WARNING: mentions of self-harm, grooming, victim-play, mentions of past incidents.

good morning/afternoon/evening, this is Ani rakugaki (also known as @InternetFirebug and sitelenco) this doc is about the guy behind the Ringman and Torchman parody accounts on Twitter (@DCN029_RingMan/Mastah103, @TORCH_MANN, @Gouda012345 and @magnet-man018/ruggedmag/messymagnet/obsidianmania on his Tumblr), this guy is called Skully

i don't think i need to explain much further, i'll send all screenshots.

1st round - DMs conversation (and one that he explicitly said in his own server)

[side note: even tho it looks like i was "enjoying it", i was actually pretending to and i was seriously uncomfortable. reason why i was pretending was to not upset him with the truth.]

(side note number two: the Terra person is me and T-man is my friend Spark)

^^^ my response to the now-deleted thread in-which he tries to defend himself.

update june 8th: he's been harassing several people, including my mutuals, through their strawpages.

not to mention he sent me and Iceman (@DRN_005) death threats along with a terrorist reference.

4th round - death threats

the start of him sending death threats was through my Tumblr, which can be viewed at the screenshot below not to mention he accused me of stalking him, when in reality i was minding my business after the document was made (not to mention trying to heal from what i've been through).
this was later proved to be pretty hypocritical, and i shall get to it soon.

4:10

ruggedmag

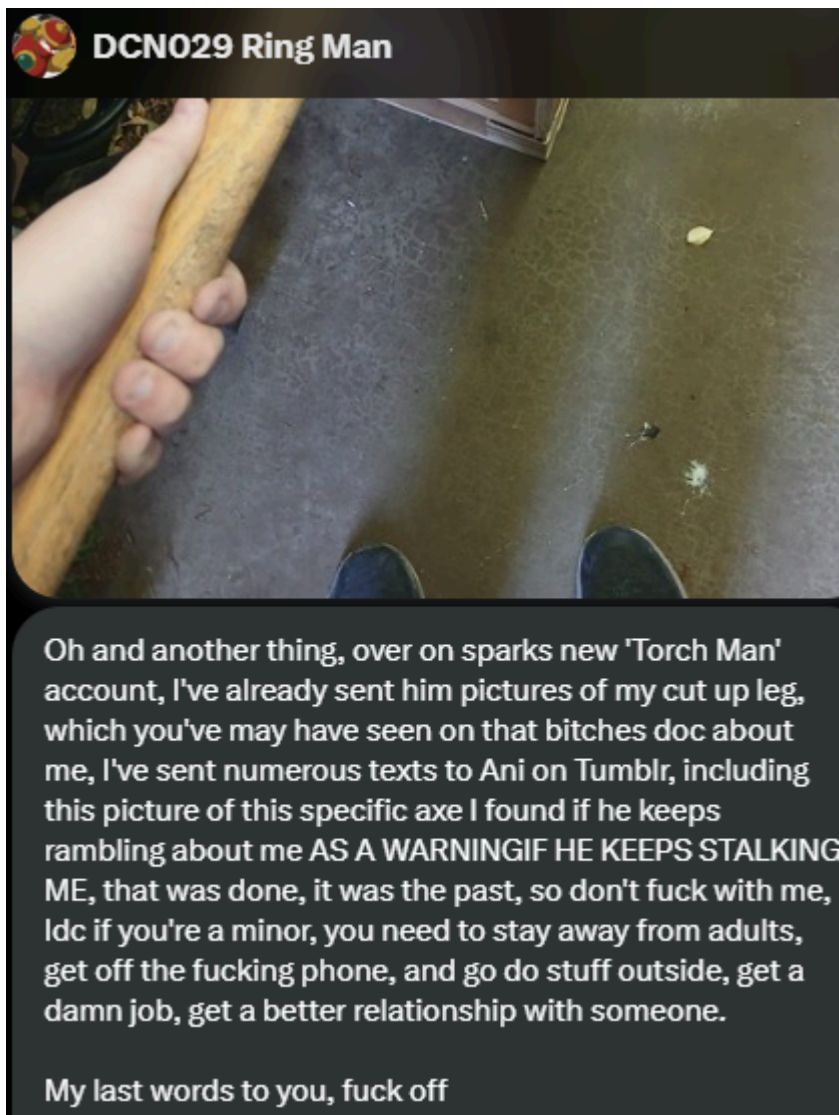

Btw you see this? And this is a warning, you stalk me, I'll find you, so stop rambling about it, you little piece of shit, idc if you're younger than me, I'm an adult, so it doesn't matter if you wanna say "oh this person groo-" not so fun fact: when i shared this to some of my brazilian mutuals, one of them said that this specific quote he used of “i don’t care if you’re a child, i’m an adult” is also commonly used through a specific culture that approves marriage of children with adults:

as you could also see, he still is constantly victimizing himself, denying the receipts, etcetra.
this threat with the photo where he holds an axe was also sent to Iceman:

