

Bull and Andrew chilled on the main lawn of the UCLA campus and talked about what to do about their studies and their next football game. The weather was sunny and the grass was lush and green.

“Damn I hate these college rules that athletes like us need a certain college score to be allowed to play on the field. You know what we need? A simple class with easy to get grades that just you, me and Charles could join just so we secured our grades again.”

“You know what, that is a great idea and I know just how to get it. The dean of UCLA owes me a favor for sending over a couple of asian college sluts to his latest poker game and I think this is the perfect opportunity for him to pay back!”

“He should hire a new sexy professor for us and we then pair her up with the two horniest asian slut on campus for teacher assistants!”

Two weeks later.

Bull was in his frat room on the top floor of the Chi Alpha Delta fraternity. As the president of the frat Bull had his own large room. (More on how Bull joined the fraternity in the story ‘Bull joins the asian sorority’). He was not alone, with him was a cute asian girl wearing only a tiny white thong.

In her petite hands with red nail polish Bulls long 26cm cock looked gigantic, even longer than both her hands side by side. The girl was almost an exact copy in appearance of asian pornstar Vina Sky but without any tattoos.

“So sir, explain to me again. You want me to be a teacher assistant to a new professor at campus and together with you help you seduce her as she also gives you and your friends grades to improve your GPA? Is that right?”

“Exactly so! I just did a google image search for professors in feminism and selected the most sexy asian professor I could find. Then I had the UCLA dean contact that school and urgently get her on a plane for a recently open position as teacher of Feminism 101 for a couple of failing college athletes. She is french asian and worked before at a university in Paris”

“The Center for the Study of Women is proud to announce its new Director, Marica Hase (Professor, Asian French Studies and Gender Studies). Professor Hase has previously served as the CSW Advisory Committee Chair (2016-2019) and Associate Director (2019-2020). She earned her PhD in Literature at Paris University and her MA in Asian French Studies at CSW. Her research focuses on women of color, feminism as an epistemological critique of and alternative to Western liberal humanism and capital, particularly as they manifest as contemporary neoliberalism. CSW is excited to welcome her as Director, and we are confident that she will uphold the center’s mission to create a world where education and scholarship are tools for social justice feminism. Congratulations!”

“Oh she seems smart, are you sure you can turn her into a cock-loving slut just like me and the other girls at our frat house?”

“I have no doubt, these feminist ideals are just a front. Every girl craves the cock if you just break her first. I just need to pair her up with the two horniest asian slut on campus for teacher assistants and that is when you come in, Vina. Just be ready for her when she arrives with the bus from the airport. We have told her that when she arrives we have arranged living at the same frat apartment as her TA while more permanent living finishes. So you two will share a room.”

Two hours later Bull was at his desk in front of an ultra wide monitor with a camera view of Vina Skys room. They had set up several hidden HD cameras. Bull had also told Vina to call him on her phone so he could hear everything and keep checking her phone for whenever he sent messages to her.

Vina was not in her room, probably at the entrance to the frat house ready to greet Marica. He could hear the heavy doors opening and a woman with a french accent speaking softly on the phone.

“Hello? I am looking for Vina Sky? My name is Marica Hase and I am here as a guest professor in feminism”.

“Welcome! I am Vina, and I will be your roommate and one of your teacher assistants. You look even more pretty than in your photo! Leave your luggage here and let one of my friends get your suitcase and we will go upstairs to our room. Did your planetrip go well?”

“Thank you, eh yes very well I just landed and then took bus 159 from the airport and then a short walk just like the instructions said it was no problem but I am a bit tired and sleepy”.

Andrew could hear the girls continuing chatting and footsteps walking up some stairs. Soon on his monitor he got several views of the door to the small room opening.

In walked first Vina Sky wearing a short jeans skirt and a blue halter top. Behind her came the older professor but even though Bull knew she was 10 years older than Vina she looked so young that they could have been sisters.

Marica Hase was dressed in comfortable clothes, a white top and black yoga pants that were tight enough to show off her sexy round ass and legs. She started removing her shoes.

“Oh how cute, I have heard that you usually take off your shoes indoors in Europe. Excellent you can do that here too. You have very pretty legs Marica. You should sleep and get ready for tomorrow, that is your bed over there. If you want you can take a shower first.”

“Oh thanks, yes I think I will just do that, can I borrow a towel from you please?”

