

Dear [name of girlfriend],

It really makes me romantic while write any letter to you and that too during the festivity. I eagerly wait for this period throughout the year. It is because this is the best time to enjoy and express feelings for one another.

The festivities of Christmas and New Year gives us the opportunities to get romantic and go for a hot cocoa date and watch movies or go to some distant places and spend time with one another or going to a restaurant for candlelight dinner and enjoy ball dance.

We just met each other few months ago and this is our first Christmas and New Year together. Considering the fact we are both private persons, it would be better for both of us to go to any uncommon place and spend time over there.

Ever since I saw your pretty face, I just cannot think of spending a single day without you. I want to keep you far away from the maddening crowd.

To be honest with my feelings, I cannot tolerate seeing you talking to any other boy. I love you very much from the bottom of my heart. Ever since we have met each other, it had been a really great journey.

You are quite different from the rest. You never ask me for any expensive gift like jewelry, dress, shoes or cosmetics. But I want to fill your life with all the best things of life that you have never expected.

I could not have done anything without you nor can I do anything without you. With you at my side, I feel a complete man.

What I am going to offer you this Christmas is actually a big surprise. You may have never thought of it before. I will take you for a long drive and we will be going to [destination name]. You must keep it a secret! You are the only love of my life and I do not want to lose you ever!

Wish you Merry Christmas and Happy New year in advance!

With Love
