TRAINERS

Jon Taylor, ACC - CLP Lead Trainer & CMI Professional Coach - is a graduate of CMI's first Mission Coach Training cohort, and has been training mission coaches since 2013. While growing up he spent 13 months in Zimbabwe with his family, and has led multiple short-term trips to Guinea, Kenya, and Mexico. He is also a Certified Trainer with Leading From Your Strengths, and was on staff at First Christian Church of Phoenix, AZ for 17 years, including 10 years as Lead Pastor. Jon has been married to June since 1986 and they live in Phoenix, AZ near their 2 adult sons.

Gwen Flaming, PCC - CLP Lead Trainer & CMI Master Coach - received her coach training through CMI's Missions Coach Training program, and is also a graduate of the Institute for Life Coach Training. Gwen and her husband have over 44 years of cross-cultural ministry experience and have served in 4 different geographical locations. Her passion is to be a catalyst and facilitator for life change – by providing training, coaching, and mentoring for ministry leaders and emerging leaders working in cross-cultural settings.

Terry Lee - CLP Trainer, Leadership MetaFormation Certified Trainer, Professional Coach & Encounter Coach - has served in missions mobilization and ministry leadership for over 45 years. Her passion is coming alongside those who are serving cross-culturally, especially those in leadership or in transition, training and equipping them to live, lead, and coach from the heart. Terry has four adult children and nine grandchildren.
