The Philly Free School embraces families of all kinds. Merely asking for the names of the applicant's legal guardians often fails to include all of the relevant parties in the young person's life. Please tell us about the applicant's family. Who do they consider to be immediate family members? Who are the educational decision-makers, both primary and secondary? What role might these individuals play in supporting the young person's enrollment at PFS? _____

Which Open House(s) did your family attend? (provide date) _____

Which family members attended? _____

How else has your family educated yourselves about the Philly Free School's educational model?

What is your preferred start date?

The Philly Free School advises that students may not realize the full benefit of our program within the first year of attendance. At what point(s) do you expect to evaluate ?
