Accounting Education Special Interest Group Conference
29 – 31 May 2024, University of Leeds

Do I have to present to attend the conference to attend?

No. Our presenters need an audience. The more the merrier.

Can I present online?

No. This is an in-person conference.

How do I submit a paper for the conference?

Decide if you have a Full paper, an Emerging Paper or a Learning and Teaching Innovation.

Write your abstract. For full papers this should be 300 -350 words and for other presentations, 200 words. Further information is available in the call for papers

Then go to the submissions site at the link below:

Submission system link <https://conference.bafa.ac.uk/ae-sig/paper-submissions/>

Here you can enter your details and upload your abstract for consideration.

When should I submit my abstract?

As soon as possible. Acceptances are on a rolling basis so sooner is better.

What happens after I submit?

Your abstract is passed to the reviewer team who will consider if for inclusion on the conference programme. You will be notified of the outcome as soon as the review is complete.

How long should my presentation for a full paper be?

Presentations are a maximum of 20 minutes with an additional 5 minutes for discussant feedback and 5 minutes for questions.

How long should my presentation for a lightning presentation be?

Lightning presentations are for emerging papers and learning and teaching innovations. These are a maximum of 10 minutes with an additional 5 minutes for questions.

Where is the conference being held?

Our conference venue is Cloth Hall Court located in the centre of Leeds.

Accounting Education Special Interest Group Conference
29 – 31 May 2024, University of Leeds

Call for papers

The Accounting Education Special Interest Group are delighted to announce the Annual Conference which will be held at Leeds University Business School from 22 – 24 May 2024. Following the success of last year's conference, this year will also be an in-person conference.

Our conference is designed to provide:

- a setting for discussions on a range of accounting education issues, through full and emerging research papers;
- an opportunity for researchers to develop research projects or discuss current work and research ideas;
- an opportunity to showcase innovative teaching practices in Accounting and Finance;
- opportunities for accounting educators to identify partners (individuals or institutions) for collaborative research; and
- an opportunity to join our network of support.

Presentation formats

There will be two formats for presentations:

Full Presentation – this will be a 30 minute session, with a presentation for 20 minutes, 5 minutes for a discussant to comment and 5 minutes for Q&A

Lightning Presentation – this is a 15 minute session, with a 10 minute presentation and 5 minutes for Q&A

Submissions

The Accounting Education SIG welcomes submissions from established, new or nascent researchers and academics in one of three forms:

Full papers will describe completed or near completed research projects. These papers will be presented in sessions with discussants who will provide critical review comments.

Emerging papers will describe either the initial stages of a project or the initial analysis of findings. Emerging papers will be presented under the Lightning Presentation format.

Learning and teaching innovations will outline the innovative approach, the rationale for its development and the impact on student learning. Learning and teaching innovations will be presented under the Lightning Presentation format.

Accounting Education Special Interest Group Conference
29 – 31 May 2024, University of Leeds

If your paper is accepted for the conference, you may be asked to act as a Chair for a session or as a discussant for another paper.

Deadlines

Please submit abstracts through the online submission system by 31 March 2024. Acceptance will be on a rolling basis up to this date. Please upload your abstract as early as possible to ensure inclusion in the programme.

Additional Submission Information

Full papers

Authors of full papers should submit a structured abstract of 300-350 words using the headings outlined below by 31 March 2024:

- _____ Purpose (mandatory)
- _____ Design/methodology/approach (mandatory)
 - Findings (mandatory)
 - Research limitations/implications (if applicable)
 - Practical implications (if applicable)
 - Social implications (if applicable)
 - Originality/value (mandatory)

Please refer to the website of the Accounting Education journal for further guidance on style (<https://www.tandfonline.com/action/authorSubmission?show=instructions&journalCode=raed20>)

Once accepted and not later than 12 April 2024, full papers should be sent to the conference organiser (beth.picton@durham.ac.uk). These will be distributed to discussant(s) for review prior to the conference. Discussants will present their comments to authors during the conference session. If the full paper is not received by the deadline, the paper may be moved to the emerging papers stream of the conference. Presentation of full papers will be for a maximum of 20 minutes with 5 minutes for discussant comments and 5 minutes for questions and answers.

Emerging papers and Learning and Teaching Innovations

We welcome presentation of emerging papers (early draft papers, emerging research ideas, and proposals) as well as presentations of learning and teaching innovations. These will take the form of a lightning presentation. These shorter presentations allow for a quick overview or introduction to a research idea, initial findings or innovation. A lightning presentation gives the presenter up to 10 minutes to present their emerging idea or innovation with an additional 5 minutes for questions and answers.

Accounting Education Special Interest Group Conference
29 – 31 May 2024, University of Leeds

For emerging ideas papers and learning and teaching innovations, please submit an abstract of approximately 200 words, covering as many of the structured abstract sub-headings shown under full papers above as appropriate, by 31 March 2024 for consideration for inclusion in the conference programme.

Further details on the conference will be available on the BAFA Accounting Education SIG Conference events page (<https://bafa.ac.uk/subgroups/special-interest-groups/accounting-education/events/upcoming-events/accounting-education-sig-annual-conference-2024.html>). In the meantime, if you have any questions, please contact Beth Picton, conference organiser, at beth.picton@durham.ac.uk
