Swiss Machinist

Job Responsibilities:

- Read and interpret blueprints, technical drawings, and work order(s)
- Set up and adjust machines for different jobs
- Proving out programs/assisting with programming (at machine or offline)
- Ensuring quality control making sure inspection/checks are complete for all finished parts
- Perform routine maintenance
- Maintain a clean and safe work environment.
- Heavily focused in high production machining

Requirements:

- Experience as a Swiss style CNC Machine Operator or relevant training*
- Prior experience running or troubleshooting Swiss CNC machines (any experience with Hanwa is great)*
- Experience in programming at the machine/offline is a plus, but not required*

  * Willing to train those with desire to learn.
- Familiarity with measuring tools (calipers, micrometers, gauges)
- Strong attention to detail and problem-solving skills
- Dependable and takes ownership of task and follows through on commitments
- Willingness to learn/continuously develop skills and seek growth opportunities

Benefits:

- Competitive salary
- Position available on 1st (flexible start/end times)
- Health insurance
- Paid time off
- Career growth opportunities

Interested? Apply Now!
Complete the following survey, prior to submitting your resume:
https://take.surveys.ci/s/5S18JQAF6i/72832

Send your resume to spease@unitedtoolllc.com or call 262.347.2004 for more details.