Subject: [Download] 9 Breakthrough Strategies

Subject: 27 tips to heal with vibration

On the run? Take a moment to download a great FREE eBook, “9 Breakthrough Strategies to Heal with Vibration” from my friend Lloyd Burrell (who got tired of the runaround re health and decided there had to be a better way). It's packed with insights. DEFINITELY worth reading.

Hi First.Name,

The textbook definition of health is “the state of being free from illness or injury.”

I think we can do way better, don't you?

I think health is more than that... it's mind, body and spirit working together in harmony.

It's collectively us all working together. In harmony.

Look, we're all facing some challenging times but what if we had JUST the right guidance?

What if the world's leading minds gave you their best tips to achieve vibrant health?

See, my friend Lloyd Burrell has been putting together an amazing event called The Healing with Vibration Summit (and this weekend is the free encore)!

And right now, when you register (at no cost) he's GIVING you his eBook, 9 Breakthrough Strategies to Heal with Vibration.

It shares a new vision for health and is packed with 27 tips for healing with vibration.

Like Dr. Tom O'Bryan who says: “The gateway to consciousness really resides within us not outside of us. And to get there we need to understand that a potential map to more awareness, more consciousness, is inside of us right now.”

And Jonathan Goldman: “There are two different ways that sound, particularly music, can be used for healing. One of them is called psychoacoustics. That means the sound goes into your ears, into your neural pathways, into your brain, and affects your brain, your nervous system, your heart rate, your respiration, and your brain waves. So depending upon the music, it can either speed up or slow down your heart, to cause your sympathetic nervous system to relax. Music is an extraordinary tool for relaxation.”

And Magda Havas, PhD: “Many people suffer from EMFs, or electromagnetic pollution. It is an incredibly serious problem and the symptoms can include: cancer, brain fog, reproductive problems and neuro hormonal effects (electro hypersensitivity).”

These are just small snippets from this extraordinary eBook.

When you download the eBook, you'll also gain access to all 50 expert talks during the summit encore weekend, October 3-4.

In this first-of-its-kind summit you will learn how to harness the power of vibrational healing, grounding, transcendent thought, bioenergetics, herbal medicine, quantum health and more.

Email #1 Theme: Immunity & Chronic Illness

Subject #1: ENCORE Weekend - VIBRATION: The new frontier of health.

Subject #2: ENCORE Weekend - Cutting-edge vibrational healing modalities

Subject #3: ENCORE Weekend - Addressing Immunity in NEW ways

Chronic disease is not just on the rise, it's running rampant - despite trillions of dollars spent on pharmaceutical and surgical solutions. Clearly, the old way of 'combating' disease is failing spectacularly.

But what if this wasn't about 'combating' or 'fighting' at all?

What if truly vibrant health could be found within YOU?

What if the key to health and well-being could be found elsewhere?

It can. This weekend, my friend, Lloyd Burrell is offering an encore, filled with powerful and unique ways to tap into Healing With Vibration.

[Linked Graphic]

This is about amazing (and sometimes NEW opportunities)... like Energy Medicine, Overcoming Energetic Blockages and Trauma, PEMFs, Sound Therapy, Herbal and Earth Medicine, The Schumann Resonance, Quantum Energy, Near InfraRed Light Protocols, and so much more.

This might sound woo-woo and esoteric, but I can assure you it's not.

Even the most prestigious medical centers – such as Yale, Stanford, Duke, and Harvard University – are now regularly treating patients using what was once a very unconventional way of healing.

Driven by his own health challenges with man-made energies (cell phone radiation and similar electromagnetic fields) Lloyd has invited dozens of the world's leading experts to share their wisdom on powerful and uncommon ENERGETIC AND VIBRATIONAL health modalities, at The Healing With Vibration Summit.

Join me (at NO cost) to discover a new world of unconventional ways of healing. This is about helping you create a new relationship with your body and health. This is about giving you NEW tools and information to rise above what we currently know.

Disease is a message and a disruption in our frequency. These modalities will help you tune in, re-align. And heal.

If you or someone you love is suffering from a chronic health condition, or perhaps you're just ready to experience life and health at a different level. This event is for you.

It's time to see yourself as more than a body. From your heartbeat to everything you feel, to every thought you have. It's all about vibration. This is why vibration is the KEY to health – and when you heal with vibration it comes without side effects and often without expense! Vibrational healing is the new frontier.

I'll see you there.

Subject: ENCORE Weekend - How to use frequency and vibration for wellness

Subject: ENCORE - Advanced energetic strategies to heal aches and pains

There is an energy to life - and healing - and also to illness - that goes beyond the obvious lifestyle choices and medical solutions. My good friend, Lloyd Burrell's upcoming FREE ENCORE WEEKEND for the Healing With Vibration Summit is about pulling back the curtain and tapping into that potential energy that is all around you!

This fundamental truth is that everything in the universe has a vibration, in the form of electromagnetic frequencies, these energies influence in subtle but powerful ways, all living things, including your health.

While the dangers of frequency and vibration are beginning to be known (and felt) by more and more people all around the world, I know that the opportunities to USE frequency and vibration for wellness - can seem otherworldly.

But make no mistake, our world is yearning for this.

Like most people, Lloyd was once totally ignorant about energy and vibration. Then, in 2002, he started reacting to his cell phone (yes - his phone!), and despite trying everything and anything, he experienced debilitating symptoms for nearly 10 years before regaining his health.

Since then, Lloyd has made it his life's mission to support humanity with what he learned about the dangers - and opportunities - that energy and frequency healing has to offer us all.

After the success of the EMF Health Summit, Lloyd knew there was a deeper dive to be done on the science and protocols for frequency and vibrational healing.

So he scoured the world to find and bring you the leading experts on this topic.

Click here to discover 50 world-renowned experts - and attend the Healing With Vibration Summit ENCORE at no cost, as my guest.

Email #5 The Quantum Realm

Subject: ENCORE Weekend - Using Quantum Energy: Your life is sacred

Subject: ENCORE Weekend - Beyond EMFs

Subject: ENCORE Weekend - Everything in the universe has a vibration

Firstname, The "Healing With Vibration ENCORE Weekend" brings you POWERFUL tools and protocols to enable you to use the energy that surrounds you to support your physical, mental and spiritual health.

My good friend, Lloyd Burrell has worked for the last year to create an amazing event, to go past the dangers of man-made electromagnetic energies (that are all around us and can cause massive blockages and imbalances in our health), and dive into the OPPORTUNITIES to use energy to elevate our lives and health.

Because yes, no matter where you are on your healing journey, I can almost guarantee that you have some of these blockages and imbalances.

Lloyd Burrell learned the hard way to overcome his health challenges. One day he started experiencing really bad symptoms around his cell phone, but for 2 years (because it seemed there were no solutions) he lived in denial of the damage that EMFs were inflicting on his health.

And then when he did start taking steps to get well again, he got side-tracked by the seemingly EMF driven symptoms, and overlooked the many ways he could use energy and vibration for his benefit.

Which is why it took Lloyd nearly 10 years to get his health back on track. The good news is, you can do that a LOT quicker, no matter what your current circumstances.

This FREE ENCORE can be immensely transformational, but that really depends on one thing...YOU.

Lloyd is bringing dozens of the world's most elevated experts, including medical doctors, scientists, researchers, electromagnetic field specialists and healers to share what they know about energetic health so you can start applying it to YOUR life today.

Join us to explore:

- Energy Medicine
- Overcoming Energetic Blockages and Trauma
