

Evaluation Questionary Template Research Article 2022

Article title:
Submission number:
Topic
Reviewer's name

review guide	Notes for the authors
The title is representative of the article.
The abstract contains the main results or contributions and the methodology used.
The background, relevant references, motivation, structure and purpose of the work are clearly shown in the introduction.
Properly highlights each of the basic sections of the work (introduction, methodology, results, conclusions).

There are grammatical or spelling errors.
The writing of the work is clear and can be read continuously.
The figures, graphs or tables that are presented, provide clear results of the work.
The work is relevant and innovative, providing new knowledge in the area.
It presents a clear methodology.
Explains and presents an adequate analysis of the results obtained.
In the conclusions, it clearly presents the contributions and relevance of the results obtained.

Finally, based on the above observations, do you recommend the article for publication in RECIT?