

Brighton Neurodivergent Community

Constitution of the Brighton Neurodivergent Community

A Community Group for Autistic Adults

1. Name

The name of the group shall be the Brighton Neurodivergent Community (BNC).

2. Purpose and Ethos

The Brighton Neurodivergent Community exists to provide a welcoming space for autistic adults to meet, connect, and feel part of a supportive group. The ethos of the BNC is to foster a sense of belonging and community, whilst recognising that all members are responsible for themselves. The committee team is present solely to organise, guide, support, and facilitate activities for the benefit of all members.

3. Membership

Membership is open to all autistic adults between 18 and 40 who wish to participate in the group. Membership is defined as being a member of any of the social media communities. Non-members can attend meetings so long as they fit the membership criteria. Members and attendees are expected to respect the ethos of the group and act responsibly for themselves during all activities and events.

4. Committee

Our committee is made up of volunteers from the BNC.

5. Financial Arrangements

Funds for the group shall be raised through donations, fundraising activities, and funding applications. A portion of these funds shall be allocated to reimburse committee members for reasonable expenses incurred through attending, travelling to, or organising group events and projects, ensuring that no helper is out of pocket.

for their contributions. The remainder of all funds, after expenses have been accounted for, will be spent exclusively on activities and initiatives for the benefit of the entire membership.

6. Meetings

Quarterly committee meetings shall be held to discuss upcoming activities, share ideas, and ensure the group is running in line with its ethos and constitution.

7. Amendments

Amendments to this constitution may be suggested by the committee at a scheduled meeting, and any changes will be discussed between the co-leads. Any changes made will be circulated to members.

8. Dissolution

If the group is dissolved, any remaining funds after all expenses have been paid will be donated to ASC-mASCot C.I.C who is our partner group.

This constitution was adopted on_03/07/26_.