“Of course you can change here in our room while I use the bathroom and I will let you know when your suitcase has been carried up with all your clothes”.

Bull continued watching as Marica took off all her clothes, wrapped herself in a large purple towel and got in the bathroom when Vina was done. On the hidden cameras in the bathroom he could watch how Marica showered her long black hair and rubbed soap over her sexy body and pretty breasts. She had a really great sexy ass and Bull could feel his cock getting harder.

Bull sent a message to Vina: Well done you slut, now go to part 2 of our plan and steal all her clothes haha.

In the other room he could see Vina quickly gathering Marica's clothes, putting them in a plastic bag and hiding them under her bed. Marica finished her shower and once again dried herself and walked out now with her hair wrapped in a smaller towel.

“Hey Marica, hope you had a nice shower. I have some bad news, there was a mixup with your bag and a girl leaving with a bag that looked just the same got yours by mistake and has left for the airport with her phone shut off. The comfy clothes you wore before I had already put in the washing machine downstairs because I wanted to be nice to you.”

“But don't worry I have already thought about a solution. You and I are the same size and I love clothes so I am sure there are plenty of pretty outfits you could borrow for me when you stay here in the USA!”

“Okay sure I guess that is true can I just borrow some panties to sleep in, please?”

Bull watched as Vina pointed Marica to her panties drawer and she browsed through dozens of different undergarments, the next more skimpy and tiny than the next. In the drawer was also a variation of sex toys, vibrators, dildos and butt plugs.

“You don't have anything more... modest maybe?” Marica asked while holding a bright pink tiny g string between her fingers. She still tried her best to pretend she didn't see the sex toys in front of her.

“No this is the style I like, is it bad to like to dress sexy according to feminism?” Vina looked at Marica with a cute innocent smile.

“No not bad, every girl should wear what they feel like but I just... well maybe this is okay I just never have worn anything like it before”. Marica had found a pair of purple lace panties that were wider but semi see through still showed off most of her cheeks.

“Good. There is no time for shopping, your first class is already tomorrow so let's pick out what your outfit is for you, I have just the thing that will just have the students in your class drooling over your body.”

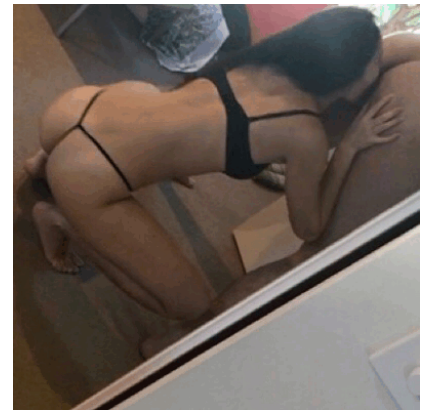

Bull watched on the screen Vina take out a short pencil skirt, stockings, garter belt, 12cm heels and a tight button up shirt. Marica looked at the clothes in front of her with skepticism.

“Don't worry with this black blazer, it will cover you nicely. Also I have learned that you can own what people think of you. You know when I started here at UCLA after a few weeks everyone called me rusty trombone-girl and imitated playing the trombone when they saw me. Which at first irritated me.”

“Trombone? Like the instrument? Why?”

“Well I see myself like very submissive and does what the boys I fuck whatever they say and this was this guy when we were fooling around in his room as he bent forward and that told me to get on my knees and behind him and lick his ass. And he has this amazing long white cock that I instinctively reached around his front and jerked with both my hands the same time I licked his ass. Well maybe I shouldn't because then I turned and saw his friends in the room were laughing and recording me with their phone. But he told me to not stop so I continued licking.”

“Yeah so anyway the next day everyone at UCLA had seen the video of me just wearing a gstring squatting, jerking and licking the guys ass and people pretended to be playing the trombone when they saw me laughing which embarrassed me at first. But then I thought I had to own what I did and challenge anyone making fun of me. So I started going up to the people laughing offering them a rusty trombone, even the girls. And after a few weeks people respected that and the laughing ended”.

“Oh I see... I think you live a very different life than me and I am not sure how this falls under the feminist principles I teach and follow.”

“Okay I am looking forward to your class tomorrow but I am going to masturbate and then sleep now, you can borrow my favorite vibrator and I will settle for my backup. Good night Marica.”

Without waiting for a reply Vina grabbed a large purple smart wand vibrator and threw a pink clitoris sucker next to Marica on her bed.

