

Good Afternoon,

TDS has confirmed to me that the 5 Terrexan hostages will be released to the Terrexan military at an undisclosed date and location. It brings me most joy to relay this information to the nations today. As soon as all five men are secured home they will be tested and treated for any injuries or illnesses they may have obtain while being held hostage.

With Pleasure,
President Lincoln