

How does a jungle differ from a rainforest?

Why are jungles incredibly biodiverse? What factors contribute to this biodiversity?

What is the canopy layer? How does it contribute to the jungle ecosystem?

What is the understory? What kind of life thrives in this layer?

What is the forest floor like? What role does it play in the jungle ecosystem?

What are the main threats to jungles? How can we protect these vital ecosystems?

How have indigenous peoples lived in and with jungles?

What knowledge and wisdom do they possess?

What are the challenges and rewards of exploring jungles? What new discoveries can be made?

How do jungles contribute to global climate regulation?

What is their role in carbon sequestration?

What are the potential impacts of climate change and human activity on jungles? How can we ensure the survival of these vital ecosystems?