It was difficult to see if Marica Hase actually was curious and used it later but she had it under her blankets and seemed to close her eyes moaning before she slept. Vina on the other hand slept naked and gave him a great show masturbating in front of one of the hidden cameras. Bull really looked forward to tomorrow.

The next day at 10 o'clock Bull, Andrew and their friend Charles were in one the smaller lecture rooms at UCLA university. It was a pretty standard classroom with roughly thirty or so student desks and a teacher desk in the front with two large whiteboards and a projector screen.

Bull looked over at his two friends that were spread out in the classroom watching porn on their phones. Andrew looked up smiling.

“So is our teacher gonna show up soon? I am still not sure your great plan to seduce and humiliate our feminism professor will work you know...”

Bull just grinned back at him and spun a football that he usually had with him even to classes. All the three boys were wearing their football jerseys and gray sweatpants.

“Don't you worry I just got a message they are here any minute now. All asian girls are natural sluts for white cock and sexy professor Marica is no exception I am sure. I also have paired her up with my two favorite sluts Vina and Cindy Starfall, the two most cockhungry sluts on campus. Marica doesn't stand a chance!”

As Bull said that the door opened and in came first Vina Sky and Cindy Starfall. The classroom filled with clicking sound from their 15 cm black stripper shoes. For clothes they had opted for matching schoolgirl outfits, plaited short skirts, thigh high stockings and white shirts buttoned down to show that they were not wearing any bras.

They had both put up their hair in double pigtails tied with ribbons in colors matching their schoolgirl skirts.

They winked and smiled at the three boys in class Cindy twirling her hair and stepped aside and let the professor come in.

Marcia Hase also entered on high heels trying to look confident as she slowly walked up to the front of the class. She was wearing the outfit she got yesterday with the pencil skirt very tight down past her knees showing off her sexy body and making her only be able to take short feminine steps. Bull felt his long cock growing in his pants.

Under her knees where her short skirt ended she wore black stocking down to her black heels. The skirt she was wearing had two buttons missing, making Marcia's large breast show of a lot of cleavage. Marcia saw the boys were looking at her tits and pulled on her skirt to try to cover herself a little but without the buttons missing it was no use. She cleared her throat and took a confident pose with one hand to her side.

“Good morning students and welcome to Feminism 101. I understand this is a special arrangement to give you three a new chance to improve your grades so you can continue playing college football and it is my hope that you with a lot of effort will learn enough of feminism to pass this class. Yes?”

“Good morning my professor, great to see you in real life and not just on a screen you look even more hot than your photo! My name is Bull, you may call me Bull or Sir.”

“Good morning Bull. I believe that we should keep this professional and you should keep calling me professor Hase. Did you have a question?”

“Exactly my cute little professor we are more into practical demonstrations and videos also we are not even sure what this feminism is.” Bull looked over to Vina giving her the signal.

Vina was next to professor Marica and had now sat up on the teachers desk, her long asian legs crossed dangling from the desk.

“Yes, that sounds a great way to start, don't you think so Marica? Let's list some things that interest you guys and then Marica can tell you the feminist take on those things!”

“Oh well yes I assume it is a good idea to use the students' prior knowledge and interests.” Marica sounded unsure as to where this was going and looked for a way to get back to her lesson plan.

“That sounds like something I as your TA can help you with! Do you want to start?” Vina jumped down from the desk and walked over to the whiteboard with a green pen.

“Sure!” Vina wrote it down on the board. “How about you guys?” Vina looked over to Bull first.

“Well I think we can start with Blowjobs. Those are great but I wonder if a feminist likes them?” Bull smirked at Marica that felt herself blushing.

Vina giggled and wrote down Blowjob with large letters on the board and then looked to Andrew.

Marica looked confused at Vina shaking her ass at the horny guys in the classroom as she started writing.

“What is... c-cum swap?” Marica seemed to realize immediately that this was probably a trap. Cindy from back of the room answered immediately with a loud happy voice.

“Oh professor it is when the guy fills your mouth with sperm and you go over to your girlfriend and let her have the delicious cum in her mouth and let it go back and forth making out until you both swallow sir!”

Marica looked with disgust and... interest? at Cindy Starfall and saw that Vina Sky next to her slowly licked around her lips and winked at the guys finally looking over at Charles. Charles put down his phone he was watching.

