

SI - quick question

I recently started indoor climbing and was researching how I can improve when I came across your video Elite Climber Anna Hazelnutt Coaches Me for a Day - 10 Valuable Tips!

It was great to see you collaborating with a very experienced climber, Anna, and she taught me and I'm sure many other viewers how she tackles slabs by utilising step-through and smearing on slabs.

This led me to your website and I noticed you have an email subscription page.

I offer email management services which include:

- Writing welcome sequences
- Information emails (for example, improving grip strength)
- Taking over the email so I can regularly interact with people on your list

I created an email for your list to get them excited about your previous video Elite Climber Anna Hazelnutt Coaches Me for a Day - 10 Valuable Tips! considered. If you would like to hear more about this feel free to ask.

Or

If you have a video in progress I would be happy to write an email for you before its release as a free gift from me.

If you would be interested in working together just reply to this email and I would be happy to answer any questions.

PS. I also noticed you have a lot of room to expand your business in ways you might not have Thanks,
Harvey