5th round - harassment through strawpage

sadly, this isn't over, as Skully started to harass many MegaMan parody accounts on Twitter thru their strawpage inboxes, some of these accs are mutuals of mine.

do i have to specify that both people he also harassed were minors? yes, Iceman and Heatman (@AT0M1C_F1R3) are both minors aswell. Heatman mentioned that Skully's NSFW account (which was his main one, and was probably either deleted or had the name changed) used to follow him.

other users like Axl (@AxlMaverickHunt), ghost-batter, goonercave, and among many others (not to mention exposing another person's fetishes to Heatman, the person in question being Burstman, who's also a minor. Heatman didn't consent to know about it, and Burstman didn't consent to have his personal tastes exposed.)

important note: if you have a fetish, please keep it to yourself, and don't keep dragging it online ALWAYS. (this is exactly what Skully would do, and as witness, this can lead to him becoming a lolcow due to also him exposing way too much information about him)

~ heatman.straw.page

Ask me something!

~ goonercave.straw.page

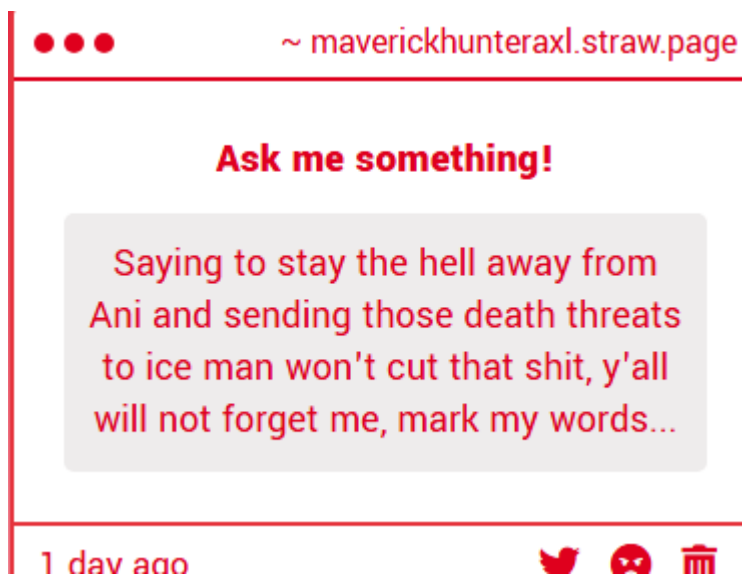

Ask me something!

Oh I forgot you, Ani and Spark ate bitch ass fuckers, Ani didn't say he was a minor when we met the first day, plus he watches porn too, so that makes me the groomer??

Nuh uh, he does it to himself, he asked for it, mark my words...

1 hour ago

for context of this screenshot of Axl's strawpage, Skully was accusing ME of sending those death threats to Iceman. i can confirm myself: no i do not own an axe, no i do not live in America, no i do not have hands that fat, and no i do not live in a house like that.

to confirm even further that i didn't send Iceman said threats, i took photos of my own left hand and part of my apartment kinda (i was in front of my laptop, doing art and studying as usual, and overall chatting with my moots):

<https://x.com/InternetFirebug/status/1931573794553958890> (the post in question where i did the hand reveal to confirm further, no i did not send threats to Iceman, and no i do not type like that :'/)

^^^ the context behind these two screenshots was that my friends were moderators at Wily's server (this included MMX_Zero and Spark), Skully was livid and began tweeting shit like this.

also you can see a glimpse of his now-deleted Torchman acc where he exposes more of his past (which again, i have a huge feeling he might become a lolcow. if you're a troll and you're reading this threat, Skully is all yours to take, trust me, he's EASY to piss off lmao.)

also for more further context: it was clearly obvious he had no chance of becoming a moderator, since he posted a fanart of Magnetman/Ringman with a black latex suit in-which there was a bulge drawn. at Wily's server's rules, it's specified that you cannot post anything that is deemed NSFW or explicit gore:

Dr.Wily WILY 5/19/2025 11:43 AM

Be respectful to the others

Try not to cause drama here

No polemic stuff here

Don't post NSFW stuff
(Like pornography or super explicit gore)

the drawing Skully posted made a lot of people in the server uncomfortable, including some of the moderation team (and possibly Wily himself), which led one of the mods to deleting Skully's fetish art (since y'know...fetish can be deemed as NSFW). this caused Skully to make quite the deal out of it, to the point of also guilt-tripping the moderation team in the process:

?th round - conclusion

i'm deeply sorry for talking to all of you about this, and the fact i only realized last night that i was being groomed made me sick to my stomach.

i thank each one of you guys for helping me out and calming me down, not to mention the overwhelming support

i also gotta thank Sparkrevive (Turboman/Starman), MMX_Zero, and Bubbleman, for dealing with Skully. i also thank each and everyone of you for your overwhelming support and helping me step up further about this jerk this was Ani rakugaki (sitelenco) speaking, take good care, have a great one, and be careful who you speak to online.
