

Welcome to Our Privacy Policy. Your privacy is important to us, and we are committed to protecting the privacy and security of your information. This Privacy Policy outlines the types of information we collect, how we use it, and the measures we implement to safeguard your data when you interact with our apps and games through the App Store Connect developer account. By accessing or using our services, you consent to the terms outlined in this Policy.

Collection and Use of User Information:

We collect various types of information to enhance your experience, provide personalized services, and improve our offerings. Here's a detailed breakdown:

Website and Game Interaction:

When you visit our website or interact with our games, we automatically log certain information, including your computer's or device's operating system, Internet Protocol (IP) address, access times, browser type and language, and referring website addresses. Additionally, we may request and process personal data such as your name, profile photo, gender, age or birthday, links to your profiles on social networking websites, user names, email, and mailing addresses. This information may be utilized to create user profiles, analyze user behaviour, and provide tailored services. We may also use your email address to communicate with you about your experience with our services and notify you about company news and promotions.

Customer Service:

If you contact our customer service team, we may collect your email address to assist you with your gaming experience and keep you informed about relevant updates and promotions.

Game Data Collection:

We gather data about your interactions within our games, including gameplay activity and interactions with other players, through server log files. This data is used to improve game features, optimize performance, and enhance overall user satisfaction.

Other Information Collection:

We may collect additional information from you through your participation in message boards, surveys, or sweepstakes and contests hosted on our platform. This information helps us understand user preferences, gather feedback, and organize promotional activities.

Miscellaneous Collection:

We may also acquire information from you through (1) your access and participation in message boards on the Service, (2) your participation in surveys regarding the Service or (3) your participation in a sweepstakes or contest through the Service.

Use of Cookies:

We utilize cookies to enhance the functionality and usability of our services. Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer or device to remember your preferences, authenticate your identity, and track your interactions with our platform. You can disable cookies at any time, but please note that certain features of our services may not function properly without them. Third-party advertisers may also use cookies to deliver targeted advertisements and track user engagement across multiple platforms.

Third-Party Services:

Our services may integrate third-party tracking tools provided by service providers such as InAppFuel, Flurry, GameAnalytics, Tapjoy, and others. These third parties may collect and analyze user information, including device identifiers, MAC addresses, IMEI numbers, geo-location data, and IP addresses, to improve service functionality and deliver personalized experiences.

Advertising Networks:

We may feature advertisements within our services, and advertisers may collect and utilize information about you to deliver relevant advertisements. Your device identifier may be shared with advertisers to verify installations and measure advertising performance.

How We Use Information:

The information collected through our services is utilized for various purposes, including but not limited to:

- Creating and managing user accounts.
- Facilitating gameplay and connecting users with other players.
- Improving service functionality and performance.
- Personalizing user experiences and recommendations.
- Providing customer support and addressing user inquiries.
- Delivering products, services, and promotional materials.

- Communicating with users about relevant updates, events, and promotions.
- Conducting research, analysis, and reporting for internal purposes.

Disclosure of Your Information:

We may disclose your information in the following circumstances:

- With your consent, for example, when you agree to share your information with third parties for marketing purposes.
- To authorized service providers and agents who assist us in performing various functions, such as data analysis and customer support.
- When required by law or in response to legal requests, such as court orders or subpoenas.
- In connection with corporate transactions such as mergers, acquisitions, or asset sales.
- In aggregated or anonymized form for analytical or research purposes.

Information Security:

We implement reasonable security measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, please be aware that no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is entirely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute protection against security breaches.

Opting Out of Marketing:

You have the option to opt out of receiving promotional emails or SMS notifications from us. However, please note that you may still receive non-promotional communications related to your account or ongoing business relations with us.

Information International Transfer:

We may transfer your information to affiliated entities or third parties located outside of your country or jurisdiction for the purposes described in this Policy. By using our services, you consent to such transfers and acknowledge that your information may be subject to different data protection laws and regulations.

Modifications to the Policy:

We reserve the right to update or modify this Privacy Policy at any time. Changes will be effective upon posting on our website or within our services. We encourage you to review this Policy periodically to stay informed about how we collect, use, and protect your information.

Agreement with Policies:

By accessing or using our services, you signify your understanding and agreement with this Privacy Policy and our Terms of Use. If you have any questions, concerns, or requests regarding this Policy or the handling of your information, please contact us.
