III. Reading of the Creed

- 1. We, as undergraduate members of women's fraternities, stand for good scholarship, for guarding of good health, for maintenance of fine standards, and for serving, to the best of our ability, our college community. Cooperation for furthering fraternity life, in harmony with its best possibilities, is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

We, as fraternity women, stand for service through the development of character inspired by the close contact and deep friendship of individual fraternity and Panhellenic life. The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness, is the tenet by which we strive to live.

- i. Happy last GBM of the Fall semester!! Tonight we will be voting on Philanthropy Resolution, Standing Rules revisions and the 2025 Exec Slate. Bylaws need further review after talking to my advisors so we will look at those next semester.
 - ii. I want to say thank you to my exec board and Nathan for an amazing term! My biggest piece of advice to those of you in leadership positions already is one, you will never be able to make everyone happy and that's okay :) and remember you are in your position for a reason! For those of you interested in positions, just go for it and be confident in yourself.
4. Executive VP, Angela Aleksandric: usfpanhellenic.evp@gmail.com
 - i. I want to say thank you to all my delegates for making this year so memorable, I'm so happy to see how you all have grown. And thank you to the rest of my exec board and Nathan for always believing and supporting me.
 - ii. A piece of advice I have is to always believe in yourself and never lose your kindness in a world like this because that is your superpower.
5. VP of Conduct and Integrity, Amanda Bourne: usfpanhellenic.vpc@gmail.com
 - i. N/A
6. VP of Finance, Rachel Barros: usfpanhellenic.vpf@gmail.com