“Oh sure I guess we could analyze some online videos at the end of this course, what is it about?”

“Well it is this white guy who travels around Indonesia and Thailand and other chink countries and picks up hot sluts that he records as he fuck usually first making sure they dress real slutty and tie them up in heavy bondage chains, collars, stocks and ring gags ecetra.”

“I see I guess a feminist theoretically would analyze the power dynamic of the situation in Indonesia, presumably the man pays these girls to do have him do these despicable things to them and that would bring us on the topic of prostitution which is a controversial subject within feminism where some say...”

“Theoretically professor? How about practically, what are your views on prostitution? Would you let us tie you up and fuck your brains out if we paid you? How much would you need? What are your needs? Do you have a boyfriend right now? When was the last time you fucked professor?” Bull held her eyes with his dominant look.

“Wha- no I... I have never... I mean I have been very busy since first graduation and my research and dissertation there has just never been any time for...” Marica blushed her face entirely red.

“You are a virgin?! Well we will see how long that will last here in the US, in my experience most pretty asian sluts are gagging on cock within hours of getting off the plane haha”.

“Well I think you have watched too much porn mr Bull, now let's get back to real life please pay attention.”

“You know nothing about my values. You don't know that I every week host feminist gatherings at the frat where I live.” (For more about the bondage orgies where Bull brutally fucked and humiliated the asian girls at his frat house read Bull and the asian sorority).

“Oh really I apologize Bull I didn't know that side of you.”

For the next hour Marica started up a powerpoint presentation and began the class she had prepared. She walked back and forth in front of the class talking about things like gender equality and feminist icon Simone de Beauvoir. Charles picked up his phone again watching videos in landscape mode and Bull signaled to Cindy to come sit next to him.

As Cindy sat down on the chair to the right of Bull she gave him a cute smile and immediately put her soft hand on his muscular leg. He could feel his cock getting harder in his soft pants now sporting a big tent very visible to Cindy. She didn't need to be told what to do and quickly moved her left hand first stroking his cock over his pants and then grabbing it inside of his pants.

Bull looked over at Cindy that kept her eyes forward on the professor teaching while jerking him as fast as she could. If Marica noticed anything she didn't say anything and apparently decided to ignore that one of her TAs was sitting close together with a student.

Cindy was quite the tease and kept changing speeds, her small hand just covered half his epic white cock. Marica was now talking about gaps in wages and as she turned her back to the class to write down numbers on how much more men earn every year Cindy quickly pulled his pants down with her right hand and bent forward over his lack, getting the tip of his cock in her pretty mouth.

Marica Hase had turned back to see Cindy with her face in Bulls lap but couldn't see much since the student desk was blocking the view. Cindy took her time getting back up first circling the tip with her tongue and then giving it a kiss as she turned back facing the professor licking her lips.

“Oh god, she just dropped her pen professor under my chair. You know what I think we all need a break to release some steam right about now”. Bull felt he badly needed to give Cindy and Vina a hard fucking now.

“But we have only had class for about 30 minutes, well okay fine take a short break I will be back in 15 minutes”. The asian professor left the classroom trying her best not to move her hips in her high heels and closed the door behind her leaving her laptop, presentation, teacher assistants and students in the room.

“Could you just flip a coin for us before you leave, professor? We just need you to help us decide something.” Marica gave a quick puzzled look but flipped a coin from her purse and held up that it ended up tails.

Bull could hear the professor's footsteps outside the classroom door and increased his speed. In front of him was Cindy bent forward over the teachers desk getting fucked by him from behind. He had been fucking her hard for a long time and she was in a deep blissful state caused by his huge white cock but she still responded to his faster thrusts moaning even louder.

On the other side of the professors desk Andrew was fucking Vina her schoolgirl skirt also pulled up getting hammered fast from behind. The two teacher assistants moans mixed together with their heads just next to each other.

Bull grabbed his girls round behind with both his hands moving it a little to the right so that the professor would get a great view of her two TAs getting railed by her students when she opened the door. Professor Marica walked in still wearing her tight suit heels and stockings but stopped shocked with her mouth open.

“Hey professor we just needed release to focus and your TAs were more than happy to help as you can see haha oh oh yeah you take my big white cock you chink slut oh yes.”

“Wha- no that is hardly- I cannot believe-”

“Seeing is believing and I can tell you can’t take your eyes off my cock. I should thank you for flipping the coin to tails I just love fucking these tight bitches. I can feel I am getting close now.”

