

The Swami Sez

Below you'll find the results of the Canadian fights, with my predictions indicated in GREEN for successful Swami picks, or in RED if I happened to miss the mark. Please enjoy my fight recap. While I seriously doubt I will repeat my 16-6 record in Spain, I feel confident that I will win a few more times than I lose and that is what gambling is all about.

So ditch the 'hosers', slip on your Sorel's, and lace up those mukluks! It's time to join The Swami as he dives into the highlights of UCC 23, or for those who prefer the Roman touch, UCC XXIII. The Swami's still getting the hang of this, might need Google's help, eh?

And now for all of my Canadian friends. Please enjoy my rendition of Canada's glorious national anthem.

O Canada!

Our home and native land!

True patriot love in all of us command.

With glowing hearts we see thee rise,

The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

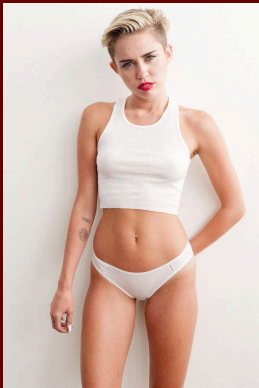

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

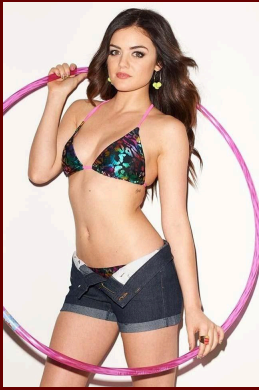

The Swami's Northern Canada Results

Featherweights

Miley Cyrus 33-11 (Badass Barbies) vs Audrey Alleen Allen 35-14 (Centerfold Angels)

When Miley and Audrey meet in the cage, their encounter is a whirlwind of action. Miley launched 138 strikes, while Audrey countered with an impressive 107. A constant exchange of offense and defense painted the fight. Both sought the decisive blow, but it eluded them. Still, the title bout remained intense. Ultimately, Miley secured victory through her clinch dominance, narrowly defending her Featherweight title with a majority decision win over Audrey.

Lucy Hale 21-15 (Strikeforce) vs Camila Cabello 14-6-1 (Strikeforce)

With a solid 5-fight win streak, Camila seemed invincible. Bettors hesitated to bet against her. Yet, The Swami believed Lucy's experience would triumph. The match remained tight initially, but Lucy's seasoned skills began to dominate. In the 4th round, the ref stopped the fight, ending Camila's streak as Lucy claimed a fairly dominant victory. Look for Camila to rebound as losing to Lucy will only be a minor setback.

Yaya Hahn 11-10 (The Queens of Cosplay) vs Jennie 15-14 (BLACKPINK)

Initially, The Swami's fighter choice seemed off as Yaya unleashed a barrage of punches and kicks, clearly dominating the first round against Jeannie. Yaya maintained the pressure, but a lapse occurred midway through the second round. Yaya's attempt at a combo was cleverly evaded by Jeenie, who capitalized on the opportunity. Swiftly countering, Jeenie caught Yaya off guard. Yaya's subsequent swing met Jeenie's precise response, resulting in a knockout that turned off Yaya's lights.

Millie Bobby Brown 2-2 (Hellfire Girls Club) vs Sadie Sink 1-1 (The Wannabees)

Travis X might be rethinking Millie's coveted Hellfire contract. It also didn't help Millie's cause when she ran her mouth threatening to rip out Sadie's hair and pound on her titties. Sadie retaliated fiercely, delivering all 11 kicks with precision. Taking Millie down, Sadie continued her dominance, transitioning into a relentless ground-and-pound. Eventually, Sadie forced Millie to submit to an armbar, sealing a one-sided victory for the fiery Wannabee rookie.

Lightweights

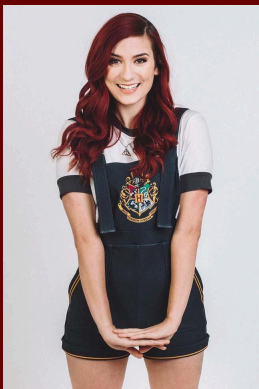

Vita Sidorkina 30-11 (Death by Bikini) vs Kristen Stewart 28-11 (Badass Barbies)

Vita's dominance knows no limits. Kristen displayed remarkable resilience, holding her ground for three rounds against Vita's onslaught. However, the relentless barrage of kicks from the Russian proved overwhelming. By the fourth round, Kristen's stamina waned, giving Vita the advantage. Holding onto her championship, Vita continued her reign. Kristen's path now involves rebuilding for another eight-fight win streak, facing the challenge of dethroning the indomitable Vita.

