

Part 1: Dream Job Advertisement

Create a description of a very nice job by completing information in the table below.

Job Title: Name of Company :
Responsibilities .	Requirements .
Benefits: . Application instructions: .

Part 2: A Friendly Letter

Imagine you work at this company and your best friend just applied for the job. Write a letter to him/her telling what is good about the job, what is not so good, and some predictions you have for him/her. Try to incorporate as many of the vocabulary words and phrases as possible.

Dear ..., I'm so excited you are applying to work at Let me tell you about what you can expect! First of all, the good things! ... Now I'll tell you some things that are not so great about working here. First, ... I'm excited you are going to be my new coworker. Here are some of my predictions for you! I think you will ... Also, ... Talk to you soon, ...	Long hours Paid vacation Pay raises Salary Flexible hours Promotion Overtime Pension plan Discounts Benefits Commute Company car Part-time Full-time	Wages Performance Coworkers Bosses Supervisor Customers Clients Office Environment Skills Learning Knowledge Technology Travel
---	---	---

Speak:

1. What's your dream job and dream employer?
2. What are the requirements?
3. What benefits and perks do you think you will get in that position/company?
4. Do you think you will stay there forever or you will work in several companies?