450,

NaturalGlitch: That's about my months pay. ...(falls to the ground in a sobbing heap) Crazy56U: Well, at least you can't say the story isn't completely unrealistic...

so i think i can rain check it." so i decided

Something: Guys, I think he's going to try and kill Go- wait, that's supposed to be "decided". Never mind.

Steel: It's the Monkey's Paw all over again!

Cola: Ew, he de-seeded all over the place! Gross.

to write a note that said, "Dear shop owner i am a customer NaturalGlitch: "—that is writing this on your cash register. I swear it was empty when I got here."

Crazy56U: "at least I think I am, I forget how this 'shopping' thing works anymore..."

that walked in while ago by the time you get here i will be gone ...", Fallen Prime: That's gonna send exactly the message you're intending.

Steel: "I came in and now I'm leaving. PS, your shop sucks."

Cola: "...and I'm barely here as it is."

i was writing the note when suddenly i heard an old woman's voice.

Something: "Wait, this isn't the old opera house!"

Steel: "Dearie, might I request some assistance in moving this bag?"

"Well hello my dear, what can i help you with?"

NaturalGlitch: [old lady] "Die, die, die! I mean—um, hello!~"

I stuttered a bit "W-well i was intrested in that box over there i was wondering if..." "OH THAT THING," she shouted

Sigma: "JESUS CHRIST, WHY AM I YELLING?"

Steel: "IF I SCARE HIM AWAY, HE WON'T BUY MY PRECIOUS."

SC276: I'd rather send the fic to Mount Doom, but the box will do.

Neo: "OH THANK GOD, DO YOU WANT THIS PIECE OF SHIT!? HERE, TAKE IT FOR FREE! SHIT'S CURSED, DEARIE!"

JofY: I HOPE IT ISN'T TOO MUCH BECAUSE MY HEART MAY NOT BE ABLE TO TAKE IT!!!

Topher: I seem to be having trouble controlling THE VOLUME OF MY VOICE!!!
Crazy56U: LOUD NOISES!

"You can have that no charge!"

Maud: "It looks ugly as shit, anyway."
Something: "And it has terrible battery life."
Steel: "There are spiders living in it."
SC276: "Special sale on life-changing bullshit plot coupons!"
Topher: Five bucks says he returns to the address later and the shop is gone.
NaturalGlitch: [old lady] "Now please excuse my cackling, won't you, dear?"

i asked "Why are you giving this to me for free?"

NaturalGlitch: [old lady] "It's one of those trap chests that attack you instead of giving you gold."
Topher: FUCKING MIMICS!
Crazy56U: "Because the economy is shit."

she explained that every customer that bought that box could not open the dam thing

Sigma: That wouldn't make it free, just more valuable for the mystery.
Steel: "Time to hit EBay..."
SC276: I'm not familiar with dams, but opening them seems like a bad thing in general.
Cola: "I help the special schoolkids by giving them tchotchkes. Don't masturbate in public with it, dearie!"

"well did it used to have a key?" i wondered. "No it did not it just came with a note that i can't read it."

NaturalGlitch [Note] "They'll never find her head now! Muahahahahahaha!"
Crazy56U: Was it this: ♪

so she shoved me out of the store and made a make shift sign that said "NO RETURNS"

Fallen Prime: Hopefully foreshadowing that he can never come back home.
Steel: "Huh. That's the same sign the orphanage uses."
Neo: Hang on a minute...i f there are no returns... then how did she get the box back from all those people who couldn't open it? Did they just give it to her for free?
JofY: So... Did she give him the note or something?

so i decided to walk home with the mysterious box.

Sigma: I hope the box has ebola in it.
Something: Or maybe a book on how to grammar.
Steel: Hell, a dictionary in this world must be a treasure.

Cola: I'm just going to hope it's a "the end" sign.

SC276: ~Mystery box, what can it be? Is it a party? Maybe, we'll see...~

chapter 3

Later on that day after all my animation classes,

Crazy56U: All one of them.

Something: "I finished all of college in one day!"

Steel: "All they did was show me how to use one of those digital cameras. Ten grand, well spent!"

Neo: That's what he gets for going to Sailing Arts U instead of Full Sail.

i went home and just looked at the note and the cobalt blue box with the mysterious emblems that looked like the elements of harmony. I studied that note for hours now it look like it was written in equestrian.

NaturalGlitch: "Why does it scream at me during the night?"

Maud: "I know this because shut up."

Sigma: Do they ever even SHOW Equestrian writing? I don't remember.

Steel: All of Equestrian lithography is squiggly lines. They're constantly talking in a cypher!

Cola: It's not a cypher. It's ZALGO.

Scarlet: Look, just because none of you can speak pig latin....

Crazy56U: Ays-say ou-yay.

I looked up the alphabet for their language

NaturalGlitch: "It's a good thing I have this decoder ring I got from my cereal box."

it took me about two weeks to study the entire alphabet.

Fallen Prime: An alphabet that... I don't even think the show writers have developed.

Maud: He could have studied most of the letters, which... vaguely resemble ours anyway, yet isn't consistent in the slightest. So, actually, I've no clue how he managed.

Steel: So that's what he was doing during animating class!

SC276: On one hand, it's 2018, and if the show's still going, they've probably figured something out. On the other hand, it's this fic.

Scarlet: Actually, it was in english the whole time. He was holding the paper upside-down.

afterwards i looked at the note and started decoding it.

Neo: "ur a faget kil yourself"

Something: "Stop writing, you sack of donkey shit."

Steel: "The note revealed a great secret I had been hiding for years... they knew. THEY KNEW ABOUT MY BIRTH."

RJ: "Be sure to drink your Ovaltine..."

Cola: "I... canot... spell... gud..."

Scarlet: "After you read this and turn around, you will die."

Crazy56U: "Hello, I am a Nigerian prince..."

After about thirty minutes i finally decoded the note and it said

NaturalGlitch: "If you read this without the amulet, you'll go crazy and write terrible works of fiction."

Crazy56U: "U gonna die."

"To whom reads this leter, this box contains a portal to another dimention Fallen Prime: No, it contains the Elements of Harmony. Wasn't that established?

Sigma: "A dimention is like a dimension, only shittier and full of bad characters."

Steel: "Oh, another portal device." He then burned the note and went back to his life.

Topher: Oh, God! Isn't his how Martin Willis started?

Cola: Reading leters, portals to dimentions, gee. I can see we've got our work cut out for us.

Crazy56U: Too bad that dimension contains nothing but shrimp...

but in order to open this world you must know all the names of these emblems, NaturalGlitch: "Then a shard of the Magic Mirror will materialize and shove its way into your neck. Don't worry; this is normal."

Crazy56U: "and then drink a gallon of bleach. Trust me, this is legit."

they are your key to open the new dimenton...

Something: Maybe this is just an ad for Smell-o-Vision.

Steel: Try as he might, he couldn't speak the names of those sacred elements: Plot, Grammar, Spelling, Characterization, Pacing, and Description.

SC276: Entering the new dimension requires basic MLP knowledge and yet the thing was never opened? Are you kidding me? A five-year-old girl would literally had already figured it out.

but be warned, you will be stuck in this world for seven days to decided Sigma: That's the first properly spelled use of decide I've seen so far.

Cola: And it's still in the wrong tense!

Steel: Seven days? I've seen demos that lasted longer!

RJ: Offer void in DC and Puerto Rico.

Crazy56U: Wait, seven days... Did this turn into a crappy Ring crossover?

Ringmaster: I hope not.

if you would like to stay in this universe or leave and the box will be destroyed

NaturalGlitch: "But be sure to include your credit card information and pin number...just in case. Yeah."

and you as the opener will lose all memory of the events of the new world."

Fallen Prime: Which blows if he actually WANTS to remember his transdimensional vacation.

SC276: This is both really too long for what could conceivably fit on the Elements' jewelry box and so loaded a final choice, if he doesn't stay, I'll eat my arm.

Scarlet: I assume the Equestrian alphabet was made up of bar-code thickness lines.

i thought of this for a few hours and i decided to open the box during my winter break which was not that far away.

Something: How long has he even been here, for fuck's sake?

Sigma: So he just got to college, then a few days later got the box, then two weeks later he decoded it and it's almost winter break. Jeez, and people complain about the MLP timeline.

Steel: He gazed out the window, stroking his long beard... "Winter is coming..."

Neo: If only this protag could end up like Ned Stark.

Crazy56U: Wait, it's still winter? Dear God, the pacing is so fucked, I thought we were in the middle of Spring now...

the next thing i thought is "Is it really the my little pony world or NaturalGlitch: "—the Equestria Girls world? I actually wouldn't mind either one."

Scarlet: It's actually the Kingdom Hearts variant, so by traveling there he's opening it to great calamity.

Crazy56U: "is it just fantasy? Caught in a landslide, no escape from reality."

just a world that was unattended to be created and just used the same language as equestria?"

Maud: Asking yourself obvious questions: A cool thing to do, apparently.

Steel: The obvious question is "Where are the cameras?"

JofY: So, by that logic, his translation is total BS?

Scarlet: It's probably a good thing this isn't an anime fanfic. "Is this the world of Samurai Champloo, or just another world that speaks Japanese?"

and if it is Equestria, will i leave my own world to live in a world where most of the time is care free?

Something: That question is almost as complex as "How is babby formed?"

Steel: "Live here where I have to go to school, or live there where I can sleep in a hammock all day... decisions, decisions!"

Topher: Are we not going to bring up the routine monster attacks, or the constant threats to reality itself? No? Okay.

NaturalGlitch: "Nonstop hug parties, here I come!"

Chapter 4

It is december 1st,2018, it was the begining

Fallen Prime: I won't pretend to know what that means, but I bet it involves the begina.

Something: The beginning of the end, or the end of the beginning? Both?

Steel: War was beginning.

SC276: AD 2018- aw dammit.

Cola: Wait, did this turd just start over somehow? Is this a mobius crap?

Crazy56U: of the end. ...God only hopes so, at least...

of the unknown journey to the new realm.

Something: The realm known as... Texas.

Sigma: Hey, we don't want him. Fuck off.

Steel: Are you sure he wasn't from Texas and just wanted to go home?

Crazy56U: Look, just dump in him Texas, that state hasn't done us any favors...

So like the note said you must name all the elements shown.

NaturalGlitch: "Water, fire... Dang it! Wrong show."

Crazy56U: "Solid, liquid, gas, plasma... Wait, this is my science homework..."

it was a little difficult since i haven't watch it for a while now due to a new season coming out and christmas specials.

Fallen Prime: First of all, are they even gonna be making the show through to 2018? Sounds ludicrous for a toy-driven property. Second, how long ago was this written, because the Elements should be with the tree now.

Steel: Better yet, when did the series actually start in this timeline?

Scarlet: This poor kid can't remember six words, but apparently he can translate a whole foreign alphabet?

Crazy56U: So, real talk: did the show do an "It's a Wonderful Life" parody in this universe?

so i went into my room which was surprisenly sound proof,

SC276: Well that's convenient.

Topher: What college is he going to that has soundproof dorms? More importantly, how do I sign up?

Cola: twitches 'Surprisenly'.

Crazy56U: Poor idiot doesn't know what "sound proof" actually means.

and i said all the elements,"Honesty,Generosity,Loyalty,Kindness,Laughter and NaturalGlitch: "—Polka! Wait, no..."

Crazy56U: "Believing! Wait, that sounds stupid..."

MAGIC!" suddenly my room started shaking

Something: Looks like the San Andreas fault line decided to intervene.

Steel: "THIS IS THE BIG ONE!"

JofY: Sorry, the correct answer requires you to breathe.

and i fell down

Steel: The box shoved him over.

Neo: "...and died the end."

Crazy56U: "down down to the bottom of the sea."

then as if timed stop so i can be back on the same time, date and year

Fallen Prime: I... THINK those were words.

Sigma: We can't be too sure. Nuke it from orbit.

Steel: Then nuke it again, I like the explosion.

Neo: Hit it with the Hyper Nuclear Super Duper Bomb Thermo Bomb whatever.

SC276: And then the protagonist was Sandra, Fairytale Detective. Cookie for whoever heard of that before now.

Crazy56U: Space is warped and time is bendable.

but i wasn't sure.

Something: Wouldn't be the first time.

Steel: Join the club.

but when i looked at the small box,

NaturalGlitch: "—a claw burrowed right into my skull. I feel no different in my mental faculties."

it suddenly transformed into a giant doorway to the other side.

Steel: "I fell on through! To the other side!"

Topher: Did he die? I hope he died.

Scarlet: Unfortunately, like many lower creatures, he is simply too stupid to die.

i took a deep breath and hoped i would meet all the little ponys.

Something: As opposed to the dragons and weird ass tree wolves.

Steel: Timberwolves would be creepy as shit.

SC276: Unless you got rocks to throw down their throats.

Topher: Or fire. Has nobody considered using fire?

NaturalGlitch: Only if you got a thing for forest fires.

Scarlet [In an excited falsetto]: Do I ever! Next wolf I meet I'm burning the shit out of it!

Topher: I'll bring the marshmallows!

"Here goes nothing." i said to my self with a nervous smile like if it was an actual event.

Sigma: Yeah, because going to another fucking world isn't an actual event.

Something: But is it the movie event of the year?

Steel: I think E would argue with that.

Neo: Man, what qualifies as an event to this guy? Becoming Pope President of The 34th Spanish Space Inquisition?

Topher: Well, that would be an unexpected twist.

I had my backpack filled with my ipod for entertainment,

Something: That'll last 8 hours most. Bet it's filled with Three Days Grace.

Crazy56U: Jesus Christ, how big is your iPod that is can fill your entire backpack?!

Steel: He filled his backpack with iPods. Can never have too many!

some notebooks ,

NaturalGlitch: "—my only other pair of undies..."

pens and my lucky pair of sunglasses.

SC276: I see the "Deal with it" meme is in his itinerary.

RJ: Or he's prepared for a CSI: Miami moment.

Crazy56U: (brandishes baseball bat)

I stepped through the portal and just seen whiteness for a few moments then i was in a forest.

Cola: Seen whiteness? So you're in suburbia now, watching soccer moms and bratty little kids named 'Thad'?

Fallen Prime: And it only took four "chapters."

Steel: Which in essence, was half of one.

SC276: And like fifteen minutes of my time which I want back.

Neo: Hey, look at this way. At least he didn't show up in Equestria falling from the sky...no, wait, that would have been better because he would have died. Shit.

SC276: Unless he was a cursed alicorn prince, but what are the odds there's two of those?

