Marula Oil

Extracted from the Sclerocarya birrea tree native to Southern and West Africa's Miombo woodlands, Marula Carrier Oil holds cultural importance, symbolizing resilience and natural beauty in African communities. Over the years, it has been utilized for various purposes, showcasing a commitment to sustainable living.

With deep roots in tradition, the Marula tree has been cherished as a botanical treasure for generations. Its significance is woven into the cultures of indigenous communities, where it symbolizes resilience, abundance, and natural beauty. Historically, the Marula tree's bounty has been harnessed for a myriad of purposes, embodying the spirit of sustainable living.

Harvested and pressed by community collectives, mainly led by women, Marula Carrier Oil represents a collaborative effort. Enhance your beauty routine with Marula Carrier Oil — a product that seamlessly blends tradition with modern skincare.
