Terms of Service:

Discord is my preferred method of communication (Lellowberry#6653), but I can be reached on any platform.

Payment or partial payment must be made up front after I've accepted your commission. If making a partial payment the final payment must be made upon completion of the commission before I will email it to you. I will allow up to three (3) weeks waiting time on final payment before I rescind the commission.

Payments will be made through a paypal invoice, for this I will require an email.

Commissions should only take me 3-4 days, but please allow up to 2 weeks for completion or longer depending on complexity. Feel free to DM me for updates!

Process:

1. After I've accepted your commission, I will draw up a mock messy sketch for you to approve.
2. After approval I will require the first partial or full payment be made. I will reach out to you when I'm nearing completion on your art to double check that everything looks the way you want it to and if anything needs to be fixed/altered.
3. Finally once everything looks good I will request the final payment be made(if doing partial payment) and email you the finished artwork.
4. The art is yours to keep and post where you please as long as you post with credit. I can be tagged @Lellowberry on any platform.

Alterations and variants:

After agreeing to the mock sketch I will still make alterations such as moving a limb or changing a facial expression, or make small adjustments to clothing. I will not change the chosen character(s) or make drastic pose changes post payment.

Once the commission has been finalized and delivered I will make no more than three (3) alterations for up to one (1) month post finalization. Any changes after that period will require the purchase of a new commission.

My artwork is not to be redistributed for profit. This includes but is not limited to:

- Posting the artwork on redbubble or similar print distribution site for others to purchase. If you want it privately printed for your use only, that's fine!
- Reselling the artwork as 'adoptable'
- Minting my artwork into an NFT

I reserve the right to decline any commission.
