1. I bought a $5 Target gift card.

4. Then I gave the gift card to the worker.
5. Then I tipped the worker $5.00.
6. After, I walked out like a BOSS.

Results

My Mom drove me to Target to buy a $5 Target gift card for my kindness project. When I arrived at Starbucks I walked inside Starbucks and got in line. I did my Barista Blessing to the Barista.

Reflection

When I did my Barista Blessing Project, I felt scared at first. Then when I got into the project, I felt like I just fell into a puddle of kindness and that's a good thing. I felt like the worker was very blessed. It was a coincidence because the Barista's house burned down recently. It was a perfect time to do my kindness project because we both felt blessed.
