

How to Take the FEMA training courses

These are instructions on how to access the FEMA NIMS and ICS training courses and to take the exams for those courses

Point your internet browser to: <https://training.fema.gov/nims/>

Click on “ICS-100: Introduction to the Incident Command System”.

The screenshot shows the FEMA Emergency Management Institute website. The header includes the FEMA logo and the text "Emergency Management Institute". A search bar is located in the top right corner with the placeholder text "Enter Search Term(s):" and a "Search" button. The main content area is titled "National Incident Management System (NIMS)". Below the title, there is a yellow box containing the text: "NIMS 2017 Learning Materials: This content is to provide information to emergency management practitioners on the key changes contained in the new NIMS 2017 document. Content is available at: https://training.fema.gov/nims/docs/NIMS\_2017\_Instructor\_Student\_Learning\_Materials.pdf". Below this, there is a paragraph of text: "EMI works in collaboration with the whole community to provide training in support of the NIMS Training Program. The Preparedness Branch coordinates EMI's NIMS training efforts with the National Integration Center (NIC) to integrate NIMS doctrine and training with whole community needs." This is followed by a bolded statement: "NIMS and NIMS training program information is detailed at <https://www.fema.gov/national-incident-management-system>". Below this, there are two lines of text: "NIMS online course certificate contact Independent.Study@fema.dhs.gov" and "NIMS resident course certificate contact netcadmissions@fema.dhs.gov". There is a link for "Frequently Asked Course and Training Questions". Below that, it says "NIMS Core Curriculum Courses are comprised of ICS, NIMS, and All-Hazards Position Specific (AHPS) courses detailed below:". The section is titled "ICS and NIMS Courses" and contains a list of courses: "• ICS-100: Introduction to the Incident Command System" (highlighted in yellow), "• ICS-200: ICS for Single Resources and Initial Action Incidents", "• ICS-300: Intermediate ICS for Expanding Incidents", "• ICS-400: Advanced ICS for Command and General Staff", "• IS-700: National Incident Management System, An Introduction", and "• IS-703: NIMS Resource Management".

If you wish, you can click on the “Download Classroom Materials” link to get helpful material in addition to what is in the online training course.

Click on “Interactive Web Based Course”. See yellow highlight below. –

Not ready right now?

You may sign in the old way for now. Everyone will be required to create a login.gov account soon!

Request legacy sign in

Login.gov?

To ensure that your SID is compatible, your name and one of your Login.gov account email addresses must match the info in your FEMA SID profile.

-  Associate Email: Make sure your FEMA SID email address matches one of your associated login.gov email addresses.
-  Matching User Info: Make sure your login.gov name and personal information matches your FEMA SID profile.
-  No Student Account? If you do not have one already, you must sign up for a FEMA SID account to access student resources.

Still unsure if your FEMA SID is compatible?

Sign in, or create a new login.gov account now. We'll let you know if we are unable to locate your FEMA SID account, and FEMA recently implemented a Login.gov process. The process will use your email address and password that you used when you created your SID (Student ID). Enter them as indicated below.

The screenshot shows the FEMA Emergency Management Institute's Login.gov sign-in interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with three icons: a person's profile, a shield with a keyhole, and a computer monitor. Below the icons, the text reads: "FEMA Emergency Management Institute is using Login.gov to allow you to sign in to your account safely and securely." There are two buttons: "Sign in" (highlighted in blue) and "Create an account". Underneath, the heading "Sign in for existing users" is followed by two input fields: "Email address" and "Password". A "Show password" checkbox is located below the password field. At the bottom, there is a large blue "Sign in" button.

The Login.gov process utilizes a two-factor authentication. They will text to you a six digit code that you will need to enter. Have your texting device readily available.

When you have successfully logged in, this legal notice will appear. After you have reviewed this document click on the “I Agree” button at the bottom.

Completion of this examination is an individual effort

Organizations are encouraged to establish procedures to ensure completion of the examination is an individual effort. Personnel within an organization who feel that test answers are being improperly provided should follow their organization's measures for reporting unethical conduct.

Academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, misrepresenting facts, and any action intended to give an unfair academic advantage to the student or another individual. Actions do not need to be complete or successful to rise to misconduct – failed or attempted misconduct also applies. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- Copying from another student's or another source's work product;
- Using or studying with resources and materials for an assignment, or a test, that are not authorized (i.e. for example, studying from previously administered test questions and or answers without instructor approval);
- Disclosing course information with or providing information to another student about the contents of an assignment or test; and
- Allowing another to substitute for oneself or substituting for another to take an assignment, test, or class.

If a student is found to have cheated on an exam, the penalty may include—but is not limited to—expulsion; foreclosure from future classes for a specified period; forfeiture of certificate for course/courses enrolled in at NETC or NTC; or all of the above in accordance with Conduct on the NETC Campus. A letter notifying the student's sponsoring organization of the individual's misconduct will be sent by the appropriate official at NETC.
