

The Pythia

Venus is the Dakini Sky Dancer, the Tantric Goddess of Wisdom.

The Dakini is a messenger of spaciousness and a force of truth, presiding over the funeral of self-deception. Wherever we cling, she cuts; whatever we think we can hide, even from ourselves, she reveals. The dakini traditionally appears during transitions: moments between worlds, between life and death, in visions between sleep and waking, in cemeteries and charnel grounds - Wisdom Rising

She is an open Channel for gnosis.

She is ecstatic wonderment, who makes love to the present moment.

AND she is the response to the moment.

She doesn't plan for the future, she arrives in it fully present...

She is the undulating, cyclical, pulsating, current of reality,
and how that is expressed and experienced in our body.

She is wrathful and erotic, compassionate, and heart centered.

She teaches us to take advantage of the elements of this reality.

She is the force of gravity that allows us to feel our body weight, to soften into the earth.

She is sacred and profane, AND the substance that unifies opposites.

She is Paradox. Where you find paradox, you find the HER

She curates her wisdom through living life in a beginner's mind.

She doesn't NEED to KNOW, she needs to experience.

She is embodiment. Divine Immanence. The divine in matter. She sees everything as Holy.

She is immanence itself which means indwelling spirit.

She is riddles, a trickster, full of crazy wisdom.

She is the irrational, disorientation that leads to enlightenment.

She is empty presence.

Any time we are in a state of Savoring, we are embodying Venus.
