

English 9 Intensified

In-Class Writing Assignment on Summer Reading

Answer the following questions, writing a single, well-organized paragraph for each. Your paragraphs should be concise (not overly long) but should give a solid, substantial response to the questions. This first writing assignment is your opportunity to exhibit your best writing skills.

One could say that both Dr. Jekyll and Ender were dissatisfied (partially, at least) with their role in life and with their identities. Provide an analysis that shows how the two characters are similar in this way.

Of the major characters in Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde and Ender's Game (Dr. Jekyll, Mr. Hyde, Mr. Utterson; Ender, Valentine, Peter, Graff, Mazer Rackham), which one do you most identify with? In other words, which one of these characters do you see as having the closest connection to your own identity? Explain.

English 9 Intensified

In-Class Writing Assignment on Summer Reading

Answer the following questions, writing a single, well-organized paragraph for each. Your paragraphs should be concise (not overly long) but should give a solid, substantial response to the questions. This first writing assignment is your opportunity to exhibit your best writing skills.

One could say that both Dr. Jekyll and Ender were dissatisfied (partially, at least) with their role in life and with their identities. Provide an analysis that shows how the two characters are similar in this way.

Of the major characters in Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde and Ender's Game (Dr. Jekyll, Mr. Hyde, Mr. Utterson; Ender, Valentine, Peter, Graff, Mazer Rackham), which one do you most identify with? In other words, which one of these characters do you see as having the closest connection to your own identity? Explain.