NaturalGlitch: "I ended up in Changeling territory and was torn apart by the Chupacabra and flowers which love eating flesh."

Chapter 5

I looked around the area, i was in a forest but i couldn't tell

NaturalGlitch: "I see a bunch of trees and a water stream, wild critters and grass, but I don't know if this is a forest."

Scarlet: Hey, let's be nice. Could be a horrible delusion. Heaven knows if I was transported into an alternate plane of existence, I'd begin reality-testing.

i made it so i wandered a round the forest till i managed to get out of the forest

Maud: I'm disappointed. He wasn't even eaten by a manticore.

Sigma: I'm disappointed that he said forest three times in one mess of a sentence.

Steel: "I wandered through the forest to escape the forest but the forest kept me in the forest! Dastardly forest!"

SC276: Forest forest forest, forest forest? Forest, forest!

Neo: For fucks sake Forest doesn't even look like a word anymore.

Cola: RUN FORREST oh never mind.

Crazy56U: Glad to know the forest was vital to the story, then...

and i wandered around even more till i ran into a barn

NaturalGlitch: He ended up in Barnyard Animals.

Scarlet: And promptly committed suicide to escape. Good end.

Crazy56U: "and then promptly pulled a Kool Aid Man and burst through the wall."

i step into the barn and i heard,"What in tarnation, AppleBloom

Something: "Your name ain't spelled in one word!"

Steel: "Learn them spaces!"

what are you doing!"

Fallen Prime: Oh, find me in the Alps...

SC276: Where the... goats roam?

Steel: "Didn't I tell you t' stop summonin' ponies!?"

it was then i realized i was at AppleJack's farm.

Sigma: Applejack must be glad she's not AppleJack right now.

Maud: Wherever she is, I'm sure it's a much nicer place than this.

Something: Where she's part of a nutritious breakfast.

Steel: Sweet and sugary!

SC276: Anyone else disappointed that he didn't land in the Everfree?

Cola: I'm going to try to pretend that the rest of this is the character's dying hallucination out in the Everfree.

i heard her hoofs coming this way and hid behind the apple tree.

Steel: But the rest of her stayed put.

SC276: Her hat wanted nothing to do with this.

Cola: "Her head detached itself from her body rather than meet me."

NaturalGlitch: All the trees in the orchard were hit by a radiation wave and became one gigantic tree.

Scarlet: Yggdrappsill- the World Apple.

AppleJack walked past me without a care, i sighed in relief. i looked to my right and i saw AppleJack in my face saying, "What the heck are you doing here!"

Something: I guess she's just so used to there being humans in Equestria through bullshit means that she doesn't even question why a human is even in Equestria.

Steel: "Migration office is that way, ya yokel."

Neo: Hang on, what? So she walked past him and didn't notice him and then suddenly she was to the right of him?

NaturalGlitch: [Applejack] "Are you some kind of gigantic Imp or a wingless Harpy?"

i was in shock i yelled "What the fuck!"

Fallen Prime: Dude, there's children!

Steel: THINK OF THE FUCKIN' KIDS!

Sigma: SC! Watch your fucking language!

SC276: SHOTS FIRED!

Neo: Why is he in shock? He came here expecting ponies, and there is a pony. I don't see the issue here.

after words i just talked mumbo jumbo

SC276: "This not bear and bird world. Mumbo took wrong turn at Albuquerque."

Ringmaster: Wow, he actually managed to end up somewhere worse than Nuts & Bolts.

" howa... You were.. how...walking ...no...care.."

NaturalGlitch: Applejack is trying out a chant she learned from Zecora; it's for banishing self-inserts.

Scarlet: No, no, that one starts with "oh god why did I ever think this was a good idea" and ends with ceremonially wiping your own hard drive.

she covered my mouth with her hoof and simply said, "Who are you and where did you come from?"

Fallen Prime: You'd think "what" would come before "who."

Steel: "What are you and who did you come from!?"

SC276: "What are you and who are you doing?!"

RJ: "Why are you and what did you come from?"

Cola: "How you are? What doing! From where and come you?"

Crazy56U: What is going on and why.

she said with a gentle smile.

Something: Those aren't questions that should be asked politely.

Steel: I was still in that 'angry scowl' mode.

Scarlet: To be fair, I had already bought up this guy's remaining supply of "famous smirks" and at this point, he was making do with whatever was lying around.

"Ummm i am just lost so yeah,i umm gotta go." i ran as fast as i could then i triped NaturalGlitch: Ah—the classic "ghost trip." Now he's going to fumble with his car keys for no reason.

"Hold on there little doggie, just where do you think you are going."

NaturalGlitch: [Applejack] "You hungry? You look awfully skinny to be a Minotaur, though. And where are your horns?"

she said with a giggle."Sorry i have to do this sugercube

Fallen Prime: Dude, spellcheck is your friend. Or did you two have a falling out?

Something: Spellcheck probably insulted his waifu.

Sigma: Spellcheck ejected him faster than a stream of diarrhea.

Steel: It's like that asshole roommate who keeps setting fire to all your NarutoXTwilight fanfiction while in a pope hat.

Neo: Has this story entered Rape Mode? I feel like it has.

Cola: twitches 'triped'.

Crazy56U: ...I quit. (leaves)

but i have to... well knock you out." she bucked me in the head, she was right i was knocked out cold.

SC276: I'm pretty sure that should do worse, so consider yourself lucky to have plot armor.

Neo: That should have quite literally obliterated his skull; there would be almost nothing left.

Cola: I wish.

NaturalGlitch: [Applejack] "I have this boxing match to win, and you looked big enough to take a little jab, so I used you for practice. Sorry I couldn't find the rest of your brains."

I started gaining my vision back but my hearing was a little fuzzy but i heard multiple voices that i can reconize the voices the mane 6.

NaturalGlitch: "I can hear the voices in my head, like a swarm of robotic bees buzzing in my brain, getting louder and meaner."

"well he is... diffrent..."

Fallen Prime: There are SO many people I could offend with any number of jokes I could make. I'm on an Orange Is the New Black binge, so my first instinct was a transgender joke, but I'd just feel awful.

Sigma: "See, he believes in this guy called Xenu..."

Steel: "You've already lost me, and I worship a God-like pair of princesses."

SC276: Let's see, unconscious after arrival in pony world, woke up surrounded by Mane 6... I'm having Starlight flashbacks right now.

Cola: Diff'rent strokes. Stupid ones, in this case.

a gentle voice said. i murmured "Twilighhhhhhhhhhttt?"

Something: "I thought that series ended years ago!"

Sigma: You obviously are unaware of Fifty Shades of Grey.

Steel: "OH GOD THE VAMPIRES ARE BACK FOR ME!"

Neo: They have arrived to suck you blood, among other things.

Cola: twitches, shudders 'Murmmered'.

They all looked at me as if they were shocked. "Hello are you okay?" twilight asked.

NaturalGlitch: "I'm not afraid I'm wearing a tie you go home."

Scarlet [As Twilight]: "Because if you are okay, we need to knock you out again."

"Ummm nothing but a dam headache." i spoke in a full voice.

SC276: Nice and plump for the feast.

"Can you untie me please?" i asked while using my smirk.

Maud: If someone asked me to do that while smirking, I'd probably just lace on even more rope. And a chain or three.

Sigma: Kick him in the mouth for good measure.

Steel: He douchebag'd so hard, they threw Rainbow onto his face.

Scarlet: I'm just pissed that he still had a smirk. I was so sure I'd bought out his supply!

"Applejack, can you?"

Something: "-put him with the 12 other mopey white guys that came in last week?"

RJ: (Applejack) But he hasn't even said the safe word yet!

Cola: " -- buck him in the head again, a little harder? The first time didn't even hurt him!"

Applejack untied me and released the rope that held me down.

Cola: I think that's actually an acceptable sentence! Hooray! The author learned some English! I'm sure the rest of this story will be a little better.

NaturalGlitch: Give yourself one gold star, author.

Scarlet: Then give it back to me, because that sentence structure implies that Applejack released her hold on the rope rather than releasing him FROM the rope.

i fell but I jumped right back up, saying thanks and stood up and brushed off the dust on my hoodie.

SC276: Oh so that's what you're wearing. Would've been nice to know before now.

Topher: he's a college student and it's winter. It's pretty much a given he's wearing a hoodie.

Cola: begins twitching again, falls silent

"Well who are you guys?" although i knew all of them already i just wanted to make sure i was in the right world.

Fallen Prime: Um... seriously?

Sigma: Is he trying to make sure it's not Pony.MOV or something?

SC276: Have you seen how many fanfics, and thus individual pony universes, there are? This is a perfectly reasonable check.

Cola: "I'm Twilight, that's Applejack, and that's Rarity and Fluttershy! They worship Lord Smooze. Have you heard of our lord and devourer, Smooze?"

"Well my name is twilight sparke, you already met Applejack, this is fluttershy,rainbowdash,rarity,and pinkiepie."

Something: Wow, two are spelled right. That must be a record.

NaturalGlitch: "—and we're the changelings—I MEAN, the mane 6. Yeppers."

i jogged through my thoughts to confirm every thing.

NaturalGlitch: "I then flapped my arms like a special needs kangaroo and belched. ...I'm not sure why."

"i have one question, where am i?"

Something: "The event horizon between your world and hell."

SC276: No, that's where we are.

Cola: Between would be nice. I'm pretty sure we're in hell.

Neo: "You are in Purgatory, you were sent here after having your head obliterated by Applejack. Oh and, we are actually Grim Reapers."

i asked. Pinkie pie jumped on me and in here party voice

Fallen Prime: Party voice is a thing, I guess.

Something: Can I buy that vocaloid for a dollar?

SC276: Where party voice? There party voice!

Neo: Is Party Voice at all similar to the Royal Canterlot Voice?

NaturalGlitch: I think a party voice is when you shout cheers through a microphone.

"your in ponyville silly."

Something: What is an "in ponyville silly" and where's the factory they're made in?

"I am!" i was in shock it was the portal to my little pony, NaturalGlitch: Meanwhile, his head is spurting blood all over the floor. The ponies have no idea what it is and think it's some kind of paint.

how can this be true i walk into that portal and end up here in this...world.

SC276: Well it's probably due to the fact that you're in a fanfic right now.

Neo: Why is he so surprised? He went through that Magical MacGuffin Doorway to go to Equestria... and now he is in Equestria...mission accomplished right?

Cola: I think this guy is shocked when the poop vanishes in the big white thing in his bathroom.

"what is your name?" Applejack asked. "And what are you?"

NaturalGlitch: [Twilight] "Rainbow Dash thinks you're a mutant that came from a meteorite. She's been watching too many spooky movies."

Scarlet [As Twilight]: "I, on the other hand, think you're a foreign presence summoned from another world whose inherent existence could destabilize our plane; so I'll be blasting you in the face with harmony magic now."

continued twilight. "well my name is Chris and i am a human i came through a box

Fallen Prime: Please don't share.

Something: This gets 2% more bearable if you read it in a bad Russian accent.

SC276: I'd rather not, that'd make me 48% more likely to suffer death by Heavy.

that came with a note written in equeatrian,

Something: Whatever that is, it's not language.

RJ: This whole fic is not language.

Cola: This is what happens if you leave language out on the counter overnight.

NaturalGlitch: If it was in Equestrian, how is he talking to them and how are they understanding—you know what? Never mind.

so i opened the box and entered an "poof" im here.

Sigma: Is it bad that when he said poof, my first thought was, "He turned gay?"

Scarlet: ...Turned? Did you forget Andrew so quickly?

According to the note i have seven days to explore this world and then i decide if i will stay or go back and forget this all happened."

NaturalGlitch: "I can't wait to go to Gelding Gorge!"

Fallen Prime: Still think the forgetting is a little dumb.

SC276: Compared to the rest of the fic, it's practically standard.

"intresting..." twilight remarked, "so what will you do?", "i don't know," i mumbled, "i can work with all of you guys and help for the first six days and i will decide if i stay or go,

NaturalGlitch: When he finds out he's going to be the weakest, slowest, magic-less, tallest, talentless and dumbest creature in Equestria, that's when the madness sets in.

Scarlet: "There will never be another McDonalds Cheeseburger."

i also need a place to stay some where."

Maud: "Should I stay, or should I go..." I've got ten bucks on "stay".

Fallen Prime: I'll lay down fifty on stay.

SC276: Sucker's. Bet.

RJ: (singing) If I go there will be trouble, and if I stay it will be double.

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "Bunk with me! We'll make cloud beards and take turns reading to Tank! Just be careful not to jump on the cloud parts; it's a long fall."

Chapter 6

Something: "The Undiscovered Country".

Sigma: A much better movie that we'd all rather be watching right now? Yes please.

The first night i stayed at Applejacks farm i started there for obveious reasons, SC276: How obvious were they?!

NaturalGlitch: "Now for my real mission—finding and wearing one of Apple Bloom's bows."

for starters i bumped into her first so i thought it would be comon sense, NaturalGlitch: "I also felt a stirring in my loins when she kicked me."

well at least that was how i was raised.

Maud: "You're the first person I met, so I should stay at your place. Yes."

RJ: Aw hell, he imprinted on someone already.

Cola: Now he's going to be following AJ around all day long.

Scarlet: Chris is like an escort mission that lasts your entire life.

NaturalGlitch: And you can't even send him to hide in trash cans.

i got up early about five in the morning not a problem for me,

Something: Please die of sleep deprivation.

Cola: It's a problem for us. Sleep through the rest of the story.

but i think i was a little late i went to the barn where i met Applejack "Morning suger cube, Something: What is "suger" and where are the plantations they come from. I wanna burn them all down.

Scarlet: It's an Ancient Equestrian word for "fucking self-insert scrub".

are you ready to work?"

NaturalGlitch: Did you know Lauren Faust wanted the ponies to ram their heads into the trees instead of kicking them? It was called "Apple Bumping." Hopefully, this guy will try that instead.

she said in a cheerful tone. "as ever."

Something: You've been here ONE. DAY.

SC276: And a college student studying geek stuff before that, so I doubt you're in shape.

saying with a smile. then she grinned and i think she blushed but i couldn't tell due to the early morning so there was barely any light.

NaturalGlitch: [Applejack] "Oh poopy, I think I forgot to flush the toilet this morning."

"So how hard can you kick?" she said with a small yawn.

Sigma: I can kick him hard enough that his testicles and eyeballs switch places.

SC276: So... to flip him upside down?

Sigma: No, just those, nothing else.

Cola: sleazy voice "You ever punch a guy so hard in the eye he swallowed it?"

