

John Lewis advert (script)

Location is at Geoffrey's house during the day time and is set over from the 18th of December to the 24th of December

For 15 seconds the uncle is shown to cuddle and play with his dog in his house at Christmas ending with the man going to the kitchen to feed the dog

Scene 1:

Uncle:

“(Prince) DINNER!”

Nothing is heard

“(Prince?)”

Uncle walks to the dog's bed to see if the dog is there

The dog's bed is messed up and the toys are on the floor

Uncle drops the food on the floor in panic and looks around the house

Uncle holds his hands on his head in despair over the dog being missing

Uncle:

“Oh no”

shouts* “John!!! Lewis!!!”

Both come down the stairs talking to each other. ***

John:

I wonder what he wants?

Lewis:

It's probably not that important.

They enter the living room

John:

what's wrong uncle?

Lewis:

Where is prince?

Uncle:

I'm sorry lads but prince has escaped.

John and Lewis both pull shocked faces

John and Lewis:

Really, are you joking!

Uncle:

No, I am not.

Lads can you go look for him?

As he is only what I have left to remind me of my wife before she passed.

John and Lewis:

Yes uncle.

John and Lewis put their shoes and coats on

John opens the front door and leaves

Lewis Leaves behind John and Closes the door

Fade to black
