7th Tradition Break

Breakout Room Topic: What projects or ideas might Intergroup pursue in order to spend the Outreach bequest effectively—and how would our funds support the effort?

The topic was discussed in the open meeting and in the CHAT by the entire group, due to lack of time. Below are ideas from the discussion and the chat.

- IDEA: Make refrigerator magnets—or something more durable than business cards.
- IDEA: Flier with white background suitable for printing out at low cost for distributing at in person meetings
- IDEA: gender neutral literature, not referring to God as “he” [RESPONSE: World Service holds the copyright for all our literature. We cannot change it, but we will forward this request to WSO, as many have been discussing such a change.]
- IDEA: donate copies of CAL to the New York Public Library [RESPONSE: NYPL has “How Al-Anon Works” but we can investigate getting more CAL into all branches.
- IDEA: order CAL from Poland to donate to the Polish speaking groups. And possibly order in other languages from other countries to donate as a starter kit for non-English speaking groups in NYC
- IDEA: purchase Alateen literature and give a “gift box” of 4 books to any teen who is interested.
- IDEA: give each meeting an allocation for CAL. Anyone in the meeting who has access to various nonprofits, etc may apply to the lit chair for funds to purchase pamphlets, readers, etc to deliver to various outreach targets
- IDEA: The outreach at the police strategy sounds great. Can we do that for universities and hospitals?

- IDEA: Donating Al-Anon literature to High School libraries
- IDEA: Can we offer reimbursement to districts sending folks to Stepping Stones etc? [RESPONSE: Stepping Stones is not part of Al-Anon so it would not qualify. The New York South Area reimburses travel to Assemblies.]
- IDEA: “Yes” to business cards w/ QR code linking to new website.
- IDEA: New local Alateen brochure (local and graphically in sync w/ new website)
- IDEA: Podcast networks are a possibility [RESPONSE: we may run up against our by-laws, which limit us to the five boroughs of NYC]
- IDEA: Can we focus on getting CAL to parts of NYC that are “dark”
- IDEA: Can we pay Al-Anon members to do some of this legwork
