SCRAPS Film Casting (Dan)

SCRAPS* Logline:
In rural 2003 Montana, two closeted teen boys navigate skateboarding, harsh small-town judgment, and a summer of unexpected young love.

Character Description: Dan
Gus's Father Dan (60s) is a kind-hearted woodworker. The wrinkles in his hands show the tenacity and skill of a tireless artisan. He takes his coffee black — his eggs, over easy. He's a simple man who has figured out life's little joys but is growing lonely in his old age. Dan supports Gus as he explores his sexuality and sees himself in Gus when the boy gains a knack for woodworking.

Please submit self-tape emails to casting@scrapsfilm.com

Production is happening summer of 2025.

- We encourage tapes to be submitted as soon as they are ready, regardless of deadline
- Email subject line: "(First Name Last Name) | SCRAPS Audition | (Character)"
- Attach your resume, social media links, professional portfolio, or acting reels
- To your email, attach your Self-Tape:
    - Please dress as you envision your character, memorize your lines, and do each scene in one take. Soak in the quiet moments between the lines and live the scenes.
    - Film horizontally on a tripod. Have appropriate lighting with the light source in front of you and behind the camera. Stand in front of a plain background.
    - Having a behind-the-camera reader to narrate the opposite character's dialogue for your scenes is helpful.

In your self-tape, please cut together the following content pieces:

- State your name, age, location, and which character you are reading for.
    a. Read for the attached scene: pg. 100-103: Gus tells Dan about Bridger
- Share how you resonate with the story of SCRAPS and why you'd like to be involved.

Thank you for your dedicated time and passion in contributing to our film. We are eager to witness your talents and see you shine! Once you submit, we will reach back out if the role is a good fit.

With gratitude,

-The SCRAPS team