"Kick, please applejack i knock these apples off in one punch."

Fallen Prime: Next segment's him fucking up. Please.

NaturalGlitch: At least show that he's weaker than a foal.

i said with a very excited tone. she giggled again, "well lets see those word some to action chris."

SC276: I'm not sure that's an actual sentence.

she smiled and we both ran to the feilds to start work.

NaturalGlitch: You do know there's more to do on an orchard farm than harvest apples, right? You could have him at least pick up the fallen rotten ones on the ground.

it has been a few hours and i actually proved her right although it hurt like a MOFO but i managed to suck it up.

Fallen Prime: Oh my god he's doing it.
Something: Dying? PLEASE BE DYING.
Sigma: I second this motion.
SC276: Thirded like hell.
Topher: Fourth.
Cola: eyes narrowed, she grinds her teeth 'Feilds'. 'Actully'.

"Gee chris you showed me you have strength,"

NaturalGlitch: I'm going to assume he got this strength the same way Mario has freakish jumping and gymnastic abilities.

she was looking at me with her emerald green eyes, i look backed at her we stared at each other the i looked away to break the awkward moment we both laughed,

NaturalGlitch: [Applejack] "Rodeo-style hug coming at ya! (she snaps him in half accidentally) What was that loud crunching sound?"

but i thinking in my head, does applejack like me?

Fallen Prime: Oh my god they're gonna do it.
Maud: I want to say "fuck no", but, that's just denial at this point. Also, can I just mention that this story is rated "M"?
Fallen Prime: You're dead to me.
Cola: shudders, a single tear rolling down her cheek
Ringmaster: Aw, Maud, I wanted to leave that a surprise.. but on the other hand, there's your warning, everyone.
SC276: Steven Universe needs to air more often again. I need more affirmation that love at first sight doesn't exist before my reality warps more.
NaturalGlitch: Rated "M", huh? Well, let's check this handy-dandy guide for some information!

i was shocked at first without making the emotional expression i looked at her again,

NaturalGlitch: "The meds have finally kicked in."

she look at me again,

SC276: ~Then I looked at her / And she looked at me / And I said, "Um, / I think you have something in your teeth..."~

"well is that all the chores applejack?" i look at her again with my infamous smirk

Something: ...I don't think I'm gonna like this fic.
SC276: Took ya that long to figure that out?
Sigma: Is anyone else getting VERY annoyed by his claims of fame and infamy?
Fallen Prime: He doesn't have lightning powers, does he?

i use in my world and now here. "Yes, thats pretty much.." but before applejack finished her sentence a crashing thud interrupted her.

NaturalGlitch: [in the barn] "Cutie Mark Crusaders Backyard Wrestlers!"

"sounded like it came from the barn." she was suprised. "lets go find out."

Something: "Eh, nothing much. Big Mac's probably just jerking off again."

SC276: Anything to get away from the dumb romance.

NaturalGlitch: Did you know that stallions masturbate by flexing their squishy and bendable "part" to slap their stomach? Thank you, Dirty Jobs, for putting that in my head.

i shouted while running half way to the barn. by the time i was there tired and sweating, NaturalGlitch: All his strength must be in his arms. I will imagine him as Wario from now on.

applejack was there with out a sweat. "MY BARN!" she screamed.

Sigma: Raze this barn! Raze this barn!

Something: With this fork!

SC276: "MY CABBAGES!"

NaturalGlitch: [Applejack] "It's alive!"

As we see the remains all down in the ground

Something: "Big Mac! You are not allowed to jerk off ever again!"

NaturalGlitch: Also, the only soft spot of the hoof is a very small patch near the back called a frog. The rest is almost harder than steel...unless it's been in water for too long.

we both saw rainbowdash on top of the rubble and she was hurt real bad

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "I got dust in my eyes!"

"I'll stay here, you call the others." applejack nodded and ran to get help i ran to rainbowdash and asked, "Are you ok rainbow dash!"

Sigma: "The realisation of what you're in finally hit you, eh?"

Fallen Prime: [Derpy] "Anything I can do to help?"

"No, i think i broke my leg i cant move it."

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "Go get my pet Tank; he's a field medic! And he looks even more adorable in a lab coat."

"can't move it eh,hold on i think its not broken." "What do you mean?"

Fallen Prime: What do you mean, what does she mean? She said it twice!

Topher: Well, her leg is broken. Anyone got a gun?

Cola: Dibs on the first bullet.

NaturalGlitch: To do what? Start the hurdle race?

she asked with confusion. "it's dislocated this happened to me a few times when i was younger."

SC276: You dislocated your bones multiple times?! Hopefully not all doing the same dumb thing!

Topher: Oh, definitely by doing the same dumb thing.

Scarlet: So this qualifies as the first moment of accurate characterization in the entire story then.

NaturalGlitch: "I am also an expert on magical talking equines."

"Ok.." she looked at me with a glare. " Ok on the count of three... one... two...THREE!" i relocated her leg back to her flank or what ever bone that connects her leg, i wasn't very smart in biology.

Maud: Then why are you even trying? You might've just made it WORSE!

Sigma: AND WHO THE FUCK WAS TALKING? Honestly, I can't tell with this writing.

SC276: I'd explain, but repeating that text would kill more brain cells than this fic already is.

NaturalGlitch: If the Cutie Mark Crusaders can be OK after being turned into taffy, I think Rainbow can survive this, especially since she nuked a barn by flying into it without so much as a scratch.

"Ouch!, that kind of stung but i'm ok" she says happily while she moves her leg back and forth, side to side.

Maud: ...or not, because fuck biology.

Something: He did say he wasn't smart at it.

Topher: I'm sure we'll get a very thorough lesson in fuck biology later.

NaturalGlitch: "With my trademark smirk, I begin to massage the bottom of her hoof. I woke up in a hospital bed two weeks later."

by the time she got up applejack and the others got there "rainbow, your okay." said applejack

NaturalGlitch: [Applejack] "And here I brought in the hug squad."

"Yea chris fixed my leg he said was dislocateioned..,"dislocated" i corrected her,"right dislocated."

NaturalGlitch: "Gesundheit." "Salutations!" "I want my snacks."

she said with a smile with a little red blush for i guess for emberishment

Something: Is that a rare disease where you catch fire for being embarrassed?

Cola: shuts her eyes, a trickle of blood leaking from her nose 'Dislocateioned'!
'Emberishment'!

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "I don't have time to combust; I have to go to my karate lessons!"

or i already have crush number 2,

Maud: Quite the lady's man.

Sigma: Glimo you son of a bitch, is this a harem fic?

Fallen Prime: Oh my god I'm gonna kick you in the parents.

Something: I'm gonna need some pliers for what I'm gonna do to Glimglam.

SC276: Can't these people settle for one bloody ship?!

Topher: Ready your sporks, lads! Today we go on the Glimglam witch hunt!

ill figure out one pitched in to rebuild the barn it took the rest of the day but i didn't mind.

SC276: "Probably would've been faster if the other Apples existed."

NaturalGlitch: "All I did was close my eyes for the whole day, and when I opened them up—BOOM!—instant barn."

later on pinkie pie threw a barn rebuilding party for a celebration.

Sigma: How is it already fixed?

Something: The magical healing power of bullshit.

Topher: That sounds sanitary.

NaturalGlitch: [Pinkie Pie] "The power of lemon cake compels you!"

"Chris can i talk to you for a second" applejack wispered to me, "i just want to thank you, for your help no one couldn't know what happend to rainbow."

Fallen Prime: "We were TRYIN' to cover it up, but then ya had to be a HERO..."

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "I got to feel up her strong toned legs, so it was a win for me—I MEAN, um... Oopsie."

"it was no problem i just knew what was wrong with her."

Something: "She's in a bad fanfic."

SC276: "Bit of an epidemic going around." Cola: Wait, no, we're in a bad fanfic. Wait, are we real? HELP.

i replied. "how?" she wondered." i asked what was wrong with her and thats how i found out."

NaturalGlitch: "She then did a hoofy kick to show she was OK. I had several heart attacks after that."

"well thank you." she kissed me on the cheek,

Maud: Oh look guys, they did the thing.

Sigma: Glimo, don't be alarmed, but I am going to rape you with a fork for this.

Topher: pulls out a blowtorch Want me to heat that up for you?

NaturalGlitch: ...how did she kiss him? Did she jump over three feet in the air? Is Chris really short?

then she blushed, i smiled then we just enjoyed the party pinke pie threw.

Maud: Pinkie is the best at distance party throwing. What, you didn't know? She threw one clear across Canterlot, that one time. Crazy stuff.

SC276: What happens if you put a party cannon in a party cannon?

Cola: produces a thin, keening shriek as blood sprays from her nose 'Smilied'?! 'Enjoied'?!

NaturalGlitch: "I have no idea how Pinkie picked up a whole party and tossed it, but my pants were too tight for me to think straight."

Chapter 7

the next day arose

Fallen Prime: Can we still hope it stays at the day?

Sigma: Yeah, I don't want to hear the details of Chris' boner.

Topher: Believe me, at this point I think I can never get one again.

Cola: Yesterday adaisy, and Saturday aviolet.

looking back at applejack we both smiled and said good bye for now.

Something: "I'll see you when you're dead!"

SC276: Wait, we're suddenly at tomorrow? What happened after the party? Does he just live in Applejack's barn now? I took a quick nap and I've already forgotten everything.

i started walking to rainbow dashes house,

NaturalGlitch: "It's a good thing I have this random racoon tail I found in a box."

well under her house since i don't have wings, nor i had the ability to fly so i had to yell to call attention to rainbowdash "Hey dash whats up!" i yelled out.

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "My house! And me. And my cutie Tankie—um, I mean, Tank."

she saw me and flew down right infront of me whipping here mane out of her face Fallen Prime: She whipes here mane back and forth.

Cola: I can think of something else that needs 'whipping'. My ass, with this fic.

and replied "Hi chris thanks for fixing my leg the other day."

Something: "I sold it for ten bucks more than I would have gotten for it!"

"No problem." i told her with a smile "So what are we doing today?" i questioned her. "I have the day off today so... i have no work today."

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "Let's punch each other in the face until one of us says, 'Stop punching me in the face.' My turn!"

she grinned, "wanna race?" she asked without hessitation.

Fallen Prime: You just broke your damn fool leg.

Sigma: But she has wings, he doesn't, and she's the fastest in Equestria as far as I know.

SC276: Is it usual for Rainbow to challenge people that're way out of her league in the negative direction?

NaturalGlitch: Nah. I bet she's trying out a challenge, like running on one leg or using her ears to fly or something.

"i love to but i don't have wings nor i don't fly."

Something: Somewhere, far out in the galaxy, your first grade English teacher weeps.

i replied "We can race on the ground." she remarked. i replied "well alrighty then where do we race?" "How about to sugar cube corner and back to my house."

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "One-two-three GO! (zips away, then runs back) I win! Now I owe you a cupcake."

dash replied "alright, but no flying ok." i chuckled. we began the race, she was in the lead but I was catching up to her.

Maud: No, you're not.

NaturalGlitch: "Rainbow Dash wanted to try to run on only two legs, but she decided to use her front ones."

she looked back and started runing faster, i was running even faster than her Maud: No you are not.

Fallen Prime: The broken leg, Kanzy.

Something: Guys, she's runing, not running. There's a difference.

Cola: The second n is totally like flame and stuff. Totally.

she was shocked and grew tired eventully i made it to sugercube corner.

Maud: Hahahahaha no.

Ringmaster: ~~NO~~.

RJ: So. Much. NO.

SC276: You are a game and feature animation college student. There is no fucking way you're that athletic.

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash, smirking] "Oh no, I guess I lost. That means you have to buy me something from the store."

I rested for a second then rainbow came she was restless. "Wow your fast."

Maud: I don't normally indulge in this, but... *you're.

SC276: Actually, he stole that fast from her.

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "That's the last time I try to run only using my tail."

she said while catching her breath."i was in track and feild when i was in high school."

Fallen Prime: While studying games and animation. Suuuuure.

Sigma: Doc's claims of track are more plausible than this. Doc's.

SC276: Pretty much everyone in my high school was required to take P.E. courses, except for those whose parents somehow got an exception, which included me, so...

i too was catching my breath and we started off again this time I sprinted and i met her at the end. She was shocked. "How can you run so fast?" she asked with a shocking look. "well i used to run alot in high school."

SC276: We already knew that! Move on already!

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "It was either learn how to run fast or get tied to the flagpole at school every day."

"well i want you to help me with a trick." she said. "what kind of trick is it?"

Fallen Prime: "I'll show you. Spread 'em."

Sigma: "Ever heard of anabolic steroids?"

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "I need to practice for a skip rope competition. I was hoping you'd be the rope."

i asked while we both sat down under a tree.

SC276: The ground around Rainbow's house has trees near it?

"Well...

Something: "There's no trick. It just knows better."

its called the twister." she said shyly.

Maud: So that's what they're calling it, these days.

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "It's when you spin your body around so fast your limbs twist in different directions. Now, hold still..."

"Well how does it go?" i asked.

SC276: "Well first we spread out this mat, then we spin this spinner and it says things like 'Right Hoof Blue...'"

"Come closer," i came closer, "closer," she said again with a giggle,

Something: "And then she shoved some chloroform into my face."

Topher: Ah, the ultimate pickup line. "Does this rag smell like chloroform to you?"

NaturalGlitch: Rainbow takes off her mask to reveal she was Pinkie Pie the whole time. "What a twist!" she says. "Get it?"

i moved till we were face to face. "are you ready?" she asked. "well how does it go," i asked nervously.

SC276: Hopefully something like Carrie's segment in "The Tape." Which... might actually be in-character for Rainbow.

she started to kiss me,

NaturalGlitch: "She bites down on my bottom lip—hard—and yanks her head to the side, twisting my entire body around like a top on its side."

i resisted a bit but then i just said fuck it let see where this goes.

Maud: HEY GUYS LOOK, MORE THINGS.

Sigma: With a fork, Glimo. With a fork.

Topher: Lights blowtorch

We were kissing for a few seconds then she was using her tounge,

Something: Tounge - A special kind of mace mostly used for testicle crushing.

she was leading our tounge to meet each other and then she broke the kiss, "well..." she said with a smile in her face, "Not bad, for a rookie like you."

Fallen Prime: I hate everything.

Maud: I love you, too.

Something: I don't.

SC276: There's individual kiss positions based on tongue interaction? That's seems overly convoluted and unrealistic, even for this fic.

i said in amazement. "Rookie," she said with a wierd tone, "I have been pratischeing for weeks now."

