1. Things to Do: Art Deco Mumbai Walks

Apart from being one half of Art & Wonderment, Alisha Sadikot is one of Mumbai's most popular young historians and heritage enthusiasts and educates visitors and students through her interactive city walks. Her heritage walks explore often ignored themes about the legacy of certain neighbourhoods and areas in the city and they usually always sell out. You can also try to book a private walk with her if there aren't any scheduled ones running.

3. Local market to Buy at: NO-MAD India Fabrics

Once hidden away amongst the bustle of Mumbai's textile market, this hole-in-the-wall shop was an oasis of calm. Newly refurbished with a distinctly red motif, you can still expect a wide range of fabrics to go through, and customisation is available upon request. Given their new location in Horniman Circle, this one is worth a visit.
