

Unpacking the Fantastics & Grammaristics in Non-Fiction Article

Text to use: <https://www.stuff.co.nz/the-press/canterbury-top-stories/300320388/canterbury-flooding-in-pictures-heavy-rain-and-rising-floodwaters-hit-hard>

Fantastic	Feeling	Asking	Noticing	Touching	Action	Sensing	Tasting	Imagining	Checking
Example	Hoping Relieved Frustrated enormously gratifying		“He described the view from his doorsteps as “bloody mayhem”. floodwaters rise		he had moved ground floor furniture upstairs.				checking

Grammaristic	Adverbs & Adverbial phrase	Basics	Sentence structures	Dialogue	Purpose	Paragraphs	Passive/Active voice	Past & Present Tense	Punctuation
Example			Earlier, streets flooded in the eastern suburb of Avondale with water overwhelming parked cars, creeping up driveways and reaching doorsteps.	“We were prepared for the ground floor to be inundated.” “We were prepared	The purpose of the text was about what damage has happened due to this flood, It was also about how it's affected	There are paragraphs in the story		Last night, about 300 households were without power,	Severe flooding is now also affecting the following

			Especially now the cars are coming past here.	for the ground floor to be inundate d.”	the community.			Jennie Corren, 58, lives by herself in a three-bed room.	roads:
--	--	--	---	--	-------------------	--	--	---	--------

