<name> , Happy Monday.

Just quickly – I came across your Youtube channel and noticed your change in from the <niche> to <niche>. Me, who is also versed in <niche> and marketing, saw how your views per video immensely dropped the past couple years.

I want to help you grow your influence and engagement by using a simple title strategy that has been proven to work in similar niches. (So you can get more traffic and clients to your wealthy business woman academy)

So, I'd also like to share a short video that highlights how you can easily use this strategy to boost your views and subs into the thousands.

I understand that you may be busy, so if you're interested, reply with a "Y" and I'll gladly share the video.

Until then, take care
