

Privacy Policy for NoScroll by Camel.Chrome

NoScroll does not collect, store, or share any personal data.

The extension operates locally in the user's browser and only modifies the display of supported websites (such as YouTube, Instagram, and Snapchat) to block short video content.

No user information is transmitted to any external servers.

No tracking, analytics, or data collection mechanisms are used.

If you have any questions, you can contact the developer.