

AGOGE NEW IDENTITY

The Ideal Version of Yourself 3-6 Months From Now

My Power Phrases

- I am a man of my word and finish everything I start.
 - I do not talk much and I do not contribute on topics I do not fully understand. I listen.
 - I am in charge of everything that happens to me, and I am capable of taking care of my wife and children.

My Core Values

- Patience
 - Confidence
 - Action Oriented

My Daily Non-Negotiables

- I complete my daily checklist.
- I meditate, reflect on myself, and pray every
- I will learn and apply one new thing every day from the CC & Copywriting Campus.

My Goals Achieved

- I launched a new Facebook campaign for my product:

Up until now, my Facebook ad account has been disabled, but today it ends. I have called Facebook support, provided all the documents they require, verified my ID, and my ad account has been re-enabled. I have launched a new ad campaign for a product with great ad creative and ad copy.

- Becoming an expert:

I have mastered the skill of researching winning products (products that solve a problem for my customers, have a wow factor, and can be marked up to 3-5X the price without being perceived as expensive by my customers), leasing the product on my website, describing, adding reviews, creating video ads, and launching ads on Meta and TikTok, generating $500 in sales from the ads every day.

- Generating $15K in Revenue:

I have successfully mastered how to sell products online, and I am currently generating $500 every day in sales from my e-commerce store, generating a total revenue of $15,000 a month every month consistently.

My Rewards Earned

- Owning a brand new laptop: I have gotten myself a brand new laptop with all the specs I need. This laptop has 2 TB of memory, 256 GB of RAM (not screen touched), a powerful graphics card. I am using this laptop to work outside of my home, like in the library and when I travel for work

- Becoming debt-free: I have paid off all my credit card debt and student loans. All my money is mine to finish building my house in cameroon and continue buying land
- Visiting Family Back Home: I am visiting my family back home in Cameroon, checking on my building project and on my farms. Checking on my record label and laying down a new plan of action to attack music production and distribution in Africa.

My Appearance And How Others Perceive Me

- Every piece of clothing I put on my body is straight and well ironed with no wrinkles. All my clothes are made with quality material, which makes me look responsible as a man, trustworthy, and capable of doing anything.
- I maintain great hair, keep it clean, and line it up. I always wear clean shoes that are well cleaned and have clean teeth, which shows a high level of discipline that will make any competent person want to work with me.
- I walk with my head held high and my posture straight, which portrays self-confidence and a high level of competence.

My Day In The Life Stories.

- I wake up every morning at 7:00 am with excitement as I see the rays of the sun shine through the windows after a good night's rest. I walked into the bathroom while stretching my body. I stare at myself in the mirror and remind myself that today is another opportunity to move the needle towards my dream life and my freedom. After cleaning my teeth, I take a cold shower to remind myself that I was meant to do hard things.

- I dressed myself in clean and ironed clothes, preparing for work in my home office. At work, I stay calm and reflective while I help solve people's problems. I communicate clearly at work, and I constantly strive to be the best at what I do by completing difficult tasks. People at work see me as a problem solver and well-respected man who has his life under control because I am not lazy, timid, or a coward.
- After work, I do 200 burpees and go to the gym (All Hearts Crossfits) for more training. I reviewed my daily checklist as I returned from the gym and shower. I immediately get to work on my business, fulfilling customers orders with excitement, as I am on track to make $15k a month.
- I see myself not having to work a job anymore, completing my house, and traveling around the world.