Sigma: Does author not realise how sad that sounds?

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "I even drew a picture of you and stitched it to my kissing-practice pillow. Wanna see?"

but she looked away blushing, "Want to learn from a pro?" i offered her,

Sigma: I call bullshit.

Something: Bitch please. The only thing you're a pro at is pissing me off.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "I learned it from watching Dad and Mom going at it. They knew I was watching. They knew."

she looked at me with her eyes widening "what do you know about kissing?" she questioned me.

Sigma: Yeah, making lips with your thumb and fingers doesn't count, Chris.

Topher: Urge... to kill... rising...

"Come here and find out for yourself." i told her with a smile. she came back, we started kissing again, this time i took the lead and showed her how to properly kiss with the tongue.

NaturalGlitch: "Somehow their tongues got tied around each other. This is going to be one embarrassing trip to the hospital."

Was four years worth of dating girls and kissing them to show a pony how to french kiss?, it totally was.

Fallen Prime: Gaaaaaaaaaaaaaag.

Something: ECH.

Sigma: I find this very implausible and would like to state that I also find it a bit disgusting.

SC276: And then Chris was Dr. Toadley- why am i comparing this to a good video game

NaturalGlitch: Who did he practice with—his sister?

she pulled back and was in amazement she looked at me blushing once more she looked at me and said with excitement "WOW, that was... really nice."

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "Sorry I burped up the hay-fries into your mouth. I get nervous."

she said from a yelling screech to a soft whisper like how Fluttershy talks usually Maud: Because every mare instantly becomes a Fluttershy when romance is involved.

Something: I don't think this author has ever talked to a woman in his life.

Sigma: Tsundere mode, activate!

"Well i learned from the best." i remarked.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "My anime love pillow."

I walked to Sugarcube Corner and walked with Rainbow Dash she was talking about the Wonderbolts i was interested that she met them and talked to them.

Fallen Prime: You're a guy. I guarantee all you were doing was smiling and nodding politely.

Sigma: With one hand on the table and the other in your pants.

NaturalGlitch: Aww, I wanted to know more about the Wonderbolts...

when we reached the shop, we saw pinkiepie outside watering the plants she looked at both of us and said "Whacha doing dashie and chrisie."

Something: "Plotting the genocide of griffons. How about you?"

Sigma: "Chrisie" sounds like a girl's name. Not a dude's nickname.

Cola: Maybe Pinkie can't discern human genders?

Topher: She'll learn the difference pretty fast if this goes where I think it's going!

i was not really surprised that she called me that although i made a frown. "Awww lets turn that frown upside by making cupcakes!"

NaturalGlitch: Remember when Cupcakes was the worst fanfic the fandom had ever written? Now it's an all-out contest to see who can oneup each other. Bleg.

she started jumping happily.

SC276: If you're going to write a terrible fanfic, at least put in all the words!

We walked into the kitchen dash,pinkie and I were starting to make cupcakes,

Something: (insert a series of obvious jokes about that one fic here)

Fallen Prime: Look, Something, there are things we're above joking about...

Cola: We could not get lucky enough to have the MC murdered in this, could we?

rainbow was not great at baking just as i figured, i wasn't a perfect baker either but i was decent.

Maud: Because of course you were.

Sigma: The only thing he can bake is bullshit, and even that's only half-baked.

Topher: stops eating Wait, this isn't chocolate?

Cola: No, Topher, it's...it's chocolate, buddy. You're doing the right thing.

Topher: narrows eyes, but resumes eating

About half an hour later we were finished

Something: Wow, that quick?

SC276: Must've been shortbread cookies or something?

Cola: Or a complete lack of knowledge about any aspect of baking?

"I think i'll go get some shut eye, i'll see you later chris." rainbow said.

NaturalGlitch: [Rainbow Dash] "Now to put on my Tank jammies and curl up with that Chrisie pillow."

she look back at me smiling, she went home.

Fallen Prime: Without you? Damn, you got shut out.

Sigma: Fallen, even girlfriends wouldn't want to wake up and see his face beside them.

Chapter 8

Something: I officially have no more sequel title jokes. Eh, I'll save 'em for next time.

Maud: Uhhh... "The Big Freeze"? Literally the only movie I know.

Sigma: My Life in MLP: Revelations.

After i saw rianbow

Something: Rianbow, son of Ryanbow.

dash fly off I didn't see pinkiepie jump right behind me, she knocked me down she was on top of me and shreiked

NaturalGlitch: [Pinkie Pie] "The dogs are after me! Hide me!"

"YAY you get to spend the day with me tomarrow!"

Fallen Prime: Let's not talk about the marrow.

Something: But it's my favorite drink!

I chuckled sure thing i'm kinda tired so good night we'll hang out tomarrow" i yawned.

Sigma: He ain't the only one yawning...

i went up stairs lied on her bed and fell asleep.

SC276: OK, I have a distorted sense of time memory, but I'm pretty sure these days are going faster than days in 3D Legend of Zelda.

The next morning i felt a soft, sweet smelling blanket, but when I opened my eyes it was pinkiepie NaturalGlitch: [Pinkie Pie] "You looked cold, so I became a blanket for you. Don't ask."

on top of me just staring at me when i was asleep.

Something: HEUGH.

RJ: (Pinkie Pie) I WATCHED YOU THE ENTIRE NIGHT.

"Morning sleepy head," she happily smiled at me. Rumors are true that her smell was cotton candy.

Fallen Prime: Rumors perpetuated by whom?

Sigma: 4chan.

Something: And Reddit probably helped.

Cola: "Boy, the drugs really work on you humans! Do you remember anything I did to you in the night at all?"

"You smell really nice." i said trying to wake up. "Your funny."

Something: I want to kill humor now. Who's with me?

SC276: "What about my funny?"

smiled pinkie. "soooooooooo...", i guessed " what are we doing today?"

NaturalGlitch: [Pinkie Pie] "Helping me find Gummy. (the toothless alligator is chomping down on her mane) Where is the little cutie?"

i aksed her while pushing her off my body.

Topher: Twenty bucks says sex. Kinky, sloppy, awkwardly written sex.

"Mr. and Mrs. cake are out of town so we have to run the sugercube corner for the day." she shouted.

"Ok then not a problem." I said with a cheerful tone.

SC276: "I took maybe one semester at best of gaming - not even game design, gaming - and feature animation courses. I am totally qualified to co-run a bakery."

NaturalGlitch: (shrugs) I guess he could reach stuff too high for Pinkie to get?

"what are we waitnig for then?" pinkie pie eyes widened "YIPPE!"

Fallen Prime: ...is that slang for something?

Sigma: It's the trigger code to activate any nearby assassins. Hopefully, Chris will be dead within 5 minutes.

she shouted with glee. "Ok," she said, "We have to; make more cakes, make a wedding cake for the Harison wedding, make 10lbs of frosting, mop the floors, dust the cabenits, throw out the trash, and sell sell sell." "Is that it?" i wanted to know.

NaturalGlitch: [Pinkie Pie] "—try not to eat the frosting, fail, make more frosting, fight off the cake monster..."

Something: "Nope! I'm gonna take measurements for your coffin after that!"

"thats on the cakes list, this is my list." i saw a scroll that rolled down to the other side of town.

Fallen Prime: I think you're confusing Pinkie with Twilight.

Sigma: And I know it's for comedic effect (and poorly), but did it just go through the wall or something?

SC276: Has the fic itself actually used an exclamation mark yet?

i fainted this was alot of todo things.

Something: Todo - The act of slowly cutting your penis into sushi.

Topher: I feel the urge to google that, but I know that nothing good can come of it.

A few hours later i was exhausted i lied on pinkie's bed "sooo tired!" i moaned.

Fallen Prime: And that's the first three yards of list rendered undoable now.

SC276: Chris, dude, the scene just cut to after. You didn't actually do anything.

pinkiepie bursted through the door yelling in here typical voice, "hey why are you so tired chrise?"

NaturalGlitch: [Pinkie Pie] "All you did was sprinkle some sugar on the cupcakes. That was three hours ago."

"i'm sorry pinkie, i don't have as much energy as you do."

RJ: Cocaine is a helluva drug.

i sighed. she sat next beside me. she put her hoof on my chest, i looked at my chest there was a slice of cake, "Eat it," she said in a serious voice.

Maud: We Cupcakes, now?

Sigma: We JUST discussed being above those jokes!

NaturalGlitch: [Pinkie Pie] "Maybe you're too tired to eat. Don't worry, I'll chew on it for you and slide it in your mouth with my own."

" i ate it, all of a sudden i felt weird and suddenly i had all this energy, "Oh my god!, i feel soo energtic, whats in this cake?" i asked her with so much enhuiasim. " Coffee, lots of coffee." she said

Something: "Also methamphetamine, but who's paying attention?"

SC276: Literal coffee cake? Are you kidding me?

NaturalGlitch: [Pinkie Pie] "I also added something called 'Red Bull'. " happlily. all of sudden i lost concece.

Sigma: ...He lost what?

Something: Concece - "Genitals" in the language of fuckboys.

Topher: Do I want to know where you're learning all this?

i woke up on the floor holding what suposably was alcohol in their world but was root beer in my world so i didn't feel hungover.

Fallen Prime: Bitch, don't even front.

RJ: Son, you ain't tryin' then.

NaturalGlitch: Getting drunk off of Root Beer? ...I kinda like that idea. At least he didn't use cider; that "joke" got old FAST.

i decided to just walk to the carosel boutique and knocked on the door

Sigma: Did he just ditch Pinkie?

Something: Stop asking questions you know will never be answered.

SC276: Where did she even go? How did she react to him blacking out? Why is this fic going so fast?!

Cola: This is like if you stuck three episode scripts in a blender and just glued it all together after.

"Come in." rarity said.

Fallen Prime: THAT won't stop, will it.

Sigma: ...I'm still stunned by that spelling.

I walked in. "Hello rarity," i greeted her with interest. "DARLING!" she yelled,

Something: "Stop spelling my name wrong!"

Cola: 'Rarity'?! Are you fucking shitting me?

NaturalGlitch: How is the spelling and grammar getting worse?

"Your cloths, there out... of style." I looked at my cloths

Something: "There were a lot of semen stains, but they weren't really out of style."

i had on was; my hoodie with makeshift hidden blades that i try to make my self thanks to welding and mechanic classes, NaturalGlitch: PFFFFT-AHAHAHHAAAAHA! Wait—you're serious?!

the blades are sewed inside the sleeves of the jacket.

Maud: Wait, never mind. We Assassin's Creed, now.

Sigma: There's no way he could go out in public with those. LOTS of places have metal detectors now.

SC276: One, semicolons only work when there are actually commas, and even then that's shaky; and two, when did you take freakin' metalshop? At the gaming and animation college?

the rest was some desert cargo pants and a tee shirt, also my backpack with my things. "well i won't argue but the jacket is fine." i said.

NaturalGlitch: You've been wearing the same clothes for almost a week. Just give it up already.

"True it can be the way it is, after all black is always in style." she looked at me while measuring my height and length.

Fallen Prime: Please don't share.

Sigma: 0.5 cm I'd bet

SC276: She also tried measuring his depth, only to find he was 2D.

Chapter 9

"Well then take them off." Rarity said. "I don't have extra cloths." i shrugged at rarity Fallen Prime: Stop.

Something: This ain't gonna end well.

Topher: I'll get the popcorn!

Cola: Wait, seriously? We just jumped midscene into the next chapter?!

"I guess i can make you a quick outfit just to wear." She did a simple white tee shirt and a soft fabric pants.

NaturalGlitch: "It had the Cutie Mark Crusader's symbol stitched into it; it was so sweet!"

I was about to walk in to her creative room, but she looked at me with a glare, "No peekin." she closed the door on me. i waited for about an hour, SC276: After fifteen minutes, someone had set up a sideshow around him. Lyra was a frequent customer.

NaturalGlitch: Yep. She sat weird once, so that means she obsessed with humans and hands. I guess with that logic, Trixie has a human obsession because she's the first pony to run on two legs.

then she came out "I need to do one more thing," she said look at my body. "What's wrong?" i asked "i need to measure...everything..."

Maud: "Because... reasons... totally innocent reasons..."

NaturalGlitch: No, you don't, Rarity. Just use your magic on a measuring tape.

she looked at my pants. Using her unicorn

Something: "She castrated me."

she was pulling my pants down, but i held on to my pants.

Sigma: PANTS TO BE DARKENED!

"What are you doing!" i yelled at her. "I don't know, when i saw you with applejack, dashie, and pinkie i felt.. urges."

Fallen Prime: It astounds me that this isn't a trollfic.

SC276: The urge to maim him? We're all getting that.

Topher: I prefer the term "extreme circumcision."

NaturalGlitch: (tries not to barf) W-Well, at least she knows there's a reason a hairless creature would wear clothes all the time...there's that.

Her magic stopped. She started crying, "Don't leave me like this."

RJ: Honey, batteries are your friends.

NaturalGlitch: There's batteries in Equestria? I also read that last line as, "Don't write me like this."

RJ: Do you want to bug your uber magic power friends to power 'that' on a cold, lonely night?

she looked down, i loooked down where she was looking at. She was looking at her pussy, Sigma: Please be Opalescence.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "Oh, so their genitals magically appear when they're in the mood. Also—AHHHHH!"

it was wet and hot with her juices

Sigma: If this was AJ, I could make an apple juice joke. But I can't.

NaturalGlitch: Well, if somepony has to have a human obsession, it would be Rarity...I guess.

pouring out of her pussy.

Sigma: Fallen, get the sawblades.

Fallen Prime: Mine. Not sharing.

Maud: HEY GUYS, REMEMBER WHEN I SAID THIS WAS RATED "M"?

Sigma: Remember how I said WITH A FORK?

Something: (drives in with a forklift) GLIMGLAM YOUR TIME OF RECKONING IS HERE. HOW DO YOU PLEAD.

Maud: I plead the fifth.

Sigma: You're Canadian. GUILTY!

Something: YOU ARE SENTENCED TO MAXIMUM FORKLIFT. (runs forklift straight into Glimo's brain)

I sigh and spoke to while she was crying, " i won't have sex with you, but if.. I... I eat your pussy will you be happy?"

Sigma: Who do you fucking think you are, John Barrowman?

Something: Please. Adam Baldwin has more sexual charisma than this guy.

SC276: Your first reaction is to eat her out, and not, y'know, use your hands? This guy is messed up six ways to Sunday.

