

THE REAL MEANING OF ASSUMPTION!!

noun

1. a thing that is accepted as true or as certain to happen, without proof.

"they made certain assumptions about the market"

Assumption means you claim something as true — without needing a shred of proof.

That's it. That's the entire game.

You're not waiting for the world to agree with you. You're not checking for signs. You're not sitting in doubt hoping to be chosen.

You choose. You claim. You KNOW.

You don't need evidence. You are the evidence. You speak it as fact - just like you'd say, "My name is ___." or "I have my own house."

It's not up for debate. It's DONE.

Assumption is power in motion. It's when you say: "I already have it."

Even if nothing has moved in the 3D, you don't care. Because the moment you assumed it, it became yours.

You don't beg. You don't chase. You don't wobble back and forth waiting for something to convince you.

You just declare it.

And because you persist and live from that truth, the world reorganizes itself around it.

You move like, "Of course it's mine." You think like, "Why would I check? I already have it." You feel like, "There's nothing to fix, it's already done."

That's the embodiment. That's the key.

You assume it. You persist in that assumption. The world bends.

So stop looking for the mirror to reflect it back before you believe it.

You go first. You lead. And everything follows.

There's nothing more powerful than a person who decides it's already theirs and refuses to drop the truth.

That's assumption. That's fast manifestation.

That's how it's DONE.