A few moments later with the professor unable to move he came deep inside of the young girl then pulled out letting his cum drip out of her and onto the desk. Bull used one of the lecture notes on the table to wipe his cock.

The asian professor woke from her trance by Charles walking past her completely naked except for hit white shoes and socks with his cock semi hard pointing straight forward.

“You mean this cock right here? Sure, since you asked so nicely”. Charles turned towards Marica pointing his long white cock at her now not further away that she could have reached out her hand and touched it.

But the fun was over for now and the boys pulled on their pants and Cindy and Vina put on their tops half covering their petite boobs.

Professor Hase seemed to have decided that her best way forward was to pretend that what she had just seen in her classroom never happened. A big mistake.

While she continued with her notes on how genders are portrayed in the media Vina used one of the whiteboard pens and wrote ‘We just had sex here, it’s good!’ causing the classroom to burst out in laughter. Andrew had a wicked smile on his face

“Please could we focus? I am trying to teach you all I know about feminism”. Marica had her hands on each side of her short and tight skirt.

“But professor we can’t possibly take you seriously when you so obviously are lying about yourself. We know that Asians are naturally disposed to be horny sluts always hungry for huge white cocks”. Andrew had a steady voice leaning back in his simple classroom chair still with the evil grin.

"No, no it's not... true". Marica had lowered her hands and bowed down her head a little.

Behind her Vina and Cindy had sneaked up and quickly grabbed her arms while the other reached under her skirt stroking over her purple panties. They giggled and nodded to Andrew.

"Let me instead teach you about the real world, slut." Andrew now slowly walked about to the professor shocked by what her student had just called her.

"You have seen mine when I fucked Cindy so it is only fair for you to show me yours." Andrew pulled first down her skirt and then her underwear to the floor.

"You can't take your eyes off my cock, admit it. Admit you want me to fuck you right here in your own classroom right now." Andrew was now slowly unbuttoning her shirt exposing her pretty tits under the thin fabric. He now had one hand on her back and one gently pinching her nipple.

"What I mean I am surely not- AAAAGGH!" Andrew had just twisted her hard nipple.

"You what me to fuck you right?"

"AAHGHA!! YES! Yes yes oh my god yes!" The professor's eyes were filled with lust as she screamed. Andrew was ready and with one fast motion turned the teacher around, bent her over the desk, pulled on her panties and put the tip of his cock against her wet pussy.

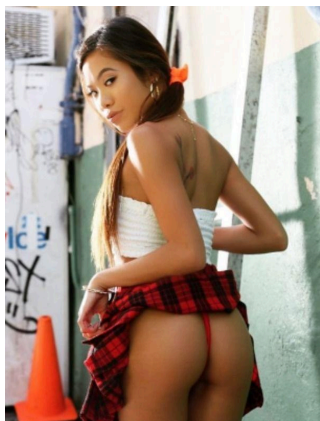

She was so horny now that just being next to it made it open slightly like it had a will of its own.

"I need you to say, say that you want me to fuck you like the little slut you are!"

"Yes fuck me! Fuck me now please I am your little slant eyed slut I will do anything for you! AAggh yes fuck yes!!"

Andrew pushed inside and started fucking Marica against the table. The rest of the class was cheering him on and laughing.

Charles and Bull took out their phones and started recording the action. Soon the rest of the lesson was all three asian girls and white boys taking turns getting fucked.

The next day and the second lesson was scheduled in the afternoon. Andrew and the boys had a great night's sleep with the girls and then after that some morning football practice.

As they entered the classroom the two teacher assistants had on similar clothes as yesterday but this time no shirts, just underwear: a pair of matching red g strings and plaid micro skirts that showed almost all of their butts.

The professor on the other hand had gone through a complete change in outfits. From yesterday's sexy tight but still appropriate outfit and last week's shy feminism scholar to an obvious slut. Marica's 12cm heels had been upgraded to 18cm stripper heels and she was completely naked.

But the most surprising difference for the once so conservative teacher professor was that her hands were tied in pink handcuffs and a matching ball gag was in her mouth making her unable to speak.

The three asian girls walked up to the front of the classroom with three white boys laughing and whistling. Vina took a step forward and began talking.

“Since our new feminism professor is in a situation where it is a bit ... problematic for her to speak I will continue this lecture and Marica here will just point to relevant parts to the updated powerpoint presentation.”

