

Danganflipa MM: Chapter 1 - Paradigm of a Criminal (Truth Bullets)
The Murder of Taylor, the Ultimate Gamer

Monokuma File #1

- The victim was Taylor, the Ultimate Gamer. Estimated time of death is around 5:15 p.m. The victim's cause of death was blunt force trauma to the head with a hard object, most likely the baseball bat. Furthermore, the victim has consumed sleeping pills, but no poison was found in his system. It appears that his death was instant.

Trash Can Contents

- Multiple items were found in the trash can by the makeshift kitchen. The bone from a leg of lamb, its plastic wrapper that seems to be wet with water, and a sandwich bag with traces of strange white powder inside.

Baseball Bat

- A metal baseball bat found beside Taylor's body that is covered in marinara. It is hard to tell if the bat has blood on it, so all we can do is assume that the baseball bat is the murder weapon.

Taylor's Plastic Cup

- Taylor's red plastic cup with his name written on the outside in black permanent marker. It was found outside the Madish Work Zone, and there appeared to still be liquid in the cup when it was dropped.

Hammer

- A heavy hammer set out on the counter in the makeshift kitchen. According to Robby and Nick, they wanted to crush graham crackers to make pie crust, but since Robby didn't buy the correct ingredients for pie, they switched to sugar cookies which were easier to bake.

Powdered Sugar

- A cup of powdered sugar set out on the counter in the makeshift kitchen. According to Robby, it was an ingredient used for the icing in the sugar cookies.

Location of the Body

- Taylor's body was found in a marinara pipe in the bell tower. He was either transported here from Marinara Rapids, or he was placed here by Green Mask, who was the only person at Multigrain Fields at the time.

Buddy System Partners

- Trishna and I decided that for the day of the Renaissance Festival, we would need to use the buddy system. Brody made a list of who was paired with who for us, and the partners were:
  - Brody and Nevada
  - Roy and Trishna

- Taylor and Kayla
- Robby and Nick
- Scarlett and Rudy
- Koilee and Perri
- Sarge Fan, Willow, and Boomer (group of three)
- Green Mask (did not participate in the festival)

Renaissance Festival Volunteers

- Nevada's list of people who helped set up for the Renaissance Festival.
  - Nevada - planner and director
  - Brody - construction and decoration
  - Rudy - tech and sound system; performed
  - Scarlett - decoration; performed
  - Robby - concessions and feast
  - Nick - concessions and feast
  - Monokuma - construction

Knot on Arcade Door

- When Rudy went to the arcade to fix the bass boost on the playlist, he found that the handles to the only doors were tied together with a complex knot. The rope used to tie the knot was very durable, and after extensive efforts, he eventually untied the strong knot so he could enter the arcade to fix the bass boost.

Scrap of Green Cloth

- A small scrap of green cloth found by the bell tower, caught on a tree limb. Could this have come from Green Mask's coat?

Rudy's Account

- Rudy claims that he did not adjust the bass boost for the performance. However, he thinks he forgot to log out of his laptop, so somebody could have changed the bass boost while he was out of the arcade.

Robby and Nick's Account

- After getting permission from Monokuma, Robby and Nick decided to spend the night on a canoe fishing in Lake Linguini the night before the murder. They both went to sleep, but the boat suddenly tipped over and woke them both up. Neither one claims to know what happened to the canoe, although Robby has a theory that a Powseeker hit the boat and knocked it over.

Boomer's Account

- Boomer went to Green Mask's cottage to investigate, and noticed that a small piece of fabric was torn off of a coat in his drawer.
