

Photographer Documentary Review

Choose one of the documentaries from this page and write a well-organized summary and essay in doubles paced format discussing any of the following topics. Be sure to justify your thoughts with facts or personal experiences. Also include your chosen video link at the end of your paper.

- What's the most prominent style or subject matter that the photographer shot?
- What's the most important message the photographer tried to express through the body of artwork?
- If you found yourself shooting during that time in history, what subject matter do you think you would shoot? Would it be the same as the one in the documentary? How would your photography of that time be different?
- How does the historical context affect the photographer's style or subject matter?
- If this photographer lived during a different time in history or in a different country, would they be able to shoot in the same style, subject matter or communicate the same message?
- Why did you choose this particular photographer? What drew you to the photographer? What do you identify with in the documentary that personalizes it for you?