Emily Ratajowski 25-16 (Hellfire Girls Club) vs Jayde Nicole 29-14 (Centerfold Angels)

Following her noteworthy victory against Lightweight Champion Vita Sidorkina, Emrata's path seemed promising against Jayde. Despite the win occurring in a Bikini tournament, it remained significant as the only instance of Vita's defeat in 15 fights. The Swami's confidence in Emrata didn't translate, as Jayde displayed her prowess and determination. Ultimately, Jayde was not amused by the Swami's accolades and went out and took care of business, willing a not so close split decision.

Anna Brisbin 13-7 (Cobra Kai) vs Chelsie Aryn 23-19 (Centerfold Angels)

While The Swami believed Chelsie was primed, a sense lingered that Cobra Kai's Anna would be prepared. The initial rounds saw a tight battle, yet Chelsie's close-quarters dominance prevailed. Anna absorbed distance kicks and close-range body shots, faltering against Chelsie's power. The turning point came in the 3rd round, when Chelsie landed a knockout haymaker, solidifying her victory.

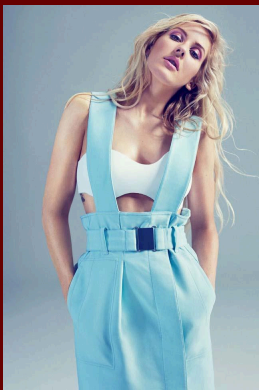

Sydney Sweeney 5-13 (Badass Barbies) vs Michelle Keegan 8-16 (Vassago)

Amidst the considerable hype, Sydney undoubtedly faced pressure against Michele. Michele's adept ground skills were evident just 11 seconds in, posing a threat to Sydney. Despite this, Sydney composed herself, recovering and restoring the fight to a standing position. Once upright, Sydney showcased her poise and her striking prowess took command, culminating in a knockout 2 minutes later. Sydney's ability to rebound from adversity and capitalize on her strengths underscored her victory.

Welterweights

Ellie Goulding 33-11 (Amped) vs Megan Fox 30-9-1 (Badass Barbies)

Megan soaked in the crowd's support, her determined gaze signaling her serious intent. Opposite her, Ellie's energetic bounce resembled a pre-concert ritual. Ellie initially dictated terms, shaking Megan, who regained her footing. Composed, Megan gradually shifted momentum, leaving Ellie off-balance. The climax arrived in the 5th round's early moments, a deep cut on Ellie's left eye forcing a halt. Megan's finally claimed the Welterweight belt but it might be short lived as she will again face Ellie at the next event.

Barbara Palvin 29-13 (Death by Bikini) vs Raquel Pomplun 28-13 (Centerfold Angels)

Barbara and Rachel's animosity has simmered since UCC's inception, erupting in verbal clashes and unrelenting punches. Both having tasted championship glory, they're determined to ascend again, fueling their rivalry. Their bout was Raquel's show; she maintained a tactical edge throughout, culminating in a decisive victory in the 4th round's waning moments. The grudge match unfolded as Raquel stayed a stride ahead, underscoring her dominance and reiterating the significance of this fierce rivalry.

Alyson Michalka 15-15 (Badass Barbies) vs Alketa Vejsiu 11-10 (Karate Divas)

Both fighters entered the ring with a fervent desire to secure a KO victory. Alyson claimed the initial round, but Alketa showcased her resilience. She asserted herself in the 2nd round, mastering the clinch and controlling the ground. The third round balanced on a knife's edge, hinting at a potential decision. However, Alketa harbored different intentions. Just 22 seconds into the 4th round, she unleashed a powerful cross, dramatically concluding the fight with a vicious knockout that left Aly motionless.