Cola: Mouth's way better for that kind of work, trust me. Plus, he probably wanted to see what flavor she is.

SC276: Five bucks says marshmallow.

NaturalGlitch: ... (facepalms)

she looked up at me and stopped crying. She nodded.

NaturalGlitch: And like all HiE fanfics, Rarity is a total whore because she wears eyeliner and blinks at people. And now Chris is a total pig.

I put her on the couch i was sitting on. i opened her legs and saw it. It was wet all over i licked her cunt it was salty at first but then sweet,

Something: Is this a vagina or a Sour Patch Kid?

Sigma: Sour Patch Clits! Eat them out!

Cola: Wait, salty, though, so maybe Sour Pretzel Clits?

it tasted like an old girlfriend i had in the real world,

NaturalGlitch: ...this was inspired by Twilight and Me, wasn't it?

she was cute but we broke up because she had to move.

Maud: ...Good to know. I guess.

Sigma: I have better things to use brain cells on.

SC276: Couldn't this have been brought up before? Maybe, if the author literally wasn't making stuff up as he went.

Topher: "Yeah, she was totally real. you wouldn't know her though, she lived in Canada, then she moved to Europe, but we had all kinds of sex, you know, with our genitals and stuff."

Cola: pictures author masturbating furiously while crying and dictating the story to his computer

I started to eat her out, she was moaning like no tomorrow.

NaturalGlitch: Can you imagine how the others would feel about this total betrayal? And to be used as a tool just to be a means to an end... Well, if someone needed to be a tool, Chris sure fits the bill.

I started to notice her pearl white face was turning a bright roseish red, SC276: Based on my limited knowledge of pony anatomy, I'm pretty sure it should be doing that before now.

"I-i can't hold it any more chris." she shouted panting. "hold what?"

Something: Piss on his face, piss on his face, piss on his face-

SC276: If she tasted like his ex, he should know what's coming up next.

Topehr: Broken promises and sadness?

i asked although i knew what was going to happen.

SC276: GODDAMMIT AUTHOR.

"I'm going to cum!" she shouted

Fallen Prime: Real ladylike.

Something: SHIT.

Ringmaster: Something, please don't try to jinx it.

NaturalGlitch: [Rarity] "Hello, darling! Sorry I didn't arrive at our appointment on time, but—what are you and that changeling doing?! So...vulgar!"

"AAAAHHHHHHH!" she came all over her chair, all of her clear hot juices although i didn't have sex with her i did kind of jizz in my pants.

Maud: PLEASE DON'T SHARE.

Fallen Prime: Suddenly, Lonely Island.

Sigma: That's too good for this fic.

Cola: More like lonely author AMIRITE?

she walked to the room she showed me my cloths they were amazing.

Maud: ...That was abrupt.

Something: I've seen Youtube Poops that had better transitions.

"Ta-DA!" she yelled with a nervous face.

NaturalGlitch: [Rarity] "I finally finished it! Sorry it took so long. You even dozed off, mumbling something about a thing called...jizz, was it? What's that?"

i looked at they were really cool i saw my original outfit black assasin hoddie, Something: Can I go dead now.

Sigma: We suffer together, bitch.

SC276: Why does he even have that?!

red shirt, and cargo pants. The other outfit was an awesome black jacket with multiple pockets and zippers, Something: Oh my God Rarity is Rob Liefeld.

Sigma: She's not an artist!

and deniem like pants that were baggy, and a tee shirt that had some deigns on them. "Wow rareity, they look amazing, how can i repay you?" i said.

NaturalGlitch: [Rarity] "By letting my little darlings inside you hatch. You will suffer greatly. Toodles!"

"you already have." she started blushing again.

Fallen Prime: Eugh.

SC276: I don't care what century or country you live in, sex acts are not legal currency.

Cola: howls in fury 'Deniem'?! 'Degins'? AND HOW THE FUCK DO YOU NOT KNOW HOW TO SPELL RARITY?!

I put my new outfit on, it looked really awesome.

NaturalGlitch: "The knife I welded into the hoodie slides off of the mechanism, puncturing my eye, and I die on the floor like a rat."

"Thank you rarity." i gave her a hug. "It was no problem, Dude." she attempted to sound like a bronie.

Maud: ..."dude"?

Sigma: Hold on. How could she attempt to sound like a brony? Seriously.

I chukled a bit. "Do you mind if i stay here tonight?" I asked "Yes darling, i'll show to your spare room."

SC276: That means she does mind, which means no! That's, like, elementary school! What is wrong with this author?!

NaturalGlitch: Meanwhile, Pinkie Pie wonders where Chris and all the cake went.

She gave me som pillows and a blanket, and i went to bed.

Something: "I never woke up again."

Cola: That would be a really great ending.

Chapter 10

The next day I went to fluttershy's cottage,

Fallen Prime: Don't.

Sigma: This is the part where twow kills us.

Maud: What do you mean, "us"? I hate guilt by association.

Sigma: You'll be dead BEFORE that for other reasons, so don't worry.

SC276: And the next target on America's favorite game show, "Seduce ALL the Ponies," is...!

since i knew i get startled so I knocked on the door softly.

SC276: You certainly weren't startled at the prospect of eating out "Rarity" earlier.

NaturalGlitch: "Unfortunately, this is the one time Angel Bunny convince Fluttershy to hold a rave party in her cottage."

She answered the door, "Who is it?" she said in soft, smooth voice.

Something: Fluttershy suddenly became Isaac Hayes. Again.

"It's me Chris." I said in the calmest way I could say.

NaturalGlitch: "—into the megaphone I brought."

She slammed the door open with her eyes wide, she also had a cheeky grin.

Maud: Oh lord. Here we go.

Sigma: She's gonna play chess with him?

Topher: Of course not! A human and a pony locked in a battle of wits, does that sound interesting at all?

She started talking as if she was pinkiepie

SC276: Wasn't the first time she acted like that when she saw Spike in the first episode?

NaturalGlitch: Yep, and... Wait... Oh no!

"Oh my gosh it's so nice to see you we have so much to do!" she smiled at me making a very cute squeaking noise.

Fallen Prime: I bet this bizarro Pinkie's "squeak" is an MLG airhorn.

Sigma: BWOOOOOM

I laughed for a bit smiling back at her, "So what are we going to do today?" I asked smiling at her with my smirk.

RJ: (sarcastic) Oh, whatever are the possibilities?

NaturalGlitch: [Fluttershy] "The same thing we do every night, Chrisie—try to take over the world! ...by hugging one little critter at a time."

"Follow me." she said. we walked to a cage that had a manticores, "JESUS FUCKING CHRIST!" I shouted, Jesus: Oh, what now?

"Why would you have one of those things?" I asked her with fear.

SC276: That is a very good question that will not get a satisfactory answer.

Topher: Because Fluttershy is Hagrid.

RJ: Fluttershy runs a weird fetish club on the side. ... Well, she could.

NaturalGlitch: Chris found Fluttershy's room of extreme knitting.

"It was injured when i found him so we have to give him some medicine ok." she said.

NaturalGlitch: [Fluttershy] "Now let's go eat huh."

"How do we give him medicine?" I asked. "We give him this peice of meat, i'll calm him down and you give the meat."

Something: ...CAN I DEAD NOW.

Maud: Not until he gives them the meat, first. :^)

RJ: I think a lot of meat is going to be given to more than one being.

SC276: Shove him in its mouth!

NaturalGlitch: [Fluttershy] "You don't need both arms, right? (Bambi eyes are go!) Can you spare one?"

she explained while to calm me down. "Alright, lets get this out of the way." I sighed.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "I'm new to the neighborhood, so, by law, I have to say—"

We walked to the cage and fluttershy did her part to calm down the manticore and i gave it the meat.

Sigma: He jerked it off?

Cola: No, no. He fucked it.

Sigma: Ohhhh.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "I gave him one of my legs; I'm sure I didn't need it."

It started geting crazy,

Fallen Prime: Nice work, genius.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "—♪ but here's my number / so call me, maybe♪."

Fluttershy looked at the medicine it was an antioxidant that increased its anger and stregnth SC276: You're only noticing that now?!

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "Maybe I shouldn't have snorted it."

"Chris, look out! He's going to attack!" "Oh shit!" I dodged the first swipe it did.

Maud: His +1 Baggy Pants of Dodging made this a snap, of course.

Topher: So that's how Piccolo does it!

I didn't want to kill it, so I grabbed a log SC276: Wait, are they inside Fluttershy's house, or...? I've completely lost track.

Cola: I think he pooped himself and forgot to tell us.

RJ: It's log! It's better than bad; it's good!

NaturalGlitch: He didn't want to kill it? From what—laughter?

and hit it in the back of the head, it knocked the manticore down for a few seconds.

NaturalGlitch: "It was a hyper magic log that makes the user not be a total weakling."

I ran to the door but the manticore got back but and grabbed my foot.

NaturalGlitch: "It's a good thing I can regrow my limbs spontaneously."

It turned me over and attacked me, it cut me on in the chest but it didn't damage the outfit rarity gave me.

Something: I've read Nicholas Sparks novels that weren't this boring.

SC276: How the fuck did it damage his body without damaging his clothes in the process?!

Cola: Through the power of Shitty Writing!

I had kill the manticore,

Something: This fic makes it hard for me to not read it in a bad Russian accent.

before i went to fluttershy's cottage i asked twilight to make a copy of my assassin hoodie, NaturalGlitch: BRAIN HAS PERFORMED AN ILLEGAL OPERATION AND MUST BE SHUT DOWN.

no question were asked,

Something: Except for "Can I kill you now?"

SC276: Stop making up everything as you go!

after I left I tore the hidden blades that were in the copy and put them the jacket that rarity gave me. i had to struggle out to activate the blades.

Fallen Prime: ...now I'm not so sure this isn't trolling.

Sigma: I think the author's too stupid to troll.

Maud: It's Fanfiction.net. What do you expect?

Sigma: I don't.

SC276: Y'know, you could've just been wearing the first outfit instead of going through this bullshit.

once I realeased my arms I used them and stabbed the manticore in the was shocked in horror and ran off to her home, NaturalGlitch: [Manticore] "He stabbed me in the nipples with toothpicks! Just what the hell, man?!"

but the manticore died it made a final strike and knocked me to the other side of the cage. It was done, I killed my first creature in Equestria.

Sigma: "And it wasn't even edible."

RJ: "And now I will mount it."

Topher: That can mean one of three things.

SC276: OK, I can't tell if this is honestly attempting to use every bad HiE cliché on the Internet.

I limped all the way to Fluttershy's door i opened it, " I'm sorry." I whispered to her,I fell down and blacked out.

NaturalGlitch: Yay!~

I was waking up in fluttershy's bed.

SC276: Fast enough to not warrant a paragraph break.

Next to me was fluttershy curled up sleeping, the other ponies were also sleeping.

Something: ...NOPE. NOPE NOPE NOPE NOPE NOPE NOPE. NOPE. NOPE. NOPE. NOPE.

Cola: So, um, nope, then?

I sat up and pulled the cover off of me and I was covered in bandages I felt my ribs were broken so i couldn't move much, NaturalGlitch: Why didn't the Manticore use its scorpion tail and stab Chris? He would be dead now.

my backpack was on the nightstand. I took out a pen and my note book

Something: I thought you couldn't move, you lying bag of plums.

Sigma: I feel like if Professor Plum were here he'd be insulted by that.

and started drawing for the next hour.

NaturalGlitch: "This caused me incredible pain; all my wounds opened up, and I died on the seat."

It has been an hour I saw twilight's eyes were opening up she saw me drawing "Your awake." she said happily.

Fallen Prime: Oh my god, editors are people.

Maud: I wonder why they bother having the Beta Reader function on FF.net these days. It's obviously not working.

SC276: I actually signed up for that for a bit, then I realized I didn't really like reading over other people's stuff for nothing. At least, not without being a snarky ass.

"What are you doing?" she asked while coming over to see the notebook. "What's that?" she asked.

NaturalGlitch: [Twilight] "What's that? (looks around) What is that? Do you smell something burning?"

"Oh nothing, just a random drawing i drew while you guys were asleep." I replied.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "It's my brain pattern." [Twilight] "...it's just random scribbles."

The other started to wake up, "Chris your awake," Applejack said while yawning.

Something: "Great, now I owe Angel Bunny fifteen bucks."

I tried to move but i couldn't move.

Something: CONTINUITY IS NOT A POLITE SUGGESTION.

SC276: To move and move but move or move...

NaturalGlitch: "I can't move, but it's a good thing I could move otherwise I couldn't move, which I can't."

"Hold on chris, I think I have a spell that can heal you right up."

SC276: "That I couldn't be bothered to use before you were conscious."

Cola: To be fair, they were taking turns raping him in his unconscious state.

NaturalGlitch: Hopefully with an actual scythe.

Her unicorn was lighting up with her magic aura, I felt my ribs being heal along with the scratch marks and wounds.

NaturalGlitch: OK, I get that Twilight is pretty powerful, but when in canon did it ever state she could heal people? Isn't that why there are doctors? Wouldn't she have done this at ANY TIME when one of her friends were hurt?

I removed the bandages and the wounds were gone,"Twilight you did it!" I shouted in excitement.

Fallen Prime: Refresh my memory, but didn't they have to manhandle Dash's leg?

NaturalGlitch: "But why can't I feel my...everything? Everything's going...dark..."

I got up, I told the others it's time to go twilight's home to help her.

Something: Help her do what, rid the world of you? If so, wait for me.

SC276: What did he even draw? I'm honestly curious. You say you're drawing and don't show what it is? That's just being a cocktease.

NaturalGlitch: [Fluttershy] "Why was I even in this story? I'm getting my agent, maybe he made a mistake."

Chapter 11

Me and Twilight were walking down town,

SC276: Making my way downtown.

Topher: plays piano

I told her what happened when the manticore went berzerk.

NaturalGlitch: "—because of me. I'll have to ask why there was medicine to do something so retarded later."

I told her about the hidden blades and how my great great grandfather was an assassin he was part of the creed

Something: "He was the drummer!"

Sigma: So, this is basically the SHITTIEST Assassin's Creed/MLP crossover ever.

Maud: What makes it better is that I bet this wasn't even intentional. Unless the author is a troll, of course...

NaturalGlitch: "♪No good deed goes unpunished: That's my new creed~♪" and how they used stealth and the hidden blades. "Is that why you made me make a copy of your jacket?" she asked, I nodded. "Wow, that is intresting."

SC276: "Stupid, but intresting."

NaturalGlitch: Sure wish that was established BEFORE he went to Fluttershy's cottage.

