

Administering Insulin to Your Dog Design Document

Business Purpose	Finding out your dog has diabetes is already a concern. Treating your dog at home for such an important lifelong disease can be daunting. This course shows dog owners how to safely prepare their dog, the insulin, and the syringe for proper distribution of insulin. This course will also be helpful for new staff in a veterinary clinic.
Target Audience	Pet owners who have dogs recently diagnosed with diabetes; new veterinarian technicians
Training Time	Approximately 15 minutes
Training Recommendation	Due to the immediate need of the dog needing insulin in a timely fashion, an eLearning course developed in Rise is recommended. This allows pet owners as well as new veterinary technicians to access content that they can immediately apply to the dog in their care.
Deliverables	Rise 360 eLearning Course