Sarah Michelle Gellar 2-2 (Lost Wildcats) vs Natalie Alyn 6-11 (Wicked Queens)

The Swami's inclination leaned toward Sarah's victory, yet concerns arose if the fight turned to the ground where her disadvantage lay. Admitting fallibility, the prediction proved partially correct. Sarah's dominance emerged in the clinch, connecting with 53 of 69 strikes. Yet, the unanticipated twist arrived through a submission win. Kudos to the Awesome Aries training staff for orchestrating this triumph, an outcome that put the rest of the Welterweight division on notice.

Middleweights

Kendall Jenner 36-10 (Badass Barbies) vs Zara Larson 28-10-1 (World of Fight)

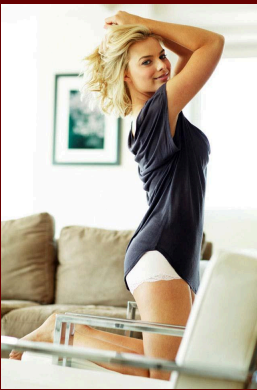

The feud between Zara Larsson and ex-boss Kylie Jenner still simmers, the resentment evident. Zara, though title-less, faced Kendall in a prior event, fostering confidence to dethrone her former ally. Initially promising, Zara's assault faltered as Kendall maintained composure, ultimately asserting control. By the 3rd round, Kendall's dominance materialized, a 16th consecutive victory within reach. The match culminated with a resounding 3rd round knockout, sealing Kendall's triumph and solidifying her position at the pinnacle.

Jessica Alba 20-15 (Haydens Powergirls) vs Chyler Leigh 22-17 (Raccoon)

A crucial battle for both fighters, each burdened by a two-fight losing streak, both eager to avoid a third. Chyler's initial display of confidence, rallying the crowd, marked the sole highlight for her. Jessica swiftly took command, dominating every aspect of the contest. A significant uppercut in the 3rd round proved pivotal, piercing through Chyler's defense and rendering her unconscious before she even hit the mat. The fight underlined Jessica's supremacy across the board, leaving Chyler's hopes dashed and sealing Jessica's triumphant resurgence.

Margot Robbie 14-18 (Strikeforce) vs Lena Gerke 4-2 (Leggy Queens)

The Swami's prediction misjudged Lena's return from a hiatus, favoring Margot for the win. However, Lena defied expectations, performing flawlessly as if no break occurred. Perhaps Margot's focus should shift from the Pink Carpet to rigorous training. Regardless, Lena's superiority was evident, setting an example for the Leggy Queens. The match emphasized Lena's skill, as her victory showcased a fighter who had maintained her edge despite time away from the ring, leaving The Swami humbly conceding defeat.

Jennifer Lawrence 23-13 (Strikeforce) vs Selena Gomez 23-16-1 (Badass Barbies)

The crowd fervently rallied for Jennifer, their chants echoing as she entered the cage, taunting Selena relentlessly. Selena's composure stood firm, seemingly unperturbed and focused elsewhere. Selena endured Jennifer's early barrage, methodically deconstructing her opponent. The match climaxed with a ruthless hook, rendering Jennifer unconscious. Selena's performance hints at a potential fit in the Middleweight division, amassing a 4-2 record with her calculated victory. Selena's precision and strategy ultimately dominated the new Strikeforce fighter.

Heavyweights

Maria Sharapova 30-11 (Hellfire Girls Club) vs Kate Upton 32-13 (Death by Bikini)

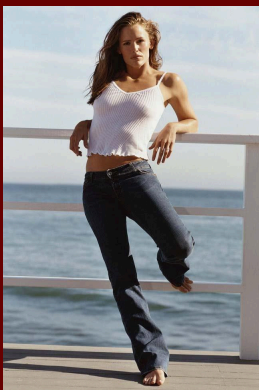

Maria, the new Heavyweight champion, demonstrated unwavering resolve to retain her title. Despite Kate's previous two title wins, Maria was resolute in denying her victory. The match showcased Maria's utter dominance, surpassing Kate in every facet. While Kate's resurgence is likely, a strategic pause from facing Maria might be necessary before another clash. Maria's commanding performance solidified her championship status, making it evident she's not ready to relinquish her hold on the title any time soon.