We arrived at the library, twilight was brewing a tea, i was looking at all the books

NaturalGlitch: [Twilight] "Hmm... This one says that there's going to be more porn on this show than literally any other thing ever, even from media that existed in the late 80s. What on Equestria is 'porn'? Is it some kind of popcorn?"

I picked one out and sat down and tried to read it.

Something: "Wait a minute, I can't read!"

I didn't notice it at first but she was there smiling since i was reading.

NaturalGlitch: [Twilight, looking at some pictures] "Oh, Flash Sentry, you silly-billy!~ Who's the cutest Pegasus ever? You are! (notices Chris and blushes) ...what?"

"what are you reading chris?" she asked

SC276: ...even though she can see the front cover.

"I don't really know, i tried reading some of it but my equestrian is really bad."

Fallen Prime: "I ALWAYS fall off the horse."

Maud: He actually spelled "Equestrian" correctly, for a change. I'm... not impressed, but I'm slightly less irritated, now.

Sigma: Didn't he say he MASTERED the alphabet earlier or something?

SC276: More or less; it was how he was able to read the note that came with the box that told him it was a portal.

Maud: Again, author, continuity is not a polite suggestion.

NaturalGlitch: If you can't read Equestrian, then how are you speaking it?!

I told her while I was squinting at the book. She giggled " Let me teach you." she smiled. She pulled out some wine and two glasses.

SC276: In order to learn a new language, you must first be drunk off your ass.

NaturalGlitch: ...this really is inspired by Twilight and Me! And that "wine" is probably fruit punch.

By a few hours we finished the book, so we also had a few bottles of wine together.

Something: ...nothing will escape my wrath.

Topher: And then Chris died because of the iocane powder in the wine.

The book was about a pony and a griffon that fell in love. Random: yes,ironic: maybe.

Something: People will look to the sky and shout "save us." And I will whisper "no."

Fallen Prime: Fuck it, I wanna read Watchmen now.

Sigma: We're not lucky enough to have good comics right now.

SC276: And we'd be hard-pressed to riff a comic in a Google Doc anyhow.

NaturalGlitch: Holy shit! This is ripped off directly from Tw and Me!! I even did a riff on it! What the fuck, man?!

"You know," twilight remarked, "you represent all the elements of harmony, your honest, generous, loyal, funny, kind and you have magic."

Something: WHEN IN THE FUCK DID HE GET MAGIC.

Maud: New Powers As The Plot Demands! Because fuck the readers.

Sigma: He has cock magic.

Topher: Same general principle as unicorn magic, but the horn is much lower.

NaturalGlitch: I...I guess being in Equestria, you absorb the magic? I-I don't know anything anymore. Who am I?

she said smiling again. "I don't think I have magic twilight." "Well maybe you do you haven't found it yet." she looked at me blushing like all the other ponies.

SC276: Maybe the magic is that he's a mare magnet.

NaturalGlitch: Well, even if Unicorns use their magic directly, all the ponies—and I'm sure every other denizen—has magic they use, so... (farts aggressively) Whatever.

We were both drunk, we got closer and I started to kiss her.

Something: ...I don't like where this is going.

Sigma: I WAS KIDDING.

Cola: The story heard you through time and space, Sigma. It's learning.

She was begining to be passinoite, I broke the kiss, "You know we all agreed to tell you this, but we all have a crush on you,"

Maud: It just wouldn't be a shitty self-insert if they didn't, right?

Fallen Prime: You're fucking fired.

Sigma: Glimo, your list of crimes has now been expanded.

SC276: This reminds me of a crappy dating sim I played a... couple times...

NaturalGlitch: ...why?! Why do they all... WHY?!

she looked away, " Rainbow told me how you taught her how to kiss, rareity told me how you 'comfort' her."

NaturalGlitch: [Twilight] "Even though you did take a pretty heavy nap at her place and licked one of her pillows..."

"Twilight..." I asked her, "yea, chris," she responded, "I think im going to stay."

Fallen Prime: Nice. We gettin' so paid.

Something: bnhkujuy7vg,mkvfgnhjj

NaturalGlitch: “—in the same style Woody Woodpecker laughs.”

Sigma: Do you really think we're that lucky?

Sigma: Also, are we just gonna ignore the fact that this is a shitty dating game premise? Get a waifu in thirty days or bad end?

SC276: Are you kidding me? Are you bleeping kidding me? And I thought the text was on the box, where did the note come from?! Besides, a decent dating sim would've trimmed some of the branches by now!

I looked up at the ponies, "Well who is going to be?" asked fluttershy.

SC276: He killed a manticore you were keeping, why the fuck are you of all ponies interested?!

Topher: That corpse proved useful in decorating her shed.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "I choose Sunset Shimmer! Wait, no—Moondancer! Um... Trixie? Lightning Dust? No, wait, Gilda; that's the one."

"I need time to think." I walked to the door but I was blocked by all of them. "Its now or never." rarity remarked. "

NaturalGlitch: Since you more or less assaulted Rarity, you might as well pick her.

Look I just need space to think."

Fallen Prime: They never saw him again. Please.

I walked away again, then rainbowdash grabbed my arm, "He's mine!", twilight grabbed my other arm "No he's mine!", then the rest followed.

NaturalGlitch: I'm so glad the show will never resort to this stupid plotline from 80s sitcom shows.

I was stretched out while i heard arguments surrounding me.

Fallen Prime: Because friendship.

Sigma: This fic is offensive.

SC276: What are they, six?

Cola: Could we get lucky enough that they tear him limb from limb?

Topher: Well, I would have liked him drawn as well, but I'll settle for just quartered.

"STOOPP!" I shouted. They dropped me. I was about to go out the door. " Chris.." applejack whispered to me "I'm sorry applejack I need to go." I ran off.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "I haven't used the bathroom since I got here."

"But...", then applejack said in a very quiet "I love you." her eyes were about to tear.

Something: Fic, please turn into Event Horizon. I will love you if you do.

NaturalGlitch: Just don't do the demonic and bloody orgy scene, please.

Chapter 12

I just kept running until i couldn't see ponyville.

NaturalGlitch: "I ran around with my eyes closed, crashing into random objects."

I then just started walking "What am I going to do?" i asked my self. if I choose one then i break the others hearts.

SC276: Well the obvious solution then is to go back home and forget it ever happened. Like we certainly will.

I took out my ipod and started to listened to music, for some reason i didn't know how it fit into the situation but one song described the entire thing.

NaturalGlitch: "♪Whoa, Black Betty, bam-a-lam; Whoa, Black Betty, bam-a-lam!♪"

I forgot the name of the song but I didn't bother to look at the name.

Fallen Prime: This is the most fitting song in the world... tribute.
SC276: That just proves there's no song fitting this situation.

As I walked deeper into the everfree forest,

NaturalGlitch: Would people please not wander into that forest? Please?!

smoke was forming around my body, then I heard an evil chaotic laugh was surrounding the area.

RJ: Snoop Dogg? Is that you?
NaturalGlitch: No; it's Snoop Lion.

" Well what do we have here a lost creature in love with a pony I see." a dark figure was infront of me. "Discord what not a surprise."

Something: Remember when Discord was cool? That was a more innocent time.
Fallen Prime: He's still awesome. Just not in this fic.
SC276: Was this released before season 3 where he started being good? Because otherwise this will just turn off Fluttershy more.
NaturalGlitch: Please blink Chris out of existence. Or shove him into another dimension.

I told him with an anger tone.

Sigma: Woah nelly, an anger tone? Those're some strong words there, boy.
Ringmaster: It's like a dial tone, just louder.
Toph: BEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEP!

"Ah I see you understand the way of chaos." he smiled evilly, NaturalGlitch: "—while wearing his own Gala dress."

"Chris where are you?" I heard the mane 6 looking for me. "Well well well, let me take care of them." he laughed maniacally and started to form into my body,

Something: "Goddamn, your dick is tiny!"

NaturalGlitch: "When was the last time you bathed?"

but instead of brown eyes he had an evil satan like red eyes with black pupils.

Sigma: Jesus Christ this is so dumb.

SC276: Not even the sort of dumb that could pass as good to the right crowd.

NaturalGlitch: (almost falls out of his chair laughing)

" don't worry i'll break it to them cruelly." his voice started to change into mine. "Chris, why are there two of you?" Questioned twilight.

NaturalGlitch: Because it's the only way he could be dumber.

Discord pushed me into the bushes.

RJ: "IGNORE THAT."

"What do you mean egghead." "What, why are you so mean." twilight said.

Something: Said with all the passion of me talking about the Batman v. Superman trailer.

NaturalGlitch: It's REALLY difficult to not make The Room reference, but I'm going to try.

"Yea I said it," again in my voice, "twi, your an egghead, fluttershy your unwanted, rarity your deigns are horrible, rainbow dash your too proud of your self just fly away rainbowCRASH, Something: That's as original as "yo mamma" jokes.

SC276: Which is probably why they don't suspect it's Discord.

and applejack, I heard what you said I don't!"

NaturalGlitch: ...what?

That's when it hit applejack she bursted out crying, "Why are you so mean now!"

Fallen Prime: "Because the plot said so, cunts!"

SC276: And sadly, that's a pretty legitimate response.

rainbowdash yelled at the disguised discord. "Because that is not me!" I came out of the tree pouncing on discord.

NaturalGlitch: "I tried to hide the boner this situation was giving me."

I punched him multiple times before he pushed me back, we started fighting, NaturalGlitch: [Chris, slapping the air] "I'll~ harm~ you!~"

he was dodging all my punches "I know your every move." he told me.

Sigma: "You might know everything I'm going to do, but that's not going to help you, since I know everything YOU'RE going to do! STRANGE, isn't it?!"

I tried an uppercut, he grabbed my arm and flipped me over. I quickly got up he formed a shadow blade

Something: That's OP as fuck, bro.

NaturalGlitch: "—and not in his hand."

and charged at me "its on!"

Something: Wake me up when something disgusting happens. (falls asleep)

SC276: Get up. The whole fic is disgusting.

with no reaction i activated my hidden blades and charged at him.

NaturalGlitch: Why don't you shoot lightsabers out of your nipples while you're at it.

I jumped and we both stabbed each other. We both looked down we were both punctured in the stomach "Remember who's the one with magic" he smiled evilly again we pulled out our weapons

Maud: John Freeman, is that you?

Topher: Please don't remind me of the good bad stories i could be reading.

and looked at our wounds. Discords wound healed fully in no time, while my wound was bleeding out

NaturalGlitch: "—♫as Discord dug his sword in deeper, just to throw it away!♫"

I fell to my knees and fell to the ground. "No!" applejack and the others cried. "I win!" shouted discord. "you can't stop me!" he laughed maniacly.

Maud: Oh no. What shall we ever do. Ahhhh.

Sigma: Stop, don't, come back.

SC276: Help. Police. Murder.

Topher: "If only we had a unicorn who knew a magic bullshit spell that cured all wounds. A unicorn within ten feet of me. Purple for preference. Yep, that sure would be great."

Applejack broke down in tears.

NaturalGlitch: So...why didn't they gather the elements of harmony?

Then with out knowing it I felt a rush I rose up and everypony saw including applejack, Something: I think I know who the waifu is gonna be.

Sigma: You thought you knew who the waifu would be. But instead it is ME, DIO BRANDO!

I opened my eyes and i was wearing my great great grandfather's assasin outfit with all the wepons he owned.

SC276: ...OK, I think we just took a right turn into that machine from Assassin's Creed.

NaturalGlitch: Oh, go fuck off and die, fanfic.

I pulled out my sword and said to discord "Lets dance."

Cola: Let's not.

SC276: I don't dance on the first date.

Topher: "It's just a jump to the left!"

He pulled out his shadow blade before he struck, I attacked faster than he can cause chaos.

SC276: You are most certainly causing chaos faster than him with this typesmanship.

I finnaly stabbed him with my hidden blade sharper and with anti-magic poisin for some reason.

Fallen Prime: Oh my god, the story can't even make excuses for itself.

Something: Someone please just dead me

RJ: Ah reason. When you need a reason.

NaturalGlitch: I was expecting him to spell "reason" as "raison." Huh.

"Rest in peace fucker." I wispered in his ear. He fell down and died, " and stay dead." I yelled at him.

Maud: ...He killed Discord. He just straight up butchered him. YOU KNOW, FOR KIDS!

Something: Silly Glimglam, fanfiction isn't for kids! It's for... I dunno who it's for, actually. I'd probably be better off not knowing.

Sigma: It's for no one. Also, I'd take less issue with that he killed someone and he killed DISCORD. SPIRIT OF CHAOS.

I turned back to normal with the wound in my stomach, "twilight hurry!" I demanded.

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "Just stand there and do nothing with the rest of your friends!"

Without hessitation she casted her spell and I felt better than ever.

SC276: While we feel worse than ever.

RJ: "Eeny, meeny, miny, moe, pick a waifu by the toe..."

everypony eyesclosed, "Applejack."

Something: Wow. How shocking. This was totally a surprise.
NaturalGlitch: [Rarity] But... But... I gave you my first... (sobs violently and runs off)”

She looked up and she was crying again but with tears of joy. "I heard what you said before I left and, I love you too." I hugged her, we both kissed with passion.

Something: Zzz.
Maud: Absolutely riveting.
Topher: Oh, just BANG ALREADY!
NaturalGlitch: Please no.

Chapter 13
We were at applejacks farm, I was there under an archway with a tuxedo on.

Fallen Prime: Scene transition, or moving too fast? YOU decide!
Sigma: Why not both? Because it is.
Cola: It's not even a well-formed turd.
NaturalGlitch: (spits out drink) Where did this can even come from?!

I saw applejack with a wedding gown that rareity made for this day. She was next to me "You looked beautiful."

Something: "Sentence structure is for losers!"
Maud: Oh, so she looked good before, but doesn't look good now? Not something a woman wants to hear at her wedding, guy.

I told her with a gentile smile.

SC276: It was made of granite, I think.

Topher: Thank you for specifying that it was NOT a jewish wedding. We needed to know that.

RJ: (yiddish) We go all mishugana with the Chuppah and everything and NOW we're going goyish for this maven? FEH!

She was smiling as well "you look amazing too."

she also smiled After the wedding ceremony. we were dancing like no tomarrow.

SC276: Much like how this fic has no future.

"I'm really happy for you two." twilight told us while in our table along with the other ponies. Later on that night me and applejack were in bed, cloths all over the floor.

NaturalGlitch: "♪Walking the dinosaur!♪"

"Wow you were amazing chris." "you were too applejack."

