About pinkris age gap
morality of shipping them and ages
Kris
Toriel mentions that kris is “someday soon” going to college, and that can easily be aproximately 1 year or even less, so that would indicate that kris is 17 close to 18 yo, so yeah basically kris is not an adult but is close to be one legally.

Pink (ghost and body)
First of all the ghost, she probably is close to the ages of asriel, dess, catty etc than the age of kris, theres no confirmation but its pretty clear that shes a young adult so yeah shes like 22-24, with that in mind yeah its very wrong the ship becaus thats like a 5-7 years age gap, so with this, you cant ship kris with pink ghost, unless you age up kris a bit then eh thats debatable.
Now the body, she is a case even worse than pink ghost (about having less evidence), but we can assume that since she was fine with being in love with kris then we could say shes like 18-20, and thats a 1-3 years age gap, realistically and morally there is nothing wrong with it, and since she is still an adult she can also be shipped without any problem with pink ghost, though in a poly ship between the 3 im not sure but lets say not.
In short;
Kris and Pink body is ok
Kris and Pink ghost is a nope, and Pink body is fine being shipped with any of the other 2 separated but not poly.
Also i want to note that toby would not just make a character a pedophile, and we can see clearly that the only one that was interested in kris was pink body, not ghost, the ghost only was like “eh fine do your thing but im not interested”.