Vina used a remote to turn on the projector and plugged in the professor laptop and started the presentation. It was a continuation of the topic of portrayal of women in media for example movies and TV-shows. But the slide had almost no text now, only photos.

“In movies there are almost only female actors of age 20 to 30 years old compared to men who can be of all ages...” Vina showed a slide of various famous actresses.

“Even when a character is supposed to be much older the actress is usually a very attractive woman in her early 30s. The women are also selected by male directors who only select the most attractive actresses and cast them in sexy outfits.”

The slide now showed different famous actresses in very sexy revealing dresses.

“Thank you dear. You can now walk among the class as I continue and see if anyone has any questions for us. is that okay?”

She began walking in her high heels down the classroom moving her hips sexily. Cindy at the same time took out what looked like a small purple remote from the bag and gave it to Bull.

“Hey Marica, you know that little egg-shaped present you asked about before we pushed inside of you? Well we didn't tell the whole truth, it is actually a remote controlled vibrator!”

Bull pointed the remote at the professor and pressed the medium setting immediately causing her to almost lose her balance in her step.

“MHHHfff! Oh my ghaddff gnoff!!” Marica's hands went down to her bald pussy but she was now within reach from Andrew sitting in his desk next to her reaching out and smacking her ass.

“Oh no, no touching that stays inside of you when you teach from now on. I think you will soon imagine how humiliating it would be to be forced to orgasm in your own classroom haha!”

The lesson contained like this with the two teacher assistants handling the presentation and Marica walking around the classroom.

The boys Andrew, Bull and Charles took turns groping the sexy teacher asking her to come close to check if some note they made was correct and sometimes feeling her boobs, ass or even sometimes fingering her clitoris.

The attention and the vibrating egg inside of her now on the highest speed soon was too much for her and leaned forward over one of the desks soon unable to walk very close to orgasm.

On Andrews signal Vina and Cindy quickly dropped their skirts and underwear and got on their knees in front of and behind their professor Marica. Before she noticed them in her horny hase they had crawled forward and started licking her pussy and ass.

Marica instinctively grabbed their two heads pushing them closer to her as she started screaming out her longest most intense orgasm ever.

A couple of weeks later Andrew was in the University's auditorium to attend a special two-day seminar on modern feminism hosted by the university to honor their recently hired feminism professor. Andrew and his classmates had unknown to their professor been part of planning this day to finalize their humiliation and bimbofication of Marica.

The Freud Playhouse auditorium could seat roughly 500 people and was today half full with students, professors with mixed background and gender looking everything from genuinely interested and excited to bored and confused.

The audience clapped politely as on the stage Marica Hase and five other professors walked in and sat down in large arm chairs placed in a semi circle facing the audience.

Marica was the only woman on stage, the other five professors all older white men, some with heavy gray beards, everyone looking very fit in slim tailored formal black suits.

Marica had chosen a very different style to the men instead dressed in a cute and short pink summer dress with a small flower pattern. Her hair was put up in two ponytails with pink ribbons and she wore very tall white wedge sandals.

The outfit left much of her asian skin exposed and would be probably better suited for a day at the beach and a day working at the university. Her face looked shy, smiling and a bit embarrassed.

As Marica sat down in her comfortable chair Andrew could see that she realized that she would have a very difficult time not flashing her underwear to the entire audience in the arm chairs that he had selected just for this purpose. She crossed her legs and pulled on her dress to no avail as it showed all of her leg and just barely covered her butt.

There were some whispers in the audience as they could see that the feminist professor long naked legs and shoulders visible above her strapless summer dress. Two of the white professors openly eyed her up and down with an evil grin.

The large screen behind them changed to display in large font the title 'UCLA feminism seminar presents. A debate on modern feminism in the age of porn and male dominance' together with the names and titles of the professors on stage. Underneath the text 'Debate moderator Andrew Jackson'.

Andrew also walked up on stage to a podium with a microphone to the right of Marica who looked up with some confusion to see one of her students there. The audience clapped again.

"Thank you. My name is Andrew Jackson and I will be moderating this debate on modern feminism, male dominance and porn in honor of the newest professor in the social science department; Professor Marica Hase!" New clapping and even a loud whistle.

