

Hey Dr Mike,

I love the videos. Your takes and presentation style are great. Have you ever thought of repurposing your videos into emails and selling products from there?

Hey Matt,

How's the newsletter going?

Hey George

Love the clothes man. Sadly I can't afford a single one but man I wish I could.

What got you into fashion and personal branding?

Hey Charlie,

Love the page man. What would you say is your biggest problem with your sales funnel right now?

Hey Mark,

I saw Tanner Shuck's day in the life video and I eventually found you through him. I took a quick look through your account and I was impressed by the insane lifts you were doing at just 220lbs bodyweight.

However I also noticed that your account isn't getting much engagement despite how good your posts are.

Would you be interested in some free captions to help you out?

Hi Yah'ki

I love your reel about caffeine and its effects on the body.

Do you repurpose content like that in your newsletter?

Hi Nina.

I found your page and I was blown away by how flexible you are.

I also saw that you sell some products. How do you promote them?
