

My SvTFOE Spoiler (nvplays' Opinion)

My opinion/spoiler on SvTFOE S2 to S4 + S5 Stories: The Document

ok, it's been 7-8 years since season 2 came out, but i want to only talk about the last episode of it, and also the rest of the series (+ my theory)

i feel shocked of when moon came to her but realizing that when marco tries to chase star, it was too late sooooo... it came to the 2nd thing, during season 3 as 4 first episode, star is on her mom side to fight for mewni

During into it, marco diaz is still struggle with his life while being sad of missing star butterfly, and leads to my 3rd one,... mysterious while on that, at first thought about it is the wand, for whatever reason. Star's wand is about to get cleaved, but my reaction... i also felt sad and realizing that moon butterfly took it from her daughter because of the wand starts to getting no-used to it

My theory is, if the wand dies and star butterfly still uses it, does the wand get shattered? Yes, the wand will be shattered and if lowed, it would've been a really bad ending

In their reality at that point, star butterfly came back to mewni and so did marco as his 1st time arrival

while marco diaz found a way to escape the jail, he rescued star while him and his allies were trying to find and planning to save mewni

The thing is, ludo was controlled by toffee, who captured marco in the final episode of season 1 and he captured star when he controlled ludo, leaving her inside. However during the period, moon butterfly gave a finger to toffee

Soon enough, star got told by glossaryck that eating soup and form a new upgraded

when it happened or before, moon butterfly was sad of how star's magic wand was broken apart and when it turned gold, it appears and believe to be upgraded or evolved and star has returned and later defeat toffee

Before it happened, buff frog is now part of moon's side

In episode 8, marco had to leave mewni after done his job and when "the hard goodbye" happened, it was seperate as what it is

1-2 episodes later, marco returned to mewni to meet star again

[OFF-TOPIC time!!!!]

did you know that in 2009, star vs the forces of evil had a pilot and it was pitched to nickelodeon by daron nefcy

It was later rejected after, and it went on to cartoon network, the executive said that they dont want girl show

The nickelodeon pilot of the series had lost media at that time while they were trying to find it, and 1 of 'em finally found it, and was no longer a lost media

[back to topic]

During episode 13 season 3, marco diaz had to return to mewni and start an another adventure

In and during the season 3 episode 15, marco had his other side waiting for him (i forgot what its called), but when star realizes, she's tries to get on to him but marco said the truth

Couple episodes later, the story and different one is still on and normal

It starts to go back to normal until season 4..

[Season 4: Finale | Pt. 1]

Before i get to that, let me explain about series migration to disney channel

Since 2015, disney XD has been airing the first 3 season over the last 3 years since it was released, and in 2019, it was revealed that it won't air on disney XD anymore as they'll be airing the final season on disney channel

And about the development, it has been stuck for 2 years and eventually got canceled but without cancelation, it would've get the series continued

NOTE: the aftermath season will be in my ACTUAL mind when brainstorming, so pls continue reading my stories

During a few episode, they continue on, as star butterfly needs to protect her powerful wand

In episode 2, they experienced random things, mainly the island

And as the lore continue, they continue to scatter around and continuously revealing their stories

Now, I completely forgot about star butterfly's wand, as when it was merged into her body, she can use whatever with her hand. And according to the season 3 intro, ludo's hand had half of the star from the wand after season 1 and during season 2, it is true however according to my theory

Which is i forgot than the new location, in season 3, when the castle of mewni got destroyed, they had now to locate somewhere else called “monster temple”

And before season 3 ends, a new location has revealed

But for whatever reason, they wanted to live there as season 4 goes on.

Now, i want to skip formats in episode that only features the species because i'm too lazy to ever see them

In episode 15 format 1, star butterfly starts saying goodbye to everyone on mewni and returned to earth and began seeing diaz family a new baby (which is a girl btw) named mariposa

But in the next episode and format 2, marco lost mariposa and decided to help in another dimension

However though, tom has decided to breakup with star butterfly and wasnt prepared and had changed my mind (silly tom)

But the thing is, star and marco need help from janna to return mewni and starting to struggle until they did it, and soon on, star and the other lost their memories to get back to mewni

[Star Butterfly's Age]

Now i wanted to talk about her age bc i had to, so here we go. Since the series launched in 2015, she revealed that she was 13 at that time when living mewni but when she turned 14, she received a royal magic wand from moon butterfly

Since then, she abuse it and got sended to earth, and a year later, she turned 15

And when star made her decision to destroy all magic, she would've erase her from existence, leaving marco diaz being lonely and sad at the same time

But in reality, she's alive and if she now lives on earth again (more known as earth/mewni), she would turn at 17-18 (if born on early or mid 2000s)

As of 2025, her age would be at 20-ish

But in my theory, she was most likely born on the stump zodiac of mewni.