Fallen Prime: "Just... fewer ropes next time?"

Maud: "Fine, but I get to be on top!"

Topher: "Man, I love bunk beds!"

we both kissed again. The next day I blindfolded applejack and untied the blindfold "Well what do you think?"

NaturalGlitch: [Chris] "Why are you on the floor, bellowing out deep sobs of total failure?"

I showed her a brand new home that was built by my own two hands.

Something: "But built with my own two testicles!"

SC276: Stop! Making! Up! Everything! As you go!

"Oh my it's beautiful chris, I love it." she shouted with glee. "I love you applejack and I always will no matter what happens i'll be by your side."

Sigma: Then they all died.

Something: And there was much rejoicing.

Topher: yaaaaaaay.

NaturalGlitch: "Then the volcano—who laid dormant for hundreds of years—woke up by hearing the toilet water called our dialog. It decided to do the right thing and erupted, engulfing us in liquid fire."

The End.

Ringmaster: And now for... well, I'm not sure what to call this. I'm still not even sure if it's really that riffable because of how incomprehensible it is, but the sheer fucking insanity of it all(and sending bits and pieces of it to a few other riffers) has made me decide to put it up anyway. I believe Maud's the only one here besides me who's read the thing in its entirety, and he had quite the reaction. Maud?

Maud: Oh, one does not simply "read" this story. One experiences this story. It's... special. It's very special, indeed. You thought the story before this was wonderful? Just wait until you get a load of this one. For better or worse, it will change your life.

Ringmaster: The best part? I've tried to track down everything about this author that I could to confirm if he's a troll or not, and from everything I could find on him... he isn't. What you're about to read is the actual attempt of someone with the writing capabilities of a mentally challenged toddler to write a self-insert MLP fanfiction, and it's just as horrible as it sounds. Enjoy.

Something: NOPE! I'm done. See you all next time, one piece of fuck is enough. (flies away on a xenomorph powered by rainbows)

Sigma: Get back here, you god damn pansy.

Chapter 0 The Search of Equestria

Maud: ...Equestria. E"quest"ia. Let that set the tone.

Cola: The anger tone.

Sigma: Glimo, why is it that none of these idiots you find can spell Equestria?

Ringmaster: Hey, I was the one who found this second fic.

Sigma: Is that so? I'm gonna need more forks.

Crazy56U: (comes back) So, how much did I mi- what.

My story begin with a 16 year old boy the boy name is David and I have crap live nobody want to be friend and the school year wasn't best at the time after was over I walked home when I got home my uncle came over hi David how was your day?

Sigma: ...Oh. This is gonna be one of those days, isn't it.

Something: Where you don't wanna wake up? (flies away for realsies this time)

Maud: You can check-out anytime you want, but you can never leave...

SC276: Already I want to kill someone.

Crazy56U: I... I feel like I made a mistake coming back...

said Uncle not good uncle said David Uncle said oh yeah your Aunt want to send is to you he give a piece of paper here David said Uncle David look at the piece of paper all it send Dear Princess C I'm writing to this because I learn more about Friendship to my Friends and then it had a list of Names.

Sigma: ...The author must be pregnant, because there ain't a period in sight.

Cola: What is this godforsaken casserole of nonsense?

RJ: "Uncle, shouldn't we give this list back to Mr. Schindler?"

Crazy56U: This is reading like the author did a line of coke and is speaking really fucking fast.

but the piece of paper kinda some of the name are cross out in some of the name: List of Names J..k Ra..B.w D..h .rs.. R. Pi. .e Your favourite student Tiwil..t Spa..ie Ringmaster: Oh, so THAT'S where they all went.

Topher: Gee, I wonder who that could be?

Okay They are kind of weird names oh wait a minute they sound like oh David dinner ready said Uncle coming David said.

Maud: Reminder: A human being wrote this. Someone literally sat down, typed this out, then looked at it and said, "Yeah, this is alright. Posting!"

Crazy56U: I refuse to believe this person is human.

end of chapter 0

Maud: Good to know.

SC276: This entire fic is a fucking zero.

Crazy56U: That was not a chapter. That was three long run-on sentences with no sense of rationality...

Chapter 1 PonyVille?

Maud: Fingers crossed that it has nothing to do with FarmVille.

SC276: Actually, inclusion of FarmVille can only help at this point.

Tophers: That says SO MUCH MORE than any review could say.

After we had dinner Uncle said David I know Life suck

Sigma: Is Life this fic? Because if so, it indeed sucks.

SC276: So, is Uncle like Uncle from Jackie Chan, or...?

Cola: Is this goddamned Flowers for Algernon? What in the actual shit is this?!

Crazy56U: Okay, I never had Life cereal, but it can't be that bad...

but one of the day are not bad Uncle said David said thank Uncle I smile to Uncle ok Uncle I'm going to bed goodnight David said Uncle said yeah goodnight Uncle SC276: OK, author, if you are capable of using the Shift key, you are capable of using periods.

Crazy56U: C'mon, he can't do both, what do you take him for?

when I got upstairs I heard a noise was in my room I check I saw a pink pony after a open the door the pink pony is gone I think to mind self who the hell was pink pony SC276: Who was phone?

Crazy56U: What is life?

want I check to see if steal anything from my room but I found a Muffin? how weird SC276: Yeah, Pinkie's more of a cupcake mare.

Tophers: Muffin button.

Crazy56U: "A 'Muffin'? I thought those were only a myth!!"

ok I got in to bed and gone to sleep today it was a Saturday I was yay a Saturday

SC276: We were boo a fanfic.

Crazy56U: I feel like 5 days passed since the start of this "story". I can't be the only one to feel this way, right?

I walk to the bathroom to have shower and then after did that I got change to my clothes I walk downstairs to see uncle when to work so I think ok tried to find that pink pony before I did I have breakfast.

SC276: There is no way this guy is a native English speaker. We would've hit misspellings by now if that were the case. Who else thinks this guy put it through Google Translate first?

Topher: Only if he put it through vietnamese to german to portugese to mandarin to arabic to swahili to english.

After about hour I found a sign saying PonyVille? I was like OMG I didn't think it was real SC276: Well you're not real.

Topher: None of this is real. ominous music

Crazy56U: God, I wish that were the case...

I ran back and pack stuff in my backpack like food, drink and a weapon medium knife I only use the medium knife if I got my self in trouble.

SC276: It's amazing how many knives show up in all these HiE fanfics. Is it on the cliché list yet?

Ringmaster: He would've got the large, but the medium came with a free side of fries.

Topher: If you go super size you get a greatsword.

Crazy56U: When in doubt, cut a bitch.

I wrote a letter to Uncle I left it on the kitchen table so I think I leave 9:00 PM after time were bye I was at the place with the sign saying PonyVille and then I see the pink pony and rainbow pony so I think oh shhhh to my self after they leave the portal they normally walk out of the place. how the Hell I'm going to get in there with out getting caught?ah the piece of paper ok the name um it kinda hard steel. oh they are back with the pink pony Muffin? he my change only had 10 second to get in the portal here I go end of chapter 1

SC276: ...OK, I've completely lost track of the plot. Something about Pinkie and Rainbow and... signs or something? Augh, it can't be a seven-year-old that wrote it, half the words would be misspelled then.

Ringmaster: What about a 6-year-old with a really good spellcheck program?

SC276: Fanfic writers, use spellcheck? Have you seen the last fic?

Ringmaster: ...Point taken.

Cola: Wait! I understand now. I understand. This was the rough draft of the previous fic. That's the only explanation I'm willing to live with, because if two different people can write shit this fucking incoherent then no, no, the world is not a place I'm willing to live any more.

Crazy56U: All I know is that I'm lost, scared, and confused. Mostly scared.

Chapter 2 Into the Portal

SC276: I'd rather go Out of the Woods.

Cola: I'd rather go play Portal.

Topher: I'd rather go fornicate with a cactus.

Crazy56U: I'm all in favor for crying myself to sleep...

when I enter the portal was in a forest but in was morning? I said to myself who the hell could it be morning

SC276: The Queen of Day?

Crazy56U: Okay, you don't believe muffins exist and now you don't know how day and night work?

ok first tried to go north but I find a enemy near me so I got out my knife the enemy look like cinema

SC276: So, it looks like a movie monster?

Ringmaster: No, it's a giant evil movie theater, where the only showings are of The Room and Birdemic II.

Topher: Not gonna lie, that sounds like fun. Bring your own spoons and I'll spring for popcorn!

Crazy56U: Someone call the CinemaSins guy!

ouch huh what hit me I was knock out for about 3 hour I woke up in a hospital

SC276: Knocked out in the forest, wake up in the hospital? I'm pretty sure the most likely explanation is that he's having a dying fever dream.

Crazy56U: ...is this turning into "Jacob's Ladder"?

is he going to wake now? hey are you waking up I look around and found to 2 ponies talking to me?

SC276: OK, author, if you are capable of using the Shift key, you are capable of using quotation marks.

Cola: The questions asked here are entrancing and compelling! Is he going to wake now? Are you waking up? I look around and found to 2 ponies talking to me?

Crazy56U: The narration has dissociative identity disorder.

I'm crazy but are pony talking to me said David the 2 ponies response no your were surprise but any how doe you get to Equestia wait a minute forget to ask your name what your name said one of the pony I'm name is David said David SC276: (bad redneck impression) Mah name is stupid said stupid.

I when through a Portal.

SC276: Then came out the orange one.

Topher: A portle meant only for ponees to get into our world so they ca pretend to be non speakers and watch us secretly.

wait where my backpack oh there it is I open the bag a look at the piece of paper and then both the ponies asked me what is that you got in your hand I said a piece of paper

SC276: Here's your sign!

with list of names an said the list of names J..k RainBow D..h .rs.. R. Pinkie p.e Your favourite student Tiwil..t Spa..ie so I read the bit at the back of the piece of paper it said Dear son I'm sorry to leave I should been a better dad I wish I could on back in time to stop the abuse on you son I hope read is because I'm dead Signed Dad SC276: OK wait, pony hit list and then it's suddenly from his dad? W...What? I seriously can't figure out what the fuck is going on here.

Ringmaster: Hold on, abuse? This story just got kinda dark all of a- it's never mentioned again? Great...

Cola: No, wait, I get it now! This is an homage to Kite Runner!

Crazy56U: Oh God, I don't like the implications of that, given what happens in Kite Runner...

I cried in the hospital bed I know Dad I said to myself and then both of the ponies are you alright? David said yes fine sorry I was to my past it sad the doctor came in through the door said to me ah Mr. David you look seem look healthy no illness

SC276: Despite being whacked by an evil movie theater in the middle of the Everfree.

Crazy56U: And despite the way you write.

said the Doctor and David said thank you. Doctor said it time you should going and meet the two Princesses to David I would go tell Princess Celestia and Princess Luna you are in Equestria. David said to himself Princess Celestia? and Princess Luna? Equestria?

SC276: Metal Gear?

Topher: Rosebud?

Crazy56U: (Dean Winchester impersonation) SAMMY?!

End of Chapter 2

Chapter 3 In PonyVille after I left the hospital everypony on at me I ask one pony excuse me where can I find two Princesses

SC276: And he didn't ask this question of the doctor or the two ponies with him, why now?

Crazy56U: Because brain trauma.

the pony said you can find her at Canterlot I said to the pony thanks I said to myself ok where is Canterlot maybe in PonyVille or in the sky or maybe in the near huge mountain I'm confused

SC276: Ain't just you, brother.

Crazy56U: Same.

I started walking down PonyVille I saw the chimera again

Ringmaster: Wait, again? What do you- oh, right, this must have been the "cinema" from before. Autocorrect, away!

SC276: Great, the evil movie theater mutated. Now it's showing Cutthroat Island.

Crazy56U: Well, someone needs to tell it to cut it out. ZING

I shout to the chimera I ran to monster before I got there it gone what the hell?

SC276: That's what we've been asking!

ah damn it wait a hear voice HEY GET OUT OF THE WAY I look up but it was to late something knock me on the floor

SC276: Please splat, please splat, please splat...

I look around to see a rainbow pony I said to her hey are you alright

SC276: DAMMIT!

she response yeah I ok hey your not around here who are you she Said Dash Said my name is David what your name? rainbow pony said to David my name Rainbow Dash the best Pony in Equestia and the fastest.

Ringmaster: In Equestia. In Equestria, on the other hand, this one set world records for slow- goddamnit he actually got the name right, there goes that joke.

Cola: This is like a Dick and Jane book had a child with My Little Dashie.

Crazy56U: ...is it sad that I just now realized his name is David?

I asked Dash do you know where Canterlot is? she said canterlot is on the side of the huge mountain have yeah bring sleeping under a rock.

SC276: He will be after we drop a boulder on him.

David said sorry I'm new here Dash said to David yeah was only joking she smile to me oh no I'm going to late see ya late David said Dash David said yeah see ya later I guess. She remind me of the PE Teacher good time with him because I like PE said David in His mind

SC276: Great, we're getting God's perspective now.

Cola: There is no god, SC. There is no fucking god. We are reading the proof.

Crazy56U: God is dead, and the author has killed him.

ok first I would some of my food I open the bag and take out my sandwich ah cheese and ham sandwich ah my favourite sandwich

SC276: Sandwich sandwich sandwich, sandwich sandwich? Sandwich, sandwich!

Crazy56U: BURGER

after ate my a bit of my sandwich to find the path to get to the mountain

RJ: Watch out for snakes!

Topher: Isn't this how Lord of the Rings started?

Crazy56U: No, I think this is how "It's a Dangerous Business" started...

end of Chatper 3

Chatper 4 Discord?

SC276: No wait, it's just the lamp. False alarm.

Crazy56U: Discord caused this story to exist. That is the only logical explanation.

after leaving PonyVille I walk north to the location I near to get to ok I found the chimera well well who I got here?

SC276: Tickets are now $9.45.

Ringmaster: And now all it's showing is Manos: The Hands of Fate... unriffed.

Crazy56U: (begins sobbing openly)

you boy what your name

SC276: What you say?

Said chimera my name is David and your name my name is Discord the ruler of Chao SC276: So Equestria is a Chao garden, apparently?

Ringmaster: Goddamnit, am I going to have to waste another ten hours trying to create the perfect racer again?

Crazy56U: And then Sonic rushed in and bicycle-kicked Discord in the face.

I when I look you David I think should be Evil with me David said sorry Discord I don't want to be Evil Discord response back to David one day you will be Evil join me to make this world into Chao SC276: Join me and together, we will bring adorable water pets to the galaxy.