"I am here because I have been a student in Marica's classroom for the last couple of days. I have to admit I was very sceptical about feminism when I started, I just thought it was a bunch of ugly women and butch lesbians trying to lie about what everyone knows was just some bullshit! But just look at that hot piece of ass sitting there, she sure is one sexy bitch!"

There was some muttering and confusion as some of the female audience looked surprised at what they just had heard. They looked at the female professor for a reaction but she just sat there with her legs crossed with a horny look on her face.

"Let us start with the first question of the debate. Is the porn industry a great and wonderful business that everyone should support? Let's begin with you sir to my left."

Andrew watched only half listening to the men on the panel talking about how great porn was and that it in no way was harmful for gender or race stereotypes. After a few minutes of silence it looked like Marica was about to speak.

"... and the male role in pornographic movies especially with themes of interracial bondage where white men like myself can use or fantasize to whip Asian women is another great example of this."

Marica cleared her throat and began answering the white professor.

"Well actually sir I would think that maybe-"

"Marica, be quiet. You will wait like a good little girl for your turn. I am sorry to have to do this but as part of my role as moderator for this debate I have the authority to silence people who can not shut up." Andrew smiled and walked over to Marica with a pink ball gag that he quickly locked in place before she could react.

The only female on the feminist debate now sat gagged on stage. Some in the audience looked around at their classmates not sure how to react to this. Some boys in the back were laughing hysterically at the pretty Asian lady dressed as a cute girl with a large bondage ball in her mouth.

After the first lessons with Marica with her teaching naked and the classroom soon turning into a great orgy with the white boys him, Bull and Charles together with the professor and the two pretty teacher assistants. The boys still felt they could probably push Marica Hase into doing pretty much anything.

So the weekend before the feminism debate they sent a message to Marica that they had plans for her the entire weekend to do things that would really push her limits.

The following message told her to take a taxi to an mansion addressed outside the city naked only wearing a long coat and making sure to lube her asshole well. At the gate she should use the password 'Butts and Bunnies' to be let in.

Andrew and his friends often hosted large parties where also older rich former athletes at UCLA would join. The younger athletes brought the sluts and the older shared lots of money. Andrew had also by email invited many of Maricas colleges in secret letting them know that if they were interested in fucking lots of horny asian sluts for two days this was the party to go to.

Andrew, still half listening to the debate, remembered seeing Marica walking into the mansion and up the main staircase completely naked and seeing the orgy already started. There was maybe around 30 or so asian young girls and also 30 or so white men in the house and garden fucking. They were doing it standing up, on the tables, in the sofas and pretty much anywhere they felt like.

She quickly also realized the butts and bunnies theme where all the men had their faces covered by black bunny-masks and all the girls got fucked in their butts.

The all anal orgy lasted for two days and at the end of the 48 hours most of the girls were so fucked they almost had trouble walking some having to crawl out to their waiting taxis. It had been a very rough party with the anonymous white men feeling completely unrestrained to let out all of their most kinkies fantasies. Not only that the asian sluts had to handle it but also that some of the men had no problems recording much of the action on their phones and laughing.

Back at the debate Andrew noticed the male professors hinted at him to continue with the last question to finish the debate. He pressed a button and the screen behind them display the text 'What is best about interracial anal orgies in porn?' and turned to Marica now drooling a little from her gag.

"Marica, next question is something I believe you have personal expertise. Please enlighten us."

"Mhff?"

"Thank you sir. Well I don't know why you would say I am suitable to answer this question but I would assume that fantasies like orgies in porn are mostly harmless although they could I guess cement some gender stereotypes like-..."

Marica fell silent as she saw how casually each of the five male professors took out their bunny masks from inside of the suit jackets. They just put the five masks on their lap smiling and nodding at her. Andrew could see her quick inner monologue; 'They were at my anal orgy, they have seen me naked! They know that I am a slut! Wait, many of them, if not all, have probably fucked me in the ass!'

"You were saying Marica? I think that you should feel safe telling everyone what a true slut you really are. And even better, I can help you show them." With that Andrew pressed the same button again and a video from yesterday's orgy started playing on the big screen.

In the video Marica was clearly shown crawling with cum oozing from her ass laughing and shaking her butt in a sexy way. A passer-by only wearing a bunny mask spanked her behind hard a few times.

“What do you think of that, Marica? Do you want to come with me and my hard white cock or stay here for more debates? What will it be?” Andrew reached out his hand to her.

With that Marica took his large hand and left the auditorium to loud clapping from the audience.