Kylie Jenner 33-12 (Badass Barbies) vs Victoria Silvstedt 31-14 (Centerfold Angels)

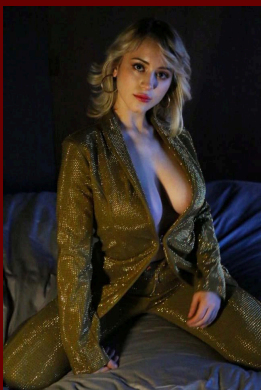

Entering the bout, Kylie displayed the urgency of preserving her career, determined to evade her first 3-fight losing streak. Victoria exuded tranquility, even projecting confidence in overpowering Kylie. However, Kylie fiercely resisted, overpowering Victoria and preventing her from gaining footing. Though Victoria absorbed numerous blows, the 3rd round saw her succumb to a fierce hook, ending the match with a knockout. Kylie ultimately quashed Victoria's initial threats, securing her victory and averting the feared losing streak.

Jennifer Garner 5-8 (Lost Wildcats) vs Caylee Cowen 6-8 (Wicked Queens)

The clash between Jennifer and Caylee unfolded in a captivating back-and-forth manner, with Jennifer seizing the 1st round and Caylee rallying back in the 2nd. As the fight evolved, Jennifer's stamina and power emerged as key advantages. Jennifer's strategic blows left Caylee vulnerable, progressively worsening her situation. Unfortunately, the fight concluded in a distressing manner. Jennifer's tackle caused Caylee to land awkwardly, resulting in a couple of broken ribs. The unfortunate ending overshadowed a close battle between the two fighters.

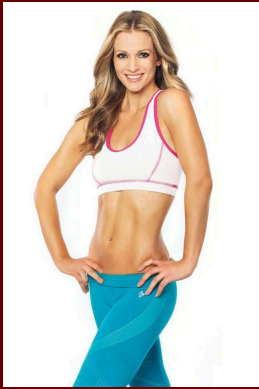

Pamela Anderson 12-18 (Raccoon) vs Gena Lee Nolin 12-18 (Haydens Powergirls)

Pamela's struggles since leading the Raccoon stable have been evident with a disappointing 0-6 record. Even in arm wrestling, losses have accumulated. In contrast, Gena has secured victory in 4 of her last 9 bouts. The anticipated fight veered from The Swami's projection. Pamela defied expectations, swiftly incapacitating Gena with powerful punches, shutting down any retaliation. The fight abruptly concluded early in the 2nd round with a staggering knockout that left everyone in awe.

Swami's Sure Shot Win

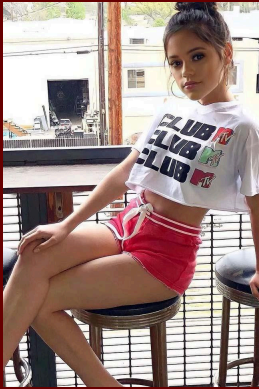

AJ Cook 5-9 (Awesome Aries) vs Lindsey Pelas 5-7 (CWF)

Lindsey's self-assurance grew from her victory over Sydney Sweeny, while AJ aimed to break a 2-fight losing streak. Both fighters exuded calm confidence, but AJ fed off her hometown Canadian crowd's energy, rising to the occasion. AJ's performance was masterful, effortlessly escaping Lindsey's four submission attempts. The climax arrived in the 4th round, AJ attempted to get a closer look at Lindsey's prized rack and started pulling on her top. The stitching held firm so AJ flung her to the mat knocking Lindsey out on impact. A well-rounded display and hometown support propelled AJ to an impressive victory.

The Swami's Upset of the Month

Jenna Ortega 1-1 (Strikeforce) vs Kim Or Azulay 08-11 (Young Gunz)

Although a newcomer to the fight scene, Jenna exudes the confidence of a seasoned warrior. In the cage, the battle unfolded like a closely contested boxing match, punches exchanged back and forth. Transitioning to the ground, Jenna seized control. Her ground-and-pound strategy wore down Kim, leading to a halt in the action. A brutal cut above Kim's left eye prompted the referee's intervention, awarding Jenna a well deserved victory.

The Swami outperformed expectations in the Canadian predictions, boasting a solid 17-5 record. Placing a "Borden," a Canadian hundred-dollar bill, on each fight would have yielded a total of $1,200, deducting the vig. Not bad for a day's work. The Swami will return shortly and once the UCC schedule is settled, he will come out with 22 more picks for the Please come back next Month to see The Swami predictions for UCC XXIV in Berlin, Germany!

