

Intramural Supervisor

The Intramural Sports Supervisor is responsible for supervising intramural sports contests and the intramural program. Acting as a liaison between Intramurals and participants, a supervisor strives to provide an environment of fun, physical fitness, and cooperation. At the same time, a supervisor implements the IM policies in order to maintain a level of control, fairness, and safety. Supervisors also set an example for less experienced officials and play an important role in the training of newer officials.