[Season 4: Finale | Pt. 2]

AND NOW, its time for cleaved (the final episode to air in the series)

In the scene, marco received a wand by moon butterfly before star destroys the magic and when mina tries to destroy them, marco and tom team up to destroy evil unicorn but after star destroyed her magic, she seemingly want marco to separate but changed her mind and want to go back to earth to keep connecting with marco and soon enough, they separate

After marco and star separately to 2 different dimensions, marco was hospitalized outside while star quickly recovered and returned to home and they both saw the dimensional portal as the last one

Meanwhile on earth, janna realized the portal and told marco about it

Now, dimensional portal was used to travel across the entire universe and was seen in most of episodes in all 4 seasons

Typically, if either star or marco jump into dimension portal, it wouldve been a true ending

And as the portal closed in, they had to run fast before it closed, but marco borrowed jackie's skateboard for a quick boost. But he was so close just by a few miles away and when it explodes, the sky now changed the color to multi-shade purple-blue-mint and dimension portal closed, marco teared his eye out as marco thought he never see star again, he realizes that earth and mewni merged together and finally saw her again as they reunited together with a small greet and ended with an another end credits

Although “cleaved” was a part 2 of starcrusher and the last.

And that concludes the series... but the fun continue

[Season 5: Aftermath (Stories written by nvplays (me) | Unofficial)]

[Note #1: It is WIP, so you can read all while I'm making changes, ty!]

[Note #2: This story will continue the narrative in ways the official didn't]

And so finally!! you guys made it for my written/minded story of SvTFOE season 5, i wanted to do it so here we go. And also, season 5 aftermath contains 26 episodes

[Episode 1 | Format 1: A New Friends]

As earth and mewni merged together, star and marco have seen each other again and have reunited together. But after so, a wild boy with energy/magic appeared

In another scene, star and marco has finally returned to his house once again, after they decided to pack everything and dissolve her and his room from their location “monster temple” from season 4 and said bye to star’s parents.

(this was after a mysterious person putted a new magic wand on her room while being invisible)

As they lived on together, they decided to go on a walk until they saw the sky where a person fall through the sky,.. was levitated and landed on the surface

And when they decided to check it. 2 hours later, they found a person but when they check the identity, turns out it was me and sent to her room that she rebuilds after starcrushed

And soon after, she recovered me by magic, but later thanked to star and when she gave me a hug, i accepted it

VV [Scroll down to see the format 2] VV

[Episode 1 | Format 2: The True Power]

When i told them my stories of how i got there, they were shocked and understandable but didnt realize is that i also have dimension portal as 1 time use and has cooldown to use it again

They were expected to see me as my appearance and eventually became friends together

But soon after, marco has told me to sleep on his bedroom and realizing that i can add my exist bedroom as an expansion to marco's house

Fortunately after however, i designed and coded a new royal magic wand, but when star came to me, i told her to stand on the scan zone and when royal magic wand have merged with star, it forms a new power, being more strength and ever

And eventually, new evils have come up to us and now stronger than ever. However, what they dont know, is i enable godmode and completely demolished them all

[Episode 2 | Format 1: Fun House and Life]

[Part 1]

What they don't know is I also have the ability to bring my room anywhere, including Marco's house which includes coding, song producing, gaming, etc. but coding and machine still works

And when Star checks on me, I tell her about the new magic wand.

While Marco on the other hand, he's taking care of Mariposa

But what Star doesn't know, is that I made a secret room that practices the spelling of royal magic wand (thanks to Glossaryck) which didn't reveal on

Meanwhile on the other hand, Star and Marco enjoys their life doing more things to make joyful as they are having fun while Star's long lost twins was spying on her the whole time

But when they arrived home, me and Diaz family closed their eyes to showcase a new room. And they were shocked that she has now practice her spells and so on

And as soon as Star and Marco turned 16 together, they continued to explore more things and as they told me to experience outside, I packed 2 devices, food, drinks, etc.

But for other things,... we do that too!

Later on, star is experiencing some of her favorites but when she told me and marco, we came to that and soon after. We arrived at home and now dream on together

And as soon as they had another beach day, i decided to check on them but im making sure that i sit on far distance while im drawing something

Meanwhile, they are rebuilding the taco restaurant for sensei (the dojo teacher) and his co-worker

And when star and marco were heading back home, they saw me drawing star butterfly in anime style

[Ep 2 | Format 1 | Pt. 2]

Now, for needed context, 15 is the maximum age to attend echo creek academy as their final school year and now does other stuffs and experiencing their own life

While star was cold during winter, marco gave her a custom hoodie that i made and gave it to marco and said “you need this for star, and make sure to keep it hidden until you reveal it to her”

And as star went outside, feeling cold, marco and star had conversation and when he reveal the new hoodie, star was shocked and when they came back home, star thanked me and hug together

The 2nd thing is i set up is a new blanket made for comfy, cozy and warmable. Pretty best thing for star if she decided to put more plushies

But so on, i had feeling that i didnt sleep

[Episode 2 | Format 2]

In the backyard, star and marco are having fun playing paintball but when i looked out the window, they told me to play with them and and so... i accepted

[Conclusion]

Now, although the season 4 ending is so overhated, i STILL love it but i decided to continue deep diving into series, lore and solving random mystery slop.

Even though some people I encountered hated it, others were shocked in a happy way.

And for now, season 5 is more likely a wait, but when times have passed, it will now be a renewal and different storyline

Although the series was still and remains my favorite show ever.

But there are random things that happened after the series. Comic conventions that they attended, chibiverse happened in 2022 and so many things that i forgot to name it.

ALRIGHT!! That's all for this and thanks for reading my document, im hoping for what's next from the series and in the future.

Cya!
