

Grammar Auction:

Read the sentences. With your partner(s) you must decide which sentences are correct and bid on them. Try to only buy correct sentences. The group with the most correct sentences wins.

1. When I stopped to talk to Peter, he was mowing the lawn in front of his house.
2. Look! She talks to her friend.
3. He arrived in the airport twenty minutes ago.
4. I'm afraid Mr. Shall is deaf. He can't hearing you.
5. I have some important informations for you.
6. How many teeth are there in the human body?
7. Why did you bought this T-shirt?
8. I bought some table yesterday. It's perfect.
9. Men are often stronger than women.
10. Does she have brown hair? - Yes, she is.
11. What time are they wake up?
12. We were arriving two days ago.
13. I'm washing my hair tonight.
14. I live on 120 Robson Street.
15. He's always singing in the washroom.