

Button Trouble (A Inside Out Fanfic)

(It's a peaceful end of the day at Headquarters. And the other emotions were just relaxing)

Joy: Hey, everyone! I created a new invention?

Anger: Alright, Joy. What's the news? This better be important and not a waste of time.

Joy: I've created a new remote earlier, and it actually works!

Sadness: Sure, Joy. At long as it isn't something horrible to make me cry.

Joy: Shows them with pride

(The other emotions are surprised at her invention. Disgust, on the other hand, just rolls her eyes)

Disgust: Really, Joy? You wasted your whole time creating a toy remote. So you're telling me I had to stop doing my nails for this.

(Joy starts arguing with Disgust, while doing that. Fear takes the remote)

Fear: Okay...how does this thing work?

presses it and zaps both Joy and Disgust, causing them to switch colors

Anger: What in the world!?! glares at Fear Fear: uh oh...

Anger: You Purple Idiot, look what you did. No one said for you to press the remote in the first place!

Joy: Fear, anger, sadness, change us back to normal!

Disgust: I don't wanna keep looking yellow like Joy forever! Green is my main color... And suits my name if I do say so myself.

Fear: Don't worry, I can fix this! It's just like what Bob the Builder says. "Can we fix it? Yes, we can!"

Anger: How about I fix your lack of Intelligence, will that help?

Sadness: I hope you know what you're doing,
Fear. Don't make this any worse than it is.

Fear: Aw, come on, sadness! What's the worst that can happen here?

(Fear presses it again, turning Joy and Disgust into animals)

Joy: Holy crap, I'm a dog! howls

Disgust: Oh yippee, Fear. I'm a spaniel cocker thanks to your stupidity and making it worse!
rolls her eyes in annoyance

Fear: D'oh! (Presses the remote again, causing them to become sun glasses) Oops...

Anger: This isn't gonna end well...

(Fear kept pressing the remote over and over again to fix the problem)

Joy and Disgust turn into various objects, shapes, and animals, much to Disgust's Annoyance, until Fear pressed the button again, leading it to zap her and Joy and turning them into babies

Joy (as a Baby): shakes her rattle while Disgust (as a Baby) just wants the chaotic insanity to end, leading to her having a tantrum. Much to Anger's Dismay

Disgust as a Baby I don't wanna be a baby anymore! I wanna go back to my normal self (cries loudly, causing Anger to have enough of it)

Anger: Blows his stack with fire coming out his head Right! That tears it, I've had enough and I'm not dealing with this crap no more!!!

Anger Furiously grabs the remote from Fear, as He turned Joy and Disgust back to normal

Joy: Oh my gosh! I...I'm Back to my normal self, Anger, You've saved me and Disgust! (Hugs him, much to his annoyance)

Disgust: Ya know, Anger? You've done something right for once, Nice Job Brick Boy!

Anger: Yeah, Yeah, Yeah. Just shut up! I'm gonna pound Fear in the face for causing all of this in the first place! (Sees that Fear isn't there) Hold on the phone, where is he!?

Sadness: He's over there.

(Fear had became a Toddler while Anger was using the remote to return Joy and Disgust back to normal)

Fear: Erm....Uh....Guys? can you turn me back to normal, I feel shorter than all of you put together.

Disgust: gives him a smug look Well, Fear. Maybe you should think twice about what you did to Both of Us next time, will ya?

Joy: On the contrary, at least he looks adorable for the most part.

Fear: holds up a sign I deserve this, Don't I?

The End!
