Listening Scripts - Chapter 2

2.3 Listening Script: Test

Test Narration: Play the mp3 file or have 3 different voices. Speak slowly and clearly because the students aren't experts in English. Repeat to class as needed. It is recommended that you play or dramatize this 3 times.

NARRATOR — Mateo is out on the street when he sees a girl in the park. The girl looks at a book. The girl's family is new to the city. Mateo wants to talk to her. She has a sister in Mateo's class. In Mateo's opinion, the girl in his class is very interesting and pretty. In an instant, Mateo has a plan and goes to her.

MATTHEW — Hello. My name is Mateo. What is your name?

SARITA — My name is Sarita.

MATEO — Sarita, very pleased. Is your family new here?

SARITA — Yes, my family is new here.

MATEO — I live here too. Do you like living here?

SARITA — Yes. I like it because it's hot. But I don't really like it because my friends aren't here.

MATEO — Sorry... Look... I want to talk to you because I have a problem. Your sister is in my class and I need her phone number.

SARITA — Do you need my sister's phone number? It's not possible.

MATEO — Sarita, I was not in class today and your sister is in my class. Can you give me your sister's phone number?

SARITA — It is not possible. Don't you have other friends in the class?

MATEO — You are smart. Look. Your sister is very pretty and I want her phone number because I want to talk to her. Is she looking for new friends? Can you give me the number?

SARITA — Sorry boy. It is not possible to give you my sister's number.

MATEO — Please! I like your sister. Do I buy you a fruit, a chocolate, a Coca-Cola or a hamburger?

NARRATOR — Mateo and Sarita leave the park and go to a restaurant. Mateo buys a hamburger and a Coca-Cola for Sarita. Sarita eats the hamburger very quickly. Then Mateo asks him:

MATEO — Now you give me the number?

SARITA — Sorry. It's not possible.

MATEO — What do you want?

SARITA — Mateo, it is not possible because my sister does not have a telephone. Sorry. Thanks for the hamburger and the Coca-Cola. Goodbye!
