

Hey Old School Labs!

Your old-school philosophy is a refresh from all the new misinformation about bodybuilding.

Really like your stuff, especially your protein, never seen something like that before.

Anyway, this is about how YOU can increase your online sales.

How? By leveraging a powerful digital marketing tool you might not be using as much.

And that's a problem because with that tool you can make more sales online very cheaply.

It's your newsletter! When properly using it, you can:

- Increase revenue up to 51% more
- Ensure your emails never get ignored anymore
- A sneaky way to sell to customers without them noticing it
- And more!

Look, I get it. You don't know who I am or what am I trying to do.

Don't worry, I understand this can be a risk, that's why it's gonna be completely free.

This is not a scam, this is genuine help from someone trying to prove himself.

If you wanna discuss this, and the many other ideas I have for you, reply to this email.
