Change: Added class for profile, to allow show/hide of user profile payment methods section

Customize your Maestro site even more with our CSS style guide. We have added ids and classes throughout the application that you can modify via Code Injection. The Code Injection feature can be found under Settings in your admin tab. Note that all CSS styling code belongs in the Header section.

Important Note: Maestro will not be able to assist you with your code used in this section.

To make modifications:

1. Find the CSS class or id that you want to modify based on the hierarchy below
2. Write css for the selector you want

Here's an example of a CSS rule that would change the background color of the navigation to blue.

```
    .navigation {
        Background-color: blue;
    }
</style>
```
