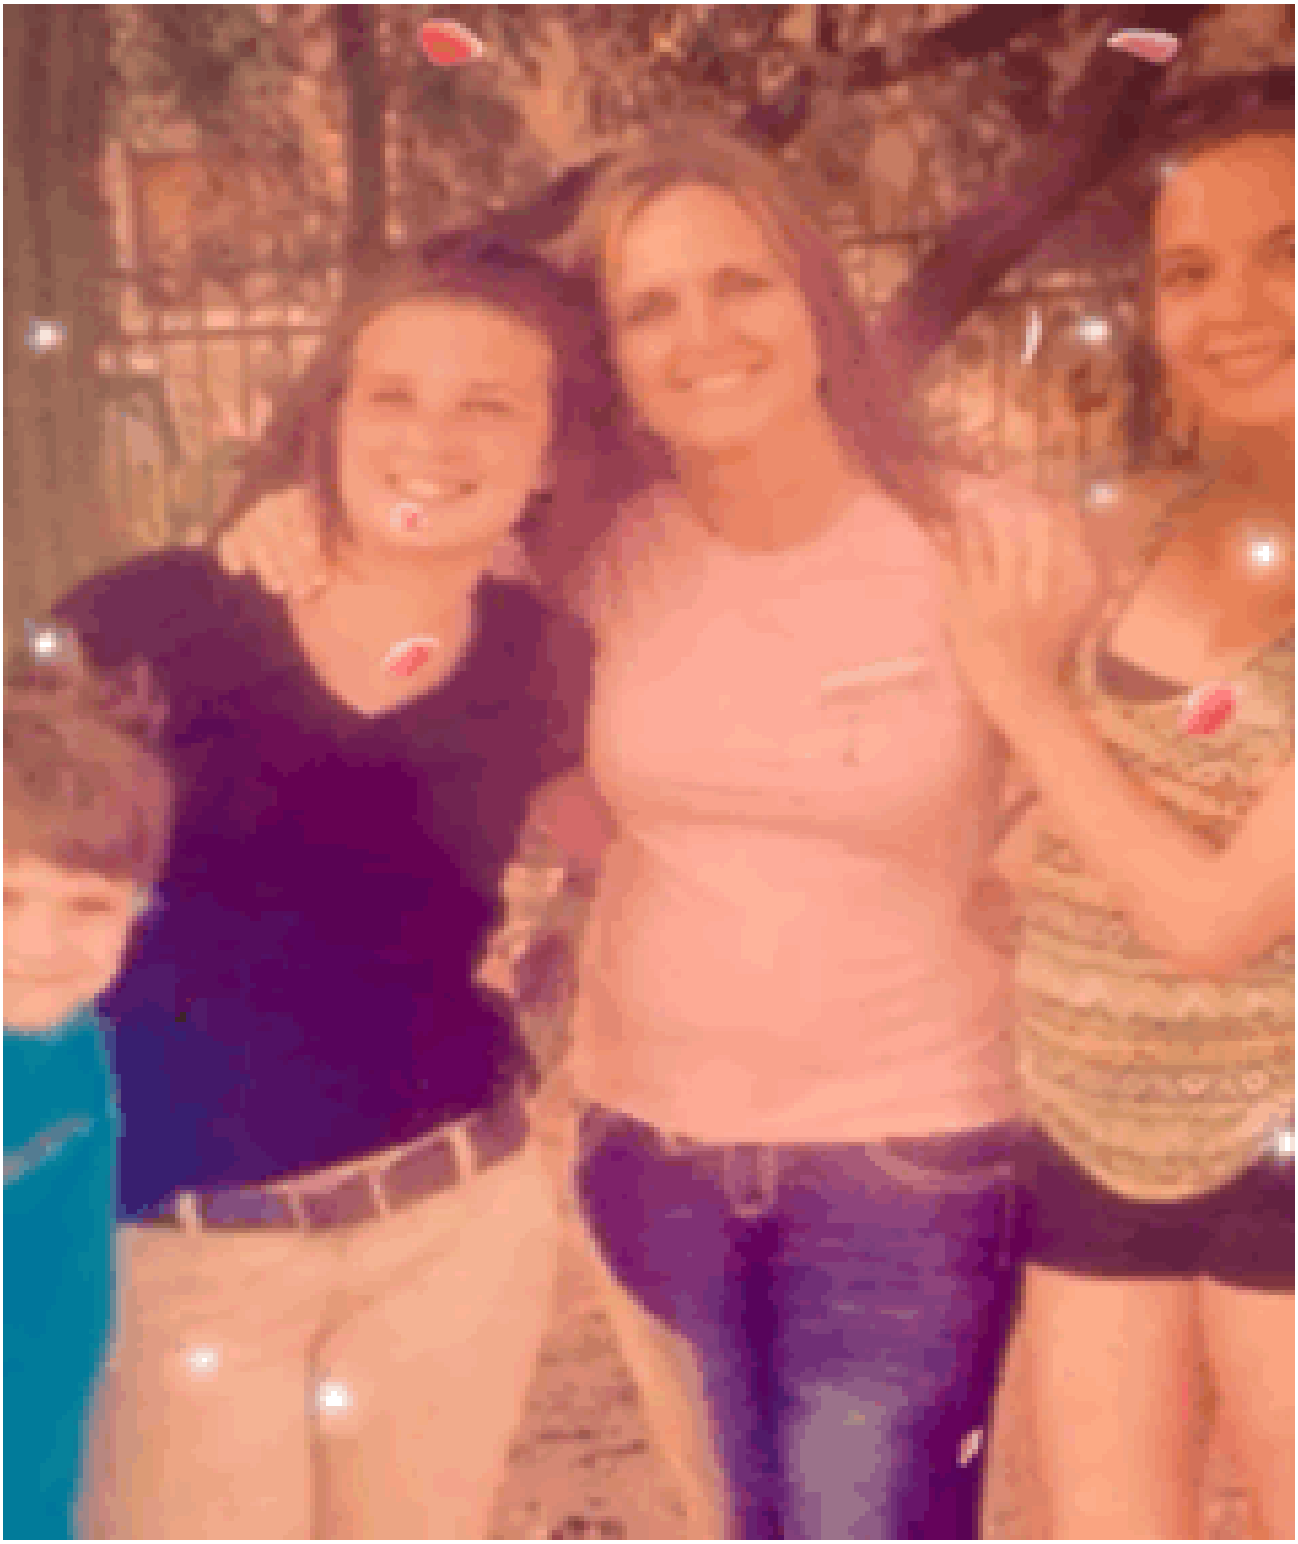
About Me & Earning From Travel

How to Get Paid to Plan Trips (Even If You're Not an Influencer)

Hey I’m Jennifer, a mom of 3, and love all things travel! I’ve been a hairstylist since I was 18.

I became an entrepreneur early on trying different business opportunities. In 2020 I started learning about different ways to earn an extra income online.

While exploring digital marketing I learned about this Travel business from a friend I made in that space. Honestly it was a no-brainer for me once I seen all the perks, tools, training and support that were provided from this company!



Tragically I lost my oldest daughter in 2017 and spent years trying to pull myself back together again. I'm living proof that it's possible to survive the loss of a child.

Welcome!

If you've ever planned a vacation and thought, "I should be getting paid for this," you're in the right place. This guide breaks down how to earn affiliate income by booking travel—without needing a huge following or experience.

How Travel Agents Actually Earn Commission

Affiliate travel agents partner with booking platforms and agencies. When someone books a trip through your link, you earn a percentage of the sale. It's like being a travel-savvy middlewoman, minus the hassle.

3 Simple Steps to Get Started

1. Join a reputable travel affiliate or host agency.

2. Get access to your unique links and booking dashboard.

3. Share those links in content, stories, or directly with people planning a trip.

Best Perks You Can Unlock

Many programs offer discounted trips, early access to deals, and exclusive offers for agents. You can also stack commissions with rewards programs for even more savings.

You've Got This!

Start with one booking. Learn the system. Share what you love. Before you know it, you'll be turning trips into commissions.