Ringmaster: Hell, it's probably a more noble goal than... whatever David's trying to do.

Crazy56U: THERE'S AN "S" IN CHAOS, YOU IDIOT

somepony was in the air HEY DAVID Rainbow Dash shouted Discord said I will see you again David and then Discord Teleport away Hi David how are you said Rainbow Dash SC276: Having missed the discussion with the visible mishmash of parts that... used to be a movie theater?

Cola: That makes as much sense as anything else here.

Crazy56U: That is to say none at all.

David response back I fine I'm going the right way? said David Rainbow Dash response to David I think your going the wrong I can't remember said Rainbow Dash with a sad face on her David SC276: I don't want to know which part of the body is the David.

Crazy56U: My guess? The ass. ZING said hey Dash don't be sad ok I smile to Dash and then rainbow dash kiss me on the cheek then said to me I love you SC276: You've literally known each other for two minutes, tops.

Topher: Disney movies are telling you to take it slow!

Crazy56U: It's been two minutes, it feels like days... My sense of time is gone now...

and she said see ya again ok and she smile back at me of I almost forget you should ask Twilight Sparkle ok response back to Dash where can I find Twilight and Dash response back in the huge Tree it in PonyVille SC276: First go see the princesses because reasons, then go see Twilight because reasons. And it's a good thing you specified Twilight Sparkle, or otherwise he would've thought to walk into Discord.

and then Dash said see ya later right again? David said yeah ok see ya later Rainbow fly away oh ok I need to find this huge Tree? he said to himself Uncle I wish you was here I'm making Friends in Equestia SC276: Three minutes is not friendship.

Topher: That's not even acquaintances. That's...About as strong a relationship as you get from a mcdonald's cashier. You don't talk, you just exchange th bare minimum of information, and you're done.

end of chapter 4

Chatper 5 Meeting Twilight

SC276: Breaking Dawn.

Topher: NO! BAD SC! GO STAND IN THE CORNER, AND THINK ABOUT WHAT YOU'VE DONE!

Crazy56U: Honest to God, a crossover with Twilight would fix this mess, that's how far we've gone...

I started to turn back to go back in Ponyville wait what the time David said he open the bag and got is phone to see what the time is 5:56 Pm ok I got time to get there SC276: Assuming time works the same here as it does on Earth, which is a totally reasonable thing to assume.

Ringmaster: Even if it does, what's saying Ponyville isn't in a completely different timezone? Could be 1AM the next day for all he knows.

Topher: Actually, with the magically controlled sun and moon, everything's kinda screwy.

I search to find the place and suddenly somepony jump on to David AHHHHHHH! said David SC276: For once, a reasonable reaction.

pony said I'm sorry to make you jump Hi my name Pinkie Pie what your name Pinkie pie said David response my name is David ouch I think a got leg cramp ah ah ah ah ah SC276: Ah ah ah-ah-ah. Ah-ah ah-ah-ah. Ah-ah ah-ah-ah. It's something bad romance.

Ringmaster: Ten! Ten IQ points lost from reading this fic, ah ah ah!

Crazy56U: Great, on top of everything else, the story is skipping...

it hurt Pinkie Pie said I'm sorry David response I only need to stretch my leg oh Pinkie Pie do you know where Twilight um home is.

SC276: You already know where it is, it's the giant-ass tree!

Crazy56U: David can't be bothered to remember things.

Pinkie Pie said to David I show where she live David said thank you after we walk to Twilight suddenly Pinkie Pie ask me this do you have a pony who love you yet? David said what?

SC276: Yeah, pretty much what we're asking.

Pinkie why are you asking me this I want to know Pinkie smile at David I see ya later David said to himself what strange pony oh well SC276: Privacy-invading questions are a very common occurrence these days.

Topher: Which reminds me, what was the strangest sex act you've ever participated in? Are you a virgin? If you're a virgin, what's the strangest porn you've fapped to?

David knock on the door no response hello anybody in there I knock again on the door and finally someone answer ah a dragon

SC276: You can feel the concern with the story's complete lack of exclamation points.

Crazy56U: DULL SURPRISE!

please don't burn me dragon response it fine I'm not a bad dragon

Ringmaster: Ah, phew, we averted the giant dildoes.

Crazy56U: ...yep, that image is now in my brain. (pulls out power drill) how are you anywhere?

SC276: Now's not the time to get philosophical.

I response I'm a human and My name is David and what your name Dragon David said Spike Response with the name is Spike ok so what do you want Spike said to David response SC276: Stimulus, response. Stimulus, response!

Cola: I don't want any more stimuli!

I want to see Twilight Spike said well come in I go get her. David to himself really huge tree with a library this town is getting weirder SC276: No, that's just the lack of definition.

hi my name is Twilight Sparkle and you want to see the two princesses Twilight said to David how did you know? I will write to princess Celestia tomorrow let go to sleep Twilight said David do you want to sleep with here tonight Spike said David response ok then I will then after I fell to sleep

SC276: Don't bother waking up.

I start to think of my Dad to be alive (in the dream) dad teach me your fighting move please said David are you ready son

SC276: ARE YOU READY, KIDS?!

Crazy56U: NO.

Said Dad David response with I'm READY Dad teach me the move of being a Survival and Stealthy Soldier

SC276: clears the desk for twow's facedesk

Ringmaster: It's a single move, but he had issues remembering that you had to actually PRESS the button instead of just thinking about it.

Dad said you learn quick Son David said Thank Dad hug Dad David David DAVID!

SC276: And suddenly one of those Disney wakeups.

Crazy56U: Marsha, Marsha, Marsha! (cue Brady Bunch theme) huh David open his eyes opps sorry Twilight said but David it time to get up what time is it David said Twilight response it 5:00 Am SC276: Bitch, I don't get up that early, I'm gonna back to sleep. Zzzzz...

come let get ready to go meet Princess Celestia A vehicle is coming to pick you and me up Twilight said to David said to back to Twilight SC276: said to back to David said to back to Twilight said to back to David said to back to Twilig- 15-love.

ok David to himself now finally can meet Princess Celestia and tell her about Discord I hope Uncle Is fine and Aunt to End Of Chatper 5.

SC276: So, you hope the aunt's fine at the end of the chapter that just ended? You really don't care that much about her then.

Chatper 6 Dad?

RJ: Chief?

Crazy56U: End?

after not very long travel to canterlot David and Twilight enter the Castle Celestia need tell you something Twilight said to Celestia response ah hello Twilight want do you need my favourite student and she said who is this Twilight? David response my name is David Princess Celestia and I need to tell you something Discord is back Celestia response Oh no

SC276: Oh noes!

Topher: I noticed that a statue was missing from the garden, didn't think anything of it! Also, there were some yaks doing the macarena and speaking in swahili as they beat me over the head with lollipops made of bowler hats, but I didn't think DISCORD was involved!

Crazy56U: DULL SURPRISE!

Twilight go and get your friends and the elements of Harmony now Hurry

SC276: Hurry, hurry, hurry, step right up to the greatest carnival game the world has ever seen!

Topher: Sadly, we don't have time for a FlimFlam bros. style musical number.

Crazy56U: Yet another let down in my life...

Twilight response ok Princess come David we must hurry David said ok then 35 minute later

SC276: That is a very specific number.

Crazy56U: They took a bathroom break.

ok Discord said he going to be at the Garden labyrinth 6 ponies said ok hahahaha welcome everypony and David SC276: And Zoidberg.

Cola: ZOIIIIIIIIIIIDBERRRRRRRRRRRG

Crazy56U: And thus, this became the season 2 premiere again. (headdesk)

Discord here are the rules no Wing and no magic now good luck said Discord and then teleport away into the meddle of the maze SC276: Oh my god, right in the middle of the episode. As if this wasn't tough enough to swallow as it is.

Topher: I didn't think it was possible, but we have found a return of harmony ripoff that is worse than "Discord."

ok let do it and suddenly split into 7 ways in the maze ah what the ouch David said

SC276: What the what?

Cola: Okay! Let do it!

well walk deeply into the maze and I found David said Dad? what are you doing here

SC276: "Hell with the other dimension shit, you're supposed to be dead!"

Dad response come Son test your Skill on me David said wait a minute ok let go then after 10 minute I fight my Dad and I suddenly kill him

SC276: And now Luke's going over to the dark side.

Crazy56U: How do you kill a ghost?!

Dad said Well done son I meant David... David said Dad I'm sorry and then David starting to cried and suddenly Dad spirit to fade away and the maze start to open up I saw Discord I went to him

SC276: "Ooh, it's the film about the haunted lighthouse!"

ah David said Discord I didn't think you had it you David response that it Discord I'm going to kill you are you? Said Discord a smile on him so be it came then David to try to get to Discord but he to fast what the hell? David ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh fell on the ground and look beside and Said blood I'm I going to die?

SC276: He wasn't smiling, there was a smile painted on his stomach.

Ringmaster: "Yes you idiot, you just tried to attack the spirit of chaos with... actually I'm not even sure what you used."

SC276: The knife he brought here, most likely.

Cola: His thoughts? His toxic, nonsensical thoughts?

Crazy56U: Wait, David's dying?suddenly, this just got better.

I can't I won't

SC276: I think I can't, I think I can't...

Crazy56U: Oh, stop being a baby and just die.

I try to get a up Discord

SC276: Time to up Discord to Super Chaos mode!

Ringmaster: They needed to get the Emeralds three times for that.

Crazy56U: There are no 1-Ups in the garden, David, sorry.

your still alive I impressed Discord! Said Twilight why doe you do that huh David! all the ponies said that David wake up wake up wake up oh no please don't die

SC276: Please do die!

Crazy56U: Do us all a favor.

all ponies cried David said to himself where I'm I Haven

SC276: That could be any number of places, including the Herp Haven reptile spa from Magic School Bus or... dammit, I know there's another one but it slipped my mind while I was typing.

Dad son you should not be here yet so son wake up Dad gave him Dad light to wake up and suddenly David feel weird SC276: I feel weird too, but I think that's my brain eating itself.

Ringmaster: ...Dad light?

Cola: DAD GAVE HIM DAD LIGHT! IT WAS SUPER EFFECTIVE!

Crazy56U: I think this story is giving me an aneurysm...

like Dad but it David please wake up huh David said what happen we beat Discord Ringmaster: All thanks to the power of... Dad light. The fuck does that even mean?

Cola: It means he's getting all the great Dad flavor with a third of the calories!

Crazy56U: It's a flashlight in the shape of David's dad. Duh!

are you ok said all Ponies David response I thank you and hug all of the ponies SC276: Hug ALL the ponies!

oh I know what would cheer you up David a PARTY! said Pinkie Pie David response Yep David smile oh I'm sorry I haven't meet you three yet SC276: The plot went by too quickly for proper introductions. Or even a proper climax.

Ringmaster: It's probably best that this story doesn't have any sort of climax at all, honestly.

Cola: Thanks. Now I'm imagining a sex scene built of this mad babble narrative.

Topher: I think if this author tried to write sex between himself and one of the mane six it would come across as either gay sex or masturbation.

I'm AppleJack and I'm FlutterShy and I'm Rarity David response nice to meet you ok let have the party after we have the party for David said to all of the ponies oh I have go back from the portal to go back to Earth where I should be I kissed all of the ponies before I when through the portal I wrote a letter here what I wrote Dear Twilight I have to leave from the portal in evergreen forest now SC276: Not sure whether typo or Everfree stays green in winter...

Crazy56U: The answer is yes.

I'm going to miss you guys one of there I will come to see you again from David James Groove aka Ringmaster: Alright, I've whited out the next two words of the story because they're easily the most ridiculous part of the entire thing. Try to decipher what he's about to call himself from what you've read of the fic so far, then highlight them when you think you have a guess. You're probably going to be wrong.

Fallen Prime: I'm not gonna participate because I cheated.

SC276: Alright, let's see... I assume it's going to be like pony naming conventions, so... Badass McGillicutty or something? I dunno. The guy doesn't have any personality to speak of.

Cola: Dad light? Gibbering moron? Mister Badass?

Crazy56U: Well, that can't be possible. There's no way the name can be that-

(< Highlight here)

SC276: SPITS OUT ORANGE JUICE WHAT THE WHAT?!

RJ: !

Ringmaster: A good amount of the reason I put this fic up here was just so I could show you all... that.

SC276: THE GUY'S THE COMPLETE OPPOSITE! HE DOES NOTHING OR BADASS! HE SPENT THE FINAL BATTLE KNOCKED OUT, FOR CHRIST'S SAKE!!

Cola: You. Are. Fuck. Ing. Shit. Ting. Me.

Topher: This tweest brought to you by M. Night Shamallamadingdong.

Crazy56U: (in pain)this is why we can't have nice things...

I put the litter near her bed and then I go into the portal after I come through the other side of the portal and I go home after I get inside home

SC276: This and that happened, and three months passed...

Uncle ask son where have you been I was worried David response Uncle I gone to this place the call Equestia Uncle said ok son

SC276: "A universe from a fictional TV show exists? Forget that, the playoffs are today!"

Crazy56U: Uncle made a mental note to send David to an insane asylum tomorrow.

and then smile at me David said to Uncle I'm going to bed goodnight Uncle after I got upside and just when to sleep without changing clothes SC276: Yeah, sleep covered in pony dust, that's great.

Topher: Little did he know, he accidentally brought back the deadly virus Buttmarkus Additivum. The human race was soon wiped out, overrun by shambling horde of infected. The poor souls swept up by the disease were left as mad shadows of their former selves, covered in colorful, festering boils and rashes that were inexplicably shaped like various everyday objects.

David said to himself what weird days I have ok first going the army so I have nothing much to do.

SC276: It's always the army with pony fics, isn't it?

Crazy56U: ...you're seriously sticking with the thing, aren't you...

The End I hope you guys and girls enjoy I tell me what should like if I'm going make another FanFiction.

Ringmaster: And thankfully, he never did.

SC276: Oh I don't even know where to start with this idiot. Actually, I do: USE MORE THAN ONE PARAGRAPH PER CHAPTER!!

Sigma: ...Yeah, I tried, but I had nothing for that second fic. Literally nothing except one or two quips.

Ringmaster: See you all next week when we return with... oh fuck, more Chat?

Cola: No. NO. NO!

SC276: Look at it this way: proper typesmanship.

Ringmaster: But on the other... horse supremacism.

SC276: After these fics, "proper typesmanship" wins out.

Ringmaster: We'll see about that, won't we... next time.

Crazy56U: ...I feel dead inside now